Discourses of Desire Linda Kauffman, 2019-06-30 In Discourses of Desire Linda S. Kauffman looks at a neglected genre the love letters written by literary heroines Tracing the development of the genre from Ovid to the twentieth century novel Kauffman explores through provocative and incisive readings the important implications of these amatory discourses for an understanding of fictive representation in general Among the texts Kauffman treats are Ovid's Heroides Heloise's letters to Abelard The Letters of a Portuguese Nun Clarissa Jane Eyre The Turn of the Screw Absalom Absalom and The Three Marias New Portuguese Letters Drawing on the work of such theorists as Todorov Genette Barthes Bakhtin Lacan and Derrida Kauffman demonstrates how the codes of love shape intertextual dialogues among these works in which each innovation in the genre is simultaneously a response to and a departure from the one preceding it Throughout she pays particular attention to the unsettling questions that the genre's shared thematic preoccupations and formal characteristics pose for concepts of gender authorship genre and mimesis Drawing on poststructuralism and psychoanalytic criticism to extend the boundaries of feminist theory Kauffman makes a significant contribution to contemporary critical discussions of writing and gender mimesis and narrative discourse and poetics and politics Her book broad in its scope and far reaching in its implications will be valuable reading for anyone interested in feminist criticism literary theory and literary history

Portuguese and Luso-Asian Legacies in Southeast Asia, 1511-2011: The making of the Luso-Asian world, intricacies of engagement Laura Jarnagin, 2011 Five hundred years later a conference held in Singapore brought together a large group of scholars from widely different national academic and disciplinary contexts to analyse and discuss the intricate consequences of Portuguese interactions in Asia over the longue duree The result of these discussions is a stimulating set of case studies that as a rule combine original archival and/or field research with innovative historiographical perspectives Luso-Asian communities real and imagined and Luso-Asian heritage material and symbolic are studied with depth and insight The range of thematic chronological and geographic areas covered in these proceedings is truly remarkable showing not only the extraordinary relevance of revisiting Luso-Asian interactions in the longer term but also the surprising dynamism within an area of studies which seemed on the verge of exhaustion After all archives from all over the world from Rio de Janeiro to London from Lisbon to Rome and from Goa to Macao might still hold some secrets on the subject of Luso-Asian relations when duly explored by resourceful scholars
