Women's Cinema in Contemporary Portugal Mariana Liz, Hilary Owen, 2020-03-05. Women's Cinema in Contemporary Portugal brings together scholars from Portugal UK and the USA to discuss 14 women film directors in Portugal focussing on their production in both feature film and documentary genres over the last half century. It charts the specific cinematic visions that these women have brought to the re emergence of Portuguese national cinema in the wake of the 1974 Revolution and African decolonisation and to the growing internationalisation of Portugal's arguably minor or small nation cinema with significant young women directors such as Leonor Teles achieving prominence abroad. The history of Portuguese women's cinema only begins systematically after the 1974 revolution and democratisation. This collection shows how female auteurs made their mark on Portugal's post revolutionary conceptualisation of a differently national cinema through the ethnographic output of the late 1970s. It goes on to explore women's decisively gendered interventions in the cinematic memory practices that opened up around the masculine domain of the Colonial Wars in Africa. Feminist political issues such as Portugal's 30 year abortion campaign and LGBT status have become more visible since the 1990s alongside preoccupations with global concerns relating to immigration transit and minority status communities. The book also demonstrates how women have contributed to the evolution of soundscapes the genre of essay cinema film's relationship to the archive and the adaptation of the written word The result is a powerful provocative and definitive challenge to the marginalisation of Portuguese female directed film in terms of double minority

The Oxford Guide to the Romance Languages Adam Ledgeway, Martin Maiden, 2016 The Oxford Guide to the Romance Languages is the most exhaustive treatment of the Romance languages available today Leading international scholars adopt a variety of theoretical frameworks and approaches to offer a detailed structural examination of all the individual Romance varieties and Romance speaking areas including standard non standard dialectal and regional varieties of the Old and New Worlds The book also offers a comprehensive comparative account of major topics issues and case studies across different areas of the grammar of the Romance languages The volume is organized into 10 thematic parts Parts 1 and 2 deal with the making of the Romance languages and their typology and classification respectively Part 3 is devoted to individual structural overviews of Romance languages dialects and linguistic areas while Part 4 provides comparative overviews of Romance phonology morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics and sociolinguistics Chapters in Parts 5 9 examine issues in Romance phonology morphology syntax syntax and semantics and pragmatics and discourse respectively while the final part contains case studies of topics in the nominal group verbal group and the clause The book will be an essential resource for both Romance specialists and everyone with an interest in Indo European and comparative linguistics

Manual of Romance Languages in Africa Ursula Reutner, 2023-12-18 With more than two thousand languages spread over its territory multilingualism is a common reality in Africa The main official languages of most African countries are Indo European in many instances Romance As they were primarily brought to Africa in the era of colonization the areas discussed in this volume are thirty five states that were once ruled by Belgium France Italy Portugal or Spain and the African regions still belonging to three of them Twenty six states are presented in relation to French four to Italian six to Portuguese and two to Spanish They are considered in separate chapters according to their sociolinguistic situation linguistic history external language policy linguistic characteristics and internal language policy The result is a comprehensive overview of the Romance languages in modern day Africa It follows a coherent structure offers linguistic and sociolinguistic information and illustrates language contact situations power relations as well as the cross fertilization and mutual enrichment emerging from the interplay of languages and cultures in Africa

Luso-Tropicalism and Its Discontents Warwick Anderson, Ricardo Roque, Ricardo Ventura Santos, 2019-04-22 Modern perceptions of race across much of the Global South are indebted to the Brazilian social scientist Gilberto Freyre who in works such as The Masters and the Slaves claimed that Portuguese colonialism produced exceptionally benign and tolerant race relations This volume radically reinterprets Freyre's Luso tropicalist arguments and critically engages with the historical complexity of racial concepts and practices in the Portuguese speaking world Encompassing Brazil as well as Portuguese speaking societies in Africa Asia and even Portugal itself it places an interdisciplinary group of scholars in conversation to challenge the conventional understanding of twentieth century

racialization proffering new insights into such controversial topics as human plasticity racial amalgamation and the tropes and proxies of whiteness

Proper Names versus Common Nouns Javier Caro Reina, Johannes Helmbrecht, 2022-11-07 Recent research has shown that proper names morphosyntactically differ from common nouns in many ways However little is known about the morphological and syntactic distributional differences between proper names and common nouns in less known Non Indo European languages This volume brings together contributions which explore morphosyntactic phenomena such as case marking gender assignment rules definiteness marking and possessive constructions from a synchronic diachronic and typological perspective The languages surveyed include Austronesian languages Basque English German Hebrew and Romance languages The volume contributes to a better understanding not only of the contrasts between proper names and common nouns but also of formal contrasts between different proper name classes such as personal names place names and others Academic writing in Portugal: I - discourses in conflict Karen Bennett, 2011-06-01 In the increasingly globalised world of academic production Portuguese researchers are under intense pressure to publish in English generating a huge demand for translation revision and specialised language services However there are considerable rhetorical and epistemological differences between the hegemonic discourse of Anglophone academia and the traditional Portuguese writing style of the humanities which can cause serious problems not only for translators but also for Portuguese academics that wish to write their papers directly in English This work explores those differences across a range of academic disciplines and genres by means of three complementary studies a Corpus Analysis of over 400 Portuguese academic texts a survey of Portuguese researchers in the humanities and social sciences and a review of Portuguese academic style manuals The results are of great practical interest to all those attempting to teach write or translate English academic discourse in the Portuguese context as well as to anyone concerned with the controversial issue of linguistic imperialism Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 Portugal and Brazil in Transiti Sayers, 1984

Migrant Frontiers Anna Tybinko, Lamonte Aidoo, Daniel F. Silva, 2023-11-16 This book examines today's massive migrations between Global South and Global North in light of Spain and Portugal's complicated colonial legacies It offers unique material on Spanish speaking and Lusophone Africa in conjunction to transatlantic and transpacific perspectives encompassing the Americas Asia and the Caribbean For the first time these are brought together to explore how movement within and beyond these former metropolises came to define the Iberian Peninsula The collection is composed of papers that study human mobility in Spanish speaking or Lusophone contexts from a myriad of approaches The project thus sheds critical light on migratory movement within the Luso Hispanic world and also beyond its traditional geo linguistic parameters through an eclectic and interdisciplinary collection of essays traversing anthropology literary studies theater and popular culture Beyond focusing solely on the geo political limits of Peninsular space several essays interrogate the legacies of Iberian colonial projects in a global perspective and how the discursive underpinnings of these impact the politics of migration in the broader Luso Hispanic world Aspectuality Sarah Dessì Schmid, 2019-12-16 This synchronic study presents a new onomasiological frame theoretical model for the description classification and theoretical analysis of the cross linguistic content category aspectuality It deals specifically with those pieces of information which in their interplay constitute the aspectual value of states of affairs The focus is on Romance Languages although the model can be applied just as well to other languages in that it is underpinned by a principle grounded in a fundamental cognitive ability the delimitation principle Unlike traditional approaches which generally have a semasiological orientation and strictly adhere to a semantic differentiation between grammatical aspect and lexical aspect Aktionsart this study makes no such differentiation and understands these as merely different formal realisations of one and the same content category aspectuality

Studies in Historical Ibero-Romance Morpho-Syntax Miriam Bouzouita, Ioanna Sitaridou, Enrique Pato, 2018-07-15 This volume features fourteen papers by leading specialists on various aspects of historical morpho syntax in the Ibero Romance languages In these papers fine grained analyses are developed to capture the richness of undiscussed or often previously unknown data Comparative across the Ibero Romance languages and diverse in terms of the approaches considered ranging from cognitive functionalist to generativist to variationist they combine in this volume to showcase the merits of different yet complementary perspectives in understanding linguistic variation and language change The gamut of phenomena scrutinised varies from morpho phonological puzzles and word formation to syntax and interface related phenomena to as a coda methodological suggestions for future research in old Ibero Romance thus making it ideal reading for scholars and postgraduate students alike
