A Handbook of Portuguese Nyasaland Great Britain. Naval Intelligence Division,1920 A Handbook of Portuguese Nyasaland Great Britain. Admiralty,1920 Britain and Nyasaland Griff Jones,2025-03-01 Britain and Nyasaland 1964 is a study of the political development of Nyasaland under British control The author outlines the muddle of forces which resulted in the British assuming control of the area and shows the entity of Nyasaland to have been not the outcome of plan or design but the leftovers of geography and treaties He examines the emergence of nationalism from tribalism and problems of administration in a plural society in both early and later days and the benevolent disinterest of British authority which sometimes descended to indifference He describes the moves to establish the Federation both in Britain and in Nyasaland and demonstrates the hopelessness of the task set thereafter for British colonial government He shows at the end that the British abandoned control as they assumed it not for the good of the settlers or the Nyasas and less because of anything that happened there than because to do so fitted in with policy elsewhere and seemed the best way of avoiding inconvenience in dealing with an unconformable little country A Manual of Portuguese East Africa Great Britain. Naval Intelligence Division,1920 Scottish Geographical Magazine ,1901 Peoples of the Lake Nyasa Region Mary Tew,2017-02-10 This volume originally published in 1950 discusses the tribes around Lake Nyasa The rationale for treating the tribes here as members of a single ethnographic province is that the region whose literature has been surveyed is vast and the ethnic distinctions between its inhabitants have been confused by raids and migrations over centuries
