The Portuguese Marion Kaplan, 1992-01-07      A People's Curriculum for the Earth Bill Bigelow, Tim

Swinehart, 2014-11-14 A People's Curriculum for the Earth is a collection of articles, role plays, simulations, stories, poems, and graphics to help breathe life into teaching about the environmental crisis. The book features some of the best articles from Rethinking Schools magazine alongside classroom-friendly readings on climate change, energy, water, food, and pollution, as well as on people who are working to make things better. A People's Curriculum for the Earth has the breadth and depth of Rethinking Globalization. Teaching for Justice in an Unjust World, one of the most popular books we've published. At a time when it's becoming increasingly obvious that life on Earth is at risk, here is a resource that helps students see what's wrong and imagine solutions. Praise for A People's Curriculum for the Earth: To really confront the climate crisis, we need to think differently, build differently, and teach differently. A People's Curriculum for the Earth is an educator's toolkit for our times. Naomi Klein, author of The Shock Doctrine and This Changes Everything: Capitalism vs. the Climate. This volume is a marvelous example of justice in ALL facets of our lives: civil, social, educational, economic, and yes, environmental. Bravo to the Rethinking Schools team for pulling this collection together and making us think more holistically about what we mean when we talk about justice. Gloria Ladson Billings, Kellner Family Chair in Urban Education, University of Wisconsin-Madison. Bigelow and Swinehart have created a critical resource for today's young people about humanity's responsibility for the Earth. This book can engender the shift in perspective so needed at this point on the clock of the universe. Gregory Smith, Professor of Education, Lewis Clark College, co-author with David Sobel of Place and Community-based Education in Schools.

The Portuguese and the Socio-Cultural Changes in Kerala James John, 2020-03-10 The momentous interaction between Portugal and Kerala commenced with the historic voyage of Vasco da Gama in 1498. It had lasting impact on the society of Kerala. The voyage with the express purpose of searching for Christians and Spices left longlasting imprint on the life of the people of Kerala. Though the Portuguese did not have political dominion in Kerala, the political influence they gained in Kerala precipitated a lot of socio-cultural changes. The intensity and degree of these changes were commensurate with the tenor of the Portuguese networking with the diverse socio-cultural traits in Kerala. Those sections of the Kerala society that gained a higher extent of interconnectedness with the Portuguese manifested a higher degree of socio-cultural transition. One of the most significant means for socio-cultural change that the Portuguese employed in Kerala was ecclesiastical legislation. This cultural interface between Portugal and Kerala resulted in multiple fissions and fusions in the society of Kerala. This book delves deep into the multifarious interaction between the two communities and the consequent socio-cultural changes that Kerala witnessed during 1498-1663, the period when Portuguese influence was at its acme. Please note: This title is co-published with Manohar Publishers, New Delhi. Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh, and Sri Lanka.

A Sociolegal Analysis of Formal Land Tenure Systems Bernardo Ribeiro de Almeida, 2022-03-24. This sociolegal study focuses on the political legal and institutional problems and dilemmas of regulating land tenure. By studying the development of the Timorese formal land tenure system this book engages in the larger debate about the role of state systems in addressing and aggravating social problems such as insecurity poverty inequality destruction of nature and cultural and social estrangement. Land tenure issues in Timor Leste are complex and deeply shaped by the nation's history. Taking an insider's perspective based on the author's experience in Timorese state administration and through the investigation of five analytical themes political environment lawmaking legal framework institutional framework and social relationships and practices this book studies the development of the Timorese formal land tenure system from independence in 2002 to 2018. It shows how political legal and administrative decisions on land administration are made what and who influences them which problems and dilemmas emerge and how the formal system works in practice. The result is a portrait of a young nation grappling with the enormous task of creating a land tenure system that can address the needs of its citizens in the wake of centuries of socio political tumult and huge fluctuations in resources. The book concludes by highlighting the importance of lawmaking and how abuses of power can be curbed by adequate administrative processes and laws. Finally it argues that land administration is primarily a political matter. The political dimension of technical solutions must be considered if we aim to achieve fairer formal land tenure systems. The pertinence of the topics covered the multi disciplinary perspective and the research methodology followed make this book appealing to a variety of readers including
