Postchristian Literature Of The Jews:

Post-Christian Literature of the Jews Arthur Edward Waite, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. Jewish Traditions in Early Christian Literature, Volume 4 Jewish Apocalyptic Heritage in Early Christianity William Adler, James VanderKam, 1996-01-01 This volume contains five chapters which investigate the early Christian appropriations of Jewish apocalyptic material. An introductory chapter surveys ancient perceptions of the apocalypses as well as their function, authority, and survival in the early Church. The second chapter focuses on a specific tradition by exploring the status of the Enoch literature, the use of the fallen angel motif, and the identification of Enoch as an eschatological witness. Christian transmission of Jewish texts, a topic whose significance is more and more being recognized, is the subject of chapter three, which analyzes what happened to 4 Ezra as they were copied and edited in Christian circles. Chapter four studies the early Christian appropriation and reinterpretation of Jewish apocalyptic chronologies, especially Daniel's vision of 70 weeks. The fifth and last chapter is devoted to the use and influence of Jewish apocalyptic traditions among Christian sectarian groups in Asia Minor and particularly in Egypt. Taken together, these chapters, written by four authors, offer illuminating examples of how Jewish apocalyptic texts and traditions fared in early Christianity. Editors: James C. VanderKam is lecturing at the University of Notre Dame; William Adler is lecturer at North Carolina State University. Series: Compendia Rerum Iudaicarum ad Novum Testamentum. Section 1: The Jewish people in the first century: Historical geography, political history, social, cultural, and religious life and institutions. Edited by S. Safrai and M. Stern in cooperation with D. Flusser and W. C. van Unnik. Section 2: The Literature of the Jewish People in the Period of the Second Temple and the Talmud. Section 3: Jewish Traditions in Early Christian Literature. Christian Conceptions of Jewish Books Avner Shamir, 2011 Explores how Christians understood the meaning and significance of Jewish books at the beginning of the sixteenth century. This book tells the story of the so-called Pfefferkorn affair, the attempt to confiscate and burn all Jewish post-biblical literature in the Holy Roman Empire in the years 1509-10. The Magazine of Christian Literature, 1892. The Doctrine and Literature of the Kabbalah Arthur Edward Waite, 1902. Rabbinic Parodies of Jewish and Christian Literature Holger M. Zellentin, 2011 Originally presented as the author's thesis, Ph.D. Princeton, under the title Late Antiquity Upside Down: Rabbinic Parodies of Jewish and Christian Literature. Revealing the Secrets of the Jews Jonathan Adams, Cordelia Heß, 2017-04-24 This book presents the most recent scholarship on the sixteenth-century convert Johannes Pfefferkorn and his context. Pfefferkorn is the most famous of the converts from Judaism who wrote descriptions of Jewish ceremonial life and shaped both Christian ideas about Judaism and the course of anti-Jewish polemics in the early modern period. Rather than just rehearsing the better-known aspects of Pfefferkorn's life and the controversy with Johannes Reuchlin this volume re-evaluates the motives behind his activities and writings as well as his role and success in the context of Dominican anti-Jewish polemics and Imperial German politics. Furthermore, it discusses other converts who similarly revealed the secrets of the Jews and contains detailed studies of the campaigns against the Talmud and other Jewish books as well as the diffusion of Pfefferkorn's books and other anti-Jewish writings throughout early modern Europe. Revealing the Secrets of the Jews thus presents new perspectives on Jewish-Christian relations, the study of religion and Christian Hebraism, and the history of anthropology and ethnography. Jewish Manuscript Cultures Irina Wandrey, 2017-12-18 Hebrew manuscripts are considered to be invaluable documents and artefacts of Jewish culture and history. Research on Hebrew manuscript culture is progressing rapidly and therefore its topics, methods, and questions need to be enunciated and reflected upon. The case studies assembled in this volume explore various fields of research on Hebrew manuscripts. They show paradigmatically the current developments concerning codicology and palaeography, book forms like the scroll and codex, scribes and their writing material, patrons, collectors, and censors, manuscript and book collections, illuminations, and fragments, and last but not least new methods of material analysis applied to manuscripts. The principal focus of this volume is the material and intellectual history of Hebrew book cultures from antiquity to the Middle Ages and Early Modern Period, its intention being to heighten and sharpen the reader's understanding of Jewish social and cultural history in general. The Preservation of Jewish Religious Books in Sixteenth-Century Germany: Johannes Reuchlin's Augenspiegel Daniel O'Callaghan, 2012-11-09 Johannes Reuchlin's Augenspiegel 1511 was a radical political publication aimed to preserve Jewish books from destruction and the consequent loss of irreplaceable knowledge. This first complete and extensively annotated translation provides an insight into the authorities' attitude to Judaism in Early Modern Germany. Biblical Figures Outside the Bible Michael E. Stone, Theodore A. Bergren, 2002-11-01 1999 Biblical Archaeology Society Publication Award for the category Best Book Relating to the Old Testament. Explores the evolution of the biographical traditions of some fifteen biblical figures. Jewish Influence on Christian Reform Movements Louis Israel Newman, 1925 Abraham in Jewish and Early Christian Literature Sean A. Adams, Zanne Domoney-Lyttle, 2019-11-14 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com. It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched. Jewish and early Christian authors discussed Abraham in numerous and diverse ways, adapting his Old Testament narratives and using Abrahamic imagery in their works. However, while some areas of study in Abrahamic texts have received much scholarly attention, other areas remain nearly untouched. Beginning with a perspective on how Abraham was used within Jewish literature, this collection of essays follows the impact of Abraham across biblical texts, including Pseudepigraphic and Apocryphal texts, into early Greek, Latin, and Gnostic literature. These essays build upon existing Abraham scholarship by discussing Abraham in less explored areas such as rewritten scripture, Philo of Alexandria, Josephus, the Apostolic Fathers, and contemporary Greek and Latin authors. Through the presentation of a more thorough outline of the impact of the figure and stories of Abraham the contributors to this volume create a concise and complete idea of how his narrative was employed throughout the centuries and how ancient authors adopted and adapted received traditions The Reception of Exodus Motifs in Jewish and Christian Literature, 2021-10-18 The account of the exodus of the Israelite slaves from Egypt under Moses has shaped the theology and community identity of both Jews and Christians across the centuries Its reception in later scriptures and religious writings as well as in art and music continues to inspire liberation movements across the globe This volume brings together an international group of scholars to explore the re use of the exodus narratives across a wide range of early Jewish and Christian literature including the Apocrypha and the New Testament The contributors engage with wider questions of methodology and the impact of social and cultural context on biblical interpretation Journal of the Transactions of the Victoria Institute, Or Philosophical Society of Great Britain Victoria Institute (Great Britain), 1868 Each volume includes list of members and objects of the institute except v 31 which has no list of members Beginning with v 12 a list of the papers contained in preceding volumes is issued regularly with each volume The Jewish Bible and the Christian Bible Julio Trebolle Barrera, 2023-03-20 This wide ranging handbook presents an overview of our current knowledge on the history of the Bible Divided into three parts it shows how the collections of canonical and apocryphal books were formed explains the transmission and translation of the Biblical texts and describes biblical interpretation in Judaism and Christianity Incorporating the immense amount of information that has become available since the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls the author sets out to bridge the gaps between widely different areas and trends in the field of Biblical Studies canonical and apocryphal literature written and oral traditions rabbinic and Christian exegesis and modern critical exegesis and literal and allegorical interpretation among others Uniquely Trebolle Barrera also looks at the Wirkungsgeschichte of the Bible in relation to the Greek and Roman world the Renaissance and the Enlightenment Scholars students and interested lay persons alike will benefit from the wealth of general information found here as well as detailed discussion on many topics currently under debate from the significance of Qumran to the influence of the Semitic and Greek world on Christianity From Christian Hebraism to Jewish Studies: Johannes Buxtorf (1564-1629) and Hebrew Learning in the Seventeenth Century Stephen Burnett, 2021-12-06 This book examines how Johannes Buxtorf s works helped to transform seventeenth century Hebrew studies from the hobby of a few experts into a recognized academic discipline The first two chapters examine Buxtorf s career as a professor of Hebrew and as an editor and censor of Jewish books in Basel Successive chapters analyze his anti Jewish polemical books grammars and lexicons and manuals for Hebrew composition and literature including the first bibliography devoted to Jewish books The final chapters treat his work in biblical studies examining his contribution to Targum and Massorah studies and his position on the age and doctrinal authority of the Hebrew vowel points The chapters on anti Jewish polemics and the vowel points will interest Jewish historians and Church historians Some Jewish Witnesses For Christ A. Bernstein, 2020-07-20 Reproduction of the original Some Jewish Witnesses For Christ by A Bernstein Christian-Jewish Relations Through the Centuries Stanley E. Porter, Brook W. Pearson, 2004-12-19 Christian Jewish relations have had changing fortunes throughout the centuries Occasionally there has been peace and even mutual understanding but usually these relations have been ones of tension often involving recrimination and even violence This volume addresses a number of the major questions that have been at the heart and the periphery of these tenuous relations through the years The volume begins with a number of papers discussing relations as Christianity emerged from and defined itself in terms of Judaism Other papers trace the relations through the intervening years And a number of papers confront issues that have been at the heart of the troubled twentieth century In all these papers address a sensitive yet vital set of issues from a variety of approaches and perspectives becoming in their own way a part of the ongoing dialogue Journal of the Transactions of the Victoria Institute, Or Philosophical Society of Great Britain , 1869 50 Christian Books: Scripture, History, Theology, Spirituality and Fiction Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Martin Luther, Henryk Sienkiewicz, Henry Van Dyke, David Hume, James Allen, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Andrew Murray, John Bunyan, Grace Livingston Hill, Thomas Paine, Voltaire, Lew Wallace, John Milton, Charles M.
