Transition John D. Bell, 2019-05-20 Since the forced resignation of Todor Zhivkov in November of 1989 Bulgaria's transition to democracy has been marked by good beginnings ending in frustration or disappointment It has avoided the violent ethnic confrontations that have characterized much of the post Communist Balkans but has also seen the development of an influential criminal Theory in the "Post" Era Christian Moraru, Andrei Terian, Alexandru Matei, 2021-08-26 Shortlisted for the AATSEEL 2022 Award for Best Edited Multi Author Scholarly Volume AATSEEL is The American Association of Teachers of Slavic and East European Languages Theory in the Post Era brings together the work and perspectives of a group of Romanian theorists who discuss the morphings of contemporary theory in what the editors call the post era Since the Cold War's end and especially in the third millennium theorists have been exploring the aftermath and sometimes just the after of whole paradigms the crisis or passing of anthropocentrism the twilight of an entire ontological and cultural condition as well as the corresponding rise of an antagonist model of an anti meta or neo alternative with examples ranging from posthumanism and post postmodernism to post aesthetics postanalog interpretation or digicriticism post presentism post memory post or neo critique and so forth It is no coincidence the contributors to this volume argue that this post moment is also a time when theory is practiced as a world genre If theory has always been a worlded enterprise a quintessentially communal cross cultural and international project this is truer at present than ever Perhaps more than other humanist constituencies today's theorists work and belong in a theory commons that is transnational if still uneven economically politically and otherwise Theory in the Post Era reports the results of Romanian theory experiments that join efforts made in other places to foster a theory for the post age Dreamworld and Catastrophe Susan Buck-Morss, 2002 This study develops the notion of dreamworld as both a poetic description of a collective mental state and an analytical concept Stressing the similarities between East West the book examines extremes of mass utopia dreamworld and catastrophe

Volume I Negotiating Modernity in the Long Nineteenth Century and Volume II Part I Negotiating Modernity in the Short Twentieth Century 1918 1968 OUP 2018 Its starting point is the defeat of the vision of socialism with a human face in 1968 and the political discourses produced by the various consolidation or normalization regimes It continues with mapping the exile communities and domestic dissidents critical engagement with the local democratic and anti democratic traditions as well as with global trends Rather than achieving the coveted end of history however the liberal democratic order created in East Central Europe after 1989 became increasingly contested from left and right alike Thus instead of a comfortable conclusion pointing to the European integration of most of these countries the book closes with a reflection on the fragility of democracy in this part of the world and beyond The Testimonies of Russian and American Postmodern Poetry Albena Lutzkanova-Vassileva, 2016-06-30 This book challenges the belief in the purely linguistic nature of contemporary poetry and offers an interpretation of late twentieth century Russian poetry as a testimony to the unforeseen annulment of communist reality and its overnight displacement by a completely unfathomable post totalitarian order Albena Lutzkanova Vassileva argues that because of the sudden invalidation of a reality that had been largely seen as unattained and everlasting this shift remained secluded from the mind and totally resistant to cognition thus causing a collectively traumatic psychological experience The book proceeds by inquiring into a school of contemporary American poetry that has been likewise read as cut off from reality Executing a comparative analysis Vassileva advances a new understanding of this poetry as a testimony to the overwhelming and traumatic impact of contemporary media which have assailed the mind with far more signals than it can register digest and furnish with semantic weight Art of the 1980s in Eastern Europe Magda Cârneci, 1999

Postcolonial Marketing Communication Arindam Das, Himadri Roy Chaudhuri, Ozlem Sandikci Turkdogan, 2024-04-20 This volume approaches marcomm marketing communication from the phenomenology of markets in the context of the Global South and its postcolonial experiences It provides a fresh perspective to the current paradigm and offers a fresh discourse on the current theories of marketing communication The book demonstrates how marketing communication an essentially Global North discourse reinforcing hegemony can be critiqued and deconstructed when subjected to postcolonial critical analysis Recognizing as commonplace the Global South has either willingly embraced or been ideologically coerced into adopting a Western marketing communication system This system is evident in its theories and practices mirroring Western themes symbols stories and knowledge frameworks consequently fostering subjectivities that lack critical self reflection and are dependent on Western influences But what remains more interesting is how such an ideological system mediated through a quintessential Global South modernity generates a new habitation of modernity at the margin Essentially a reaction from the Global South perspective the book thoroughly examines the realities around marketing communication discourses The book even engenders alternatives to hegemonic marketing communication discourses and a set of other epistemologies of alternate modernities of equity and justice From African to Turkish from Indian to Canadian first nations Australian Aborigines to Polynesian American postcolonial subjectivities through marcomm across the globe get a voice in the volume. The collection in this volume is a decolonizing attempt that thwarts cultural globalization, examines colonial discourses, cuts across essentialized identities, mobilizes resistance, interrogates power structures and mechanisms of knowledge production, dissemination and legitimization, and celebrates the new formed cultural identity of the Third Fourth World. The book is an essential read for researchers, students, and practitioners of Marketing who wish to gain a deeper understanding of an oft-ignored aspect of marcomm.
