О судьбах России Владимир Вольфович Жириновский, 1993 Возвращение на «Остров Россия» Вадим Цымбурский, 2024-02-14 1957 2009 XVIII XX XXI PDF A4 Poland, Soviet Union, Russia Przemysław

Adamczewski, Wojciech Materski, Piotr Madajczyk, Grzegorz Motyka, Krzysztof Persak, Andrzej Paczkowski, Tomasz Stryjek, Konrad Świder, 2020-12-12 This book contains an overview of many publications by employees of the Institute of Political Studies of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Warsaw in the field of Eastern studies We have selected texts on the recent history of Eastern Europe the Soviet Union and communist rule as well as contemporary Russia and Polish Russian relations By making these available to English speaking readers on the one hand we want to present a small part due to limited space of the Eastern studies conducted by the Institute and on the other pay tribute to their distinguished representative Richard Pipes In 2019 according to the last will of this historian scholar and sovietologist who died on 18 May 2018 the Institute received his book collection of over three and a half thousand items mainly concerning Russia and the Soviet Union These are works of high scientific rank that the scholar collected for over half a century Acquiring the book collection was the first step towards establishing the Professor Richard Pipes Laboratory This was possible thanks to funding obtained by the Institute at the end of 2019 from the Ministry of Science and Higher Education as part of the Dialogue programme Sovremennye interpretatsii russkogo natsionalizma Marlène Laruelle, 2012-03-09 The Russian nationalist idea considered a marginal tendency in the 1990s has during the last years transformed into an official state and widely popular ideology The Russian political spectrum is unified in its promotion of a discourse grounded in undisguised anti Westernism as well as the paranoid view that national unity and authenticity are threatened by various external and internal enemies The space of political representation has become increasingly covered by nationalism to the point that it is today regarded a politically correct attitude in Russia Nationalist and in some cases crypto fascist factions operate in all major political parties of Russia today The government actively contributes to promoting this trend through introducing patriotic education at school revitalizing anti Americanism as a foreign policy doctrine new national holidays and commemorations a growing cult of the military frequent references to Orthodoxy utilizing ultra nationalist groupings in its manipulation of public life through political technology and essentializing ethnic rights of the national subjects of the Federation The media has come to play a crucial role in the dissemination of cryptic and sometimes manifestly nationalist ideas The submission of most major mass media outlets to the authorities highlights the fourth power s status as a proponent of nationalist discourse in its own right The media has been playing an increasing role in exacerbating xenophobic tensions within Russian society

This nationalist climate is not restricted to politics and journalism but is also to be found in numerous sections of cultural and academic life. Thus in Russia today apart from various cases of pseudo science and alternative history the notion that certain academic disciplines have the mission to justify Russian specificity is widespread among scholars as are approaches defined as civilizationist that systematize national stereotypes. History sociology economics and literature as well as the new disciplines of culturology and geopolitics propagate ethnocentric precepts with consequences yet to be explored.
