Boyajian, 1983 Early Modern Trading Networks in Europe Ana Sofia Ribeiro, 2017-07-05 In the early modern period trade became a truly global phenomenon The logistics financial and organizational complexity associated with it increased in order to connect distant geographies and merchants from different backgrounds How did these merchants prevent their partners from dishonesty in a time where formal institutions and legislation did not traverse these different worlds This book studies the mechanisms and criteria of cooperation in early modern trading networks It uses an interdisciplinary approach through the case study of a Castilian long distance merchant of the sixteenth century Simon Ruiz who traded within the limits of the Portuguese and Spanish overseas empires Early Modern Trading Networks in Europe discusses the importance of reciprocity mechanisms trust and reputation in the context of early modern business relations using network analysis methodology combining quantitative data with qualitative information It considers how cooperation and prevention could simultaneously create a business relationship and describes the mechanisms of control policing and punishment used to avoid opportunism and deception among a group of business partners Using bills of exchange and correspondence from Simon Ruiz s private archive it charts the evolution of this business network through time debating which criteria should be included or excluded from business networks as well as the emergence of standards This book intends to put forward a new approach to early modern trade which focusses on individuals interacting in self organized structures rather than on States or Empires It shows how indirect reciprocity was much more frequent than direct reciprocity among early modern merchants and how informal norms like ostracism and signalling helped to prevent defection and deception in an effective way This book will be of interest to all early modern historians especially those with an interest

Historias paralelas James S. Amelang, 2011-11-10 Pocos aspectos de la historia moderna de España han suscitado tanto interés como la evolución y el trágico fin de sus dos minorías étnico religiosas los moriscos y los judeoconversos Y es que a pesar de sus muchas diferencias los descendientes de los musulmanes y los judíos de Al Andalus sufrieron la misma suerte de discriminación y persecución Pero a pesar de compartir una experiencia histórica parecida ha habido muy pocos intentos de estudiar estos dos grupos conjuntamente Este texto pretende realizar un análisis comparativo de las historias paralelas de los moriscos y los conversos atendiendo tanto a las semejanzas como a las diferencias de dos historias que se han dado la espalda y que merecen ser vistas como dos filones de un mismo destino histórico

Rivalry and Conflict Ernst van Veen,Leonard Blussé,2005 The rivalry between the Dutch and Portuguese in Asia is one of the classic themes of the early history of European expansion overseas Yet it is often forgotten that until the end of the sixteenth century the seafarers and traders of Portugal and The Netherlands were the best of friends and close trading partners in Europe This collection of essays seeks to explain the abrupt change in the relationship by analyzing the European interaction with the maritime world of Monsoon Asia Portuguese as well as Dutch interests political commercial and personal became closely interwoven with those of the indigenous rulers merchants and financiers The final outcome of the conflict in Asia was mainly determined by the different ways in which both parties were able to cope with the intricacies of Asian politics European Expansion in the Indian Ocean was far from a one sided affair and its history can only be understood in terms of the interaction of both Europeans and Asians involved Contributors Ernst van Veen Jacques Paviot Mafalda Soares da Cunha Walter Rossa Jo o Paulo Oliveira e Costa Arie Pos Francisco Bethencourt Om Prakash Pius Malekandathil Rui Manuel Loureiro Peter Borschberg Arend de Roever Ren Barendse Marcus Vink C tia Antunes and George Bryan Souza
