The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 1995

The Post Colonial Studies Reader is the most comprehensive selection of key texts in post colonial theory and criticism yet compiled. This collection covers a huge range of topics featuring nearly ninety of the discipline's most widely read works. The Reader's 90 extracts are designed to introduce the major issues and debates in the field of post colonial literary studies. This field itself however has become so varied that no collection of readings could encompass every voice which is now giving itself the name post colonial. The editors in order to avoid a volume which is simply a critical canon have selected works representing arguments with which they do not necessarily agree but rather which above all stimulate discussion, thought and further exploration. Post colonial theory has occurred in all societies into which the imperial force of Europe has intruded though not always in the official form of theoretical text. Like the description of any other field the term has come to mean many things but this volume hinges on one incontestable phenomenon the historical fact of colonialism and the palpable consequences to which this phenomenon gave rise. The topic involves talk about experience of various kinds migration slavery suppression resistance representation difference race gender place and reaction to the European influence and about the fundamental experiences of speaking and writing by which all these come into being. In compiling this reader the editors have sought to stimulate people to ask: How might a genuinely post colonial literary enterprise proceed? The fourteen sections include: Issues and Debates, Universality and Difference, Textual Representation and Resistance, Postmodernism and Post Colonialism, Nationalism, Hybridity, Ethnicity and Indigeneity, Feminism and Post Colonialism, Language, The Body and Performance, History, Place, Education and Production and Consumption. Contributors include many of the leading post colonial theorists and critics such as Franz Fanon, Chinua Achebe, Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, Homi Bhabha, Derek Walcott, Edward Said and Trinh T. Minh-ha in addition to a number of the discourse's newer voices. The Post Colonial Studies Reader will prove an authoritative compilation representing an invaluable contribution to the study of post colonial theory and criticism.

Postcolonial Theory and Criticism Benita Parry, Laura Chrisman, 2000

Articles on the historical social and political realities of postcolonialism as expressed in contemporary writing. Contemporary postcolonial studies represent a controversial area of debate. This collection seeks a more pragmatic approach to the subject taking into account its historical social and political realities rather than ignoring a consideration of material conditions. The contributors look at the oppositional power held and exercised by anti colonial movements a neglected topic address the literary strategies devised by metropolitan writers to contain the insecurities of empire given that unrest and opposition were integral to British imperialism contest the charges of nativism and essentialism made by postcolonial critics against liberation writings and investigate the voices of both inhabitants of post independence nation states and those scattered by colonialism itself.

The Postcolonial Intellectual Oliver Lovesey,2016-03-03 Addressing a neglected dimension in postcolonial scholarship Oliver Lovesey examines the figure of the postcolonial intellectual as repeatedly evoked by the fabled troika of Said Spivak and Bhabha and by members of the pan African diaspora such as Cabral Fanon and James Lovesey s primary focus is Ng g wa Thiong o one of the greatest writers of post independence Africa Ng g continues to be a vibrant cultural agitator and innovator who in contrast to many other public intellectuals has participated directly in grassroots cultural renewal enduring imprisonment and exile as a consequence of his engagement in political action Lovesey s comprehensive study concentrates on Ng g s non fictional prose writings including his largely overlooked early journalism and his most recent autobiographical and theoretical work He offers a postcolonial critique that acknowledges Ng g s complex position as a virtual spokesperson for the oppressed and global conscience who now speaks from a location of privilege Ng g s writings Lovesey shows display a seemingly paradoxical consistency in their concerns over nearly five decades at the same time that there have been enormous transformations in his ideology and a shift in his focus from Africa s holocaust to Africa s renaissance Lovesey argues that Ng g s view of the intellectual has shifted from an alienated nearly neocolonial stance to a position that allows him to celebrate intellectual activism and a return to the model of the oral vernacular intellectual even as he challenges other global intellectuals Tracing the development of this notion of the postcolonial intellectual Lovesey argues for Ng g s rightful position as a major postcolonial theorist who helped establish postcolonial studies Postcolonial Theory and Autobiography David Huddart,2008-04-18 Cultural theory has often been criticized for covert Eurocentric and universalist tendencies Its concepts and ideas are implicitly applicable to everyone ironing over any individuality or cultural difference Postcolonial theory has challenged these limitations of cultural theory and Postcolonial Theory and Autobiography addresses the central challenge posed by its autobiographical turn Despite the fact that autobiography is frequently dismissed for its Western masculine bias David Huddart argues for its continued relevance as a central explanatory category in understanding postcolonial theory and its relation to subjectivity Focusing on the influence of post structuralist theory on postcolonial theory and vice versa this study suggests that autobiography constitutes a general philosophical resistance to universal concepts and theories Offering a fresh perspective on familiar critical figures like Edward W Said and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak by putting them in the context of readings of the work of Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze and Alain Badiou this book relates the theory of autobiography to expressions of new universalisms that together with postcolonial theory rethink and extend norms of experience investigation and knowledge
