essays by scholars and filmmakers who examine the unique cinematic form of mockumentary. Individually each of these essays looks at a given instance of mockumentary parody and subversion examining the ways in which each calls into question our assumptions, pleasures, beliefs, and even our senses. Writing about national film, television, and new media traditions as diverse as their backgrounds, this volume's contributors explore and theorize the workings of mockumentaries as well as the strategies and motivations of the writers and filmmakers who brought them into being.

The Secrets of Enduring Love Meg John Barker, Jacqui Gabb, 2016-02-04. The Secrets of Enduring Love focuses on what couples actually do to maintain, nurture, and nourish their relationships. The reader will be taken on a journey through different ways of doing relationships, focusing on the key themes which came out of the research: everyday acts of kindness and appreciation, the importance of home, communication and conflict management, sex and intimacy, incorporating others into the relationship, children, pets, friends, hobbies, and telling your own love story. One of the key messages from the research is that different things work for different people and at different times in the relationship. For this reason, the book focuses on the different practices that we might bring into our own relationships, helping us to recognise the small things which we may be already doing but which ordinarily go by unnoticed, and offering a helping hand to find out what works best for us.

Georges Perec: A Life in Words David Bellos, 2010-11-30. It's hard to see how anyone is ever going to better this. User's Manual to the life of Georges Perec. Gilbert Adair, Sunday Times Winner of the Prix Goncourt for Biography 1994. George Perec (1936-82) was one of the most significant European writers of the twentieth century and undoubtedly the most versatile and innovative writer of his generation. David Bellos's comprehensive biography, which also provides the first full survey of Perec's irreverent polymathic oeuvre, explores the life of an anguished, comical, and endearingly modest man who worked quietly as an archivist in a medical research library. The French son of Jewish immigrants from Poland, he remained haunted all of his life by his father's death in the war, fighting to defend France and his mother's in Auschwitz-Birkenau. His acclaimed novel A Void (1969), written without using the letter 'e', has been seen as an attempt to escape from the words 'pre-mere' and even George Perec. His career made an auspicious start with Things: A Story of the Sixties (1965), which won the Prix Renaudot. He then pursued an idiosyncratic and ambitious literary itinerary through the intellectual ferment of Paris in the 1960s and 1970s. He belonged to the Ouvrier de Littérature Potentielle (Oulipo), a radically inventive group of writers whose members included Raymond Queneau and Italo Calvino. Perec achieved international celebrity with Life: A User's Manual (1978), which won the Prix Médicis and was voted Novel of the Decade by the Salon du Livre. He died in his mid-forties after a short illness, leaving a truly puzzling detective novel, 53 Days Incomplete. Professor Bellos's book enables us at once to relish the most wilfully bizarre aspects of Perec's
