Post-tribal Epics Giorgio Mariani, 1996 Everything the traveler needs for a hiking holiday in New Zealand arranging a trip and getting there from the US city guides to the gateways of Auckland and Wellington 50 detailed hiking maps in the classic Trailblazer style what to see places to stay and eat for all budgets Native American Literature Helen May Dennis, 2006-11-22 Considering Native American literature within a modernist framework and comparing it with writers such as Woolf Stein T S Eliot and Proust results in a valuable and enriching context for the selected texts Handbook of the American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller, 2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James s The Ambassadors to McCarthy s The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distil the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification Global Perspectives on the United States Virginia Dominguez, Jane C Desmond, 2017-04-15 This daring collaborative effort showcases dialogues between international scholars engaged with the United States from abroad The writers investigate the analytic methods and choices that label certain talk images behaviors and allusions as American and how to read the data on such material The editors present the essays in pairs that overlap in theme or region Each author subsequently comments on the other s work A third scholar or team of scholars from a different discipline or geographic location then provides another level of analysis Contributors Andrzej Antoszek Sophia Balakian Zs fia B n Sabine Br ck Ian Condry Kate Delaney Jane C Desmond Virginia R Dominguez Ira Dworkin Richard Ellis Guillermo Ibarra Seyed Mohammad Marandi Giorgio Mariani Ana Mauad Loes Nas Edward Schatz Manar Shorbagy Kristin Solli Amy Spellacy and Michael Titlestad Narrating American Gender and Ethnic Identities Aleksandra M. Różalska, Grażyna Zygałło, 2013-07-16 Narrating American Gender and Ethnic Identities investigates two major issues within contemporary American Studies cultural representations of various minorities ethnic religious sexual and of women in intersectional contexts of race class and sexuality The first part of the volume Gender and Sexuality in Film and Literature analyzes different film genres and literary accounts in reference to those aspects of gender and sexuality that are related to identity Various cultural texts are discussed from perspectives deriving from feminist gender and LGBT studies intersectionality theories as well as film studies The second part American Experiences of Ethnic Diversity dwells upon ethnic

"One Step Beyond the Hero" Giorgio Mariani ,2025-03-26 The essays collected in this volume were written over the last twenty or so years and were all originally published with one exception in a variety of journals and edited collections The topics covered range from contemporary Native American literature to war literature and cinema from the revisionist Western film to the prose of Ralph Waldo Emerson and other writers who struggled to think of peace as something different from the peace that can be safeguarded by an unending preparedness for war As a whole this book attempts to gauge to what extent both film and narrative can point in the direction of that one step beyond the hero which Emerson in his early years saw as necessary to becoming true peace fighters Though One Step Beyond the Hero shows how difficult it is to imagine let alone realize a world free of violence brutality and coercion its goal is not to undermine the Utopian desire for a non violent future On the contrary by calling attention to how writers and filmmakers deal with both violence and war this study engages in a critical scrutiny of culture based on the notion that peace should be another word for justice

Indigenous Cities Laura M. Furlan,2017-11 In Indigenous Cities Laura M Furlan demonstrates that stories of the urban experience are essential to an understanding of modern Indigeneity She situates Native identity among theories of diaspora cosmopolitanism and transnationalism by examining urban narratives such as those written by Sherman Alexie Janet Campbell Hale Louise Erdrich and Susan Power along with the work of filmmakers and artists In these stories Native peoples navigate new surroundings find and reformulate community and maintain and redefine Indian identity in the postrelocation era These narratives illuminate the changing relationship between urban Indigenous peoples and their tribal nations and territories and the ways in which new cosmopolitan bonds both reshape and are interpreted by tribal identities Though the majority of American Indigenous populations do not reside on reservations these spaces regularly define discussions and literature about Native citizenship and identity Meanwhile conversations about the shift to urban settings often focus on elements of dispossession subjectivity and assimilation Furlan takes a critical look at Indigenous fiction from the last three decades to present a new way of looking at urban experiences one that explains mobility and relocation as a form of resistance In these stories Indian bodies are not bound by state imposed borders or confined to Indian Country as it is traditionally conceived Furlan demonstrates that cities have always been Indian land and Indigenous peoples have always been cosmopolitan and urban      Past (Im)Perfect Continuous Alice Balestrino ,2021-06-25 Past Im perfect Continuous Trans Cultural Articulations of the Postmemory of WWII presents an international and interdisciplinary approach to the comprehension of the postmemory of WWII accounting for a number of different intellectual trajectories that investigate WWII and the Holocaust as paradigms for other traumas within a global and multidirectional context Indeed by exceeding the geographical boundaries of nations and states and overcoming contextual specificities postmemory foregrounds continuous active connective transcultural and always imperfect representations of violence that engage with the alterity of other histories and other subjects 75 years after the end of WWII this volume is primarily concerned with the convergence between postmemory and underexamined aspects of the history and aftermath of WWII as well as with several sociopolitical anxieties and representational preoccupations Drawing from different disciplines the critical and visual works gathered in this volume interrogate the referential power of postmemory considering its transcultural interplay with various forms media frames of reference conceptual registers and narrative structures      A Study of Native American Women Novelists Gary Lee Sligh,2003 This symposium based volume in the Advances in Neurology series builds on current knowledge in the treatment of the impairment of voluntary movement of the extremities dystonia Rapid advances in dystonia have been made since the publication of Dr Fahn s Volume 78 in the series and this newly updated title is the result With authoritative coverage from the leaders in the field the book includes a range of newer therapies surgical and botulium toxin plus added material on the understanding of genetic factors and their role in the disease      Western American Literature ,1997
