Post Impressions Kevin Sinclair,2003      香港印象, 1946--1997 Edward Stokes,Hedda Morrison,2005 In September 1946 when the photographer Hedda Morrison reached Hong Kong it remained little changed from decades earlier Acclaimed for her images of China taken in the 1930s and 1940s Hedda Morrison delighted in recording the patterns of everyday life Now captivated by Hong Kong and its people she embraced the colony s diversity For six months cameras in hand Morrison roamed its districts streets coasts and valleys This book presents the people and places she encountered Within years much of what Hedda Morrison witnessed in 1946 47 would be swept aside Yet when she was there Hong Kong s life still had its old feel and traditions with colonial precincts tenement streets bustling markets itinerant hawkers fisherfolk and rice farmers In this book Morrison s memorable images are complemented by Edward Stokes essays that portray the postwar years Hedda Morrison s photographs are the work of a masterful artistic photographer However fewer than thirty of this book s reproductions have ever been seen before It was those images first sighted in a 1946 government report that led Edward Stokes to begin searching for Morrison s original negatives which later were discovered at the Harvard Yenching Library of Harvard University This is a unique record of a now vanished Hong Kong the most complete pictorial account of how the colony looked during the decades from the early 1930s to the 1950s Hedda Morrison s photographs will appeal to all who value documentary images Asian history and the ethnography of urban trades crafts and rural life BOOK JACKET      Present Day Impressions of the Far East and Prominent and Progressive Chinese at Home and Abroad W. H. Morton Cameron,W. Feldwick,1917      Twentieth Century Impressions of Hongkong, Shanghai, and Other Treaty Ports of China Arnold Wright,1908      Australia's Asian Sporting Context, 1920s - 30s Sean Brawley,Nick Guoth,2013-10-18 This book examines Australia s sporting relationships with the Asian region during the interwar period Until now Australia s sporting relationships with the Asian region have been neglected by scholars of Australian and Asian sports history and the broader field of Australia s Asian context Concentrating on the period of the 1920s and 1930s when sporting relationships between Australia and a number of Asian nations emerged in a variety of sports this book demonstrates the depth of these previously under examined connections The book challenges and complicates the broader historiography of Australia s Asian context a historiography that has been strongly influenced by the White Australia Policy and the Pacific War Why for example did white Australia so warmly welcome visiting Japanese sportsmen at a time when the Pacific region appeared to be inexorably sliding into a war that was informed by racial antagonisms This book examines sporting relations between Australia and seven Asian countries China Japan India Netherlands East Indies Philippines Malaya and Singapore and a range of sports including rugby football swimming hockey boxing cricket and tennis This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society      Small Business Management and Entrepreneurship in Hong Kong Ali F. Farhoomand,2005-01-01 The case studies are topically diverse and span a range of managerial functions and sectors This casebook is an anthology of 28 cases from the series The cases are written with a strong management perspective to offer a practical and interesting look at how successful entrepreneur managers in Hong Kong systematically generate innovations in the shape of successful new products services processes and technologies when faced with various organizational and environmental challenges They constitute a comprehensive self contained course of study each case can also be considered on its own Reluctant Heroes Chi Ming Fung,2005-11-01 Through the history of rickshaw pullers in Hong Kong and Canton Reluctant Heroes provides a rich portrait of the urban milieu and life in two contrasting yet interrelated cities in South China Fung Chi Ming explains the dynamics between the rickshaw pullers participation in collective action and the intervention of the British colonial and Chinese authorities and traces the pullers emergence and eclipse as a political force Reluctant Heroes is a fascinating study of rickshaw pullers in Hong Kong and Canton The author reconstructs the daily lives and social environments of rickshaw pullers the majority of whom were emigrants who differed in the loyalties of dialect place of origin and kinship Low skilled yet partially self employed rickshaw pullers relied on entrepreneurial flair in addition to physical stamina to tout for fares thus bridging the culture of petty traders and physical laborers In the volatile urban environment they were subjected not just to patron client problems but also the directives and regulations of the state and to interventions of the police and the British colonial and Chinese authorities Rickshaw pullers struggled with their adversities and became a political force to be reckoned with Fung argues that they are reluctant heroes since their collective outbursts were authentic protests against encroachments on their livelihood They were spurred into collective actions that were at times cheered by the public or embroiled in city politics thus suffering great losses in political storms when they would have preferred to lead quiet anonymous lives Set against the backdrop of two contrasting yet interrelated cities in South China Reluctant Heroes brings a richer understanding of urban living through a comparative study of the historic pattern of adaptation in the urban workplace the powers of the state and the repertoire of mass activism Power and Politics at the Colonial Seaside Shuk-Wah Poon,2022-09-02 A study of the complex role of the seaside as a leisure space in colonial Hong Kong British sports were in many respects more meaningful in the empire than literature music art or religion They served as an instrument of cultural association and later of cultural change promoting imperial union and then postimperial goodwill Poon analyses the ways in which British colonists and Chinese leaders backed by the rhetoric of public health and nationalism respectively transformed the Hong Kong seaside into a leisure space She argues that the growing popularity of seaside resorts and sea bathing as a preferred form of leisure activity across the social and ethnic spectrums served an important role in shaping the racial relationship between Westerners and the Chinese population as well as the Chinese people s perception of the female body and the seaside during the colonial period The popularity of British leisure forms in colonial Hong Kong does not necessarily mean the triumph of Britishness This book will be of great interest to historians with an interest in leisure and in Empire and Colonialism as well as historians of Colonial Hong Kong and Modern China Chinese Family Business and the Equal

Inheritance System Victor Zheng, 2009-12-17 This book disputes the traditional argument that the equal inheritance system hinders the growth of Chinese family business approaching this not only in terms of economic capital but also in terms of human capital such as education and leadership and social networks Zheng argues that most of the family business patriarchs only focus on the passing on economic capital but give little attention to human capital and social capital when they come to the stage to transfer control to the next level It further elaborates that the equal inheritance system itself isn't the destructive force that weakens family business competitiveness but can assist economic development by generating dynamism and capital Based on extensive primary research the work discusses how equal division encourages sibling comparison analysing how such comparisons initially generate stress and anxiety but will ultimately galvanize competition benefiting the business The author also assesses how family division can offer initial economic human and social capitals that can motivate siblings to start their own businesses and be free from the subjugation sometimes associated with a family firm Through the evaluation of these issues the book argues that the equal inheritance system can be regarded as the origin of the self employment mentality which not only fosters the growth of Chinese family business but plays a crucial role in promoting economic development Providing a valuable contribution to the field this work will be of great interest to all scholars of Chinese and Asian business

Chinese Art and Its Encounter with the World David Clarke, 2011-08-01 Chinese Art and Its Encounter with the World examines Chinese art from the mid eighteenth century to the present beginning with discussion of a Chinese portrait modeler from Canton who traveled to London in 1769 and ending with an analysis of art and visual culture in post colonial Hong Kong By means of a series of six closely focused case studies often deliberately introducing non canonical or previously marginalized aspects of Chinese visual culture it analyzes Chinese art s encounter with the broader world and in particular with the West Offering more than a simple charting of influences it uncovers a pattern of richly mutual interchange between Chinese art and its others Arguing that we cannot fully understand modern Chinese art without taking this expanded global context into account it attempts to break down barriers between areas of art history which have hitherto largely been treated within separate and often nationally conceived frames Aware that issues of cultural difference need to be addressed by art historians as much as by artists it represents a pioneering attempt to produce art historical writing which is truly global in approach David Clarke is Professor in the Department of Fine Arts University of Hong Kong

Paradise Lust Brook Wilensky-Lanford, 2011-08-02 A certainly weird strangely wonderful and often irresistible search to find the real Garden of Eden The New York Times Book Review Where precisely was God s Paradise St Augustine had a theory So did medieval monks John Calvin and Christopher Columbus But when Darwin s theory of evolution changed our understanding of human origins shouldn t the desire to put a literal Eden on the map have faded away Not so fast This gloriously researched pluckily written historical and anecdotal assay of humankind s age old quixotic quest for the exact location of the Biblical garden Elle explores an obsession that has consumed scientists and theologians alike for centuries To this day the search continues taken up by amateur explorers clergymen scholars engineers and educators romantic seekers all who started with the same simple sounding Bible verses only to end up at a different spot on the globe Sri Lanka the Seychelles the North Pole Mesopotamia China Iraq and Ohio Inspired by an Eden seeker in her own family Wilensky Lanford approaches her subjects with respect enthusiasm and conscientious research San Francisco Chronicle as she traverses a century spanning history provoking surprising insights into where we came from what we did wrong and where we go from here And it all makes for a lively journey Kirkus Reviews 2003 Far Eastern Economic Review ,1987
