Postcolonial Representations Françoise Lionnet, 2018-07-05 Passionate allegiances to competing theoretical camps have stifled dialogue among today's literary critics asserts Françoise Lionnet. Discussing a number of postcolonial narratives by women from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds she offers a comparative feminist approach that can provide common ground for debates on such issues as multiculturalism universalism and relativism. Lionnet uses the concept of métissage or cultural mixing in her readings of a rich array of Francophone and Anglophone texts by Michelle Cliff from Jamaica Suzanne Dracius Pinalie from Martinique Ananda Devi from Mauritius Maryse Conde and Myriam Warner Vieyra from Guadeloupe Gayl Jones from the United States Bessie Head from Botswana Nawal El Saadawi from Egypt and Leila Sebbar from Algeria and France. Focusing on themes of exile and displacement and on narrative treatments of culturally sanctioned excision polygamy and murder Lionnet examines the psychological and social mechanisms that allow individuals to negotiate conflicting cultural influences. In her view these writers reject the opposition between self and other and base their self portrayals on a métissage of forms and influences. Lionnet's perspective has much to offer critics and theorists whether they are interested in First or Third World contexts. American or French critical perspectives essentialist or poststructuralist epistemologies.

Maryse Conde and the Space of Literature Eva Sansavior, 2017-12-02 The Guadeloupean writer and critic Maryse Conde has for the last twenty five years divided her time between her native Guadeloupe and the United States. If the author's work has attracted much critical attention in the United States it is the fictional works that have been the focus of this attention with these predominantly read in the light of political themes such as identity and resistance. In these intelligent and sensitive readings Eva Sansavior argues in favour of adopting a broader thematic and generic approach to the author's work. Sansavior accounts for the multiple and oblique uses of literature in the Conde's literary and critical work tracking its complex interactions with tradition reception politics and autobiography and also the singular possibilities that these interactions present for re-imagining the ideas of politics literature identity and ultimately the nature of critical practice itself.

Postcolonial Life-Writing Bart Moore-Gilbert, 2009-06-08 At a time when concepts of identity and self representation are abundant in both literary and cultural studies Postcolonialism and Life Writing brings together the two increasingly popular and important fields of postcolonial studies and life writing.

Cartographies of Transnationalism in Postcolonial Feminisms Jamil Khader, 2013 This book proffers a new theory of the radical possibilities of contemporary postcolonial feminist writings from Africa the Middle East the Americas and the Caribbean against what can be described as actually existing colonialisms. These writers include prominent and other less known postcolonial women writers such as Tsitsi Dangarembga Louise Erdrich Aurora Levins Morales Rosario Morales Esmeralda Santiago Raymonda Tawil Michelle Cliff and Rigoberta Mench. Negotiating the contradictions among gender nation and globalization postcolonial women writers construct extimate subjectivities that mark their excessive locations in the social field through the dialectical relation.

between the intimate and the external the intimately or internally external articulating these contradictions within the larger history and narratives of anti colonial internationalist struggle for liberation and emancipation Grounded in a commitment to the future of the postcolonial nation and the project of decolonization and liberation within the ever encroaching neocolonial global capitalist system postcolonial women s narratives of displacing offer not only an alternative mode of ideological critique of scripted and commonly inherited discourses of identity home culture that obfuscate the fundamental social antagonism but also ways of changing them through practices of radical politics The book thus charts four intersecting dialogic strategies by which postcolonial women writers produce extimate subjectivities travel unhomeliness multiple and shifting subject positions and transnational alliances First specific strategies of travel voluntary and involuntary within glocal networks of dispossession displacement and labor migration that foreground their extimate locations as internally external Second tactics of unhomeliness that uncover traces of the foreign and elsewhere in the edifice of the familiar that serve as the basis for interrogating dominant discourses of belonging Third techniques of multiple and shifting subject positions that recognize the excessive location of the extimate subject in order to unravel not only the contingency of the subject s ontic properties but also her locations in the interplay of oppression and privilege And fourth strategies for building political solidarity with transnational and transethnic communities of struggle that are grounded in the concrete Universality of the excluded communities This book bears witness to the radical possibility in contemporary postcolonial feminist writing and promises a way out of the impasse of the current culturalization of politics in the humanities that has resulted from the uncritical celebration of hybridity and the concomitant emphasis on diaspora postnationalism and cosmopolitanism in dominant discourses of postcolonial ethnic and transnational studies Beginning Postcolonialism John McLeod, 2000-07-07

Postcolonialism has become one of the most exciting expanding and challenging areas of literary and cultural studies today Designed especially for those studying the topic for the first time Beginning Postcolonialism introduces the major areas of concern in a clear accessible and organized fashion It provides an overview of the emergence of postcolonialism as a discipline and closely examines many of its important critical writings Messy Beginnings Malini Johar Schueller, Edward Watts, 2003 When exploring the links between America and post colonialism scholars tend to think either in terms of contemporary multiculturalism or of imperialism since 1898 This book challenges the idea of early America s immunity from issues of imperialism Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010 projects and an extensive bibliography

Book Jacket Postcolonial Life Narratives Gillian Whitlock, 2015 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English Postcolonial Life Narrative draws together two dynamic fields of contemporary literature and criticism postcolonialism and life narrative to create a new assemblage postcolonial life narrative Focusing in particular on testimonial narrative from slave narrative in the late eighteenth century to contemporary Anglophone life narrative from Africa Australia the Caribbean Palestine North America and India this study follows texts on the move through adaptation appropriation and remediation For postcolonial subjects life narrative offers extraordinary opportunities to present accounts of social injustice and oppression of violence and social suffering Testimonial narrative can reach across cultures to produce intimate attachments between those who testify and those who bear witness to legacies of apartheid slavery rape warfare genocide and dispossession Thresholds of testimony are subject to change and for some for example refugees and asylum seekers opportunities to engage a witnessing public and inspire campaigns for social justice on their behalf are curtailed these are the ends of testimony The production circulation and reception of testimonial life narrative connects directly to the most fundamental questions of who counts as human what rights follow from this and what makes for grievable life Postcolonial life narrative is a dynamic field of literature and criticism and this book presents a series of proximate readings that outline its distinctive imaginative geographies

Contemporary Arab Women Writers Anastasia Valassopoulos, 2008-03-10 This book engages with contemporary Arab women writers from Egypt Palestine Lebanon and Algeria In spite of Edward Said's groundbreaking reappraisal of the uneven relationship between the West and the Arab world in Orientalism there has been little postcolonial criticism of Arab writing Anastasia Valassopoulos raises the profile of Arab women writers by examining how they negotiate contexts and experiences that have come to be identified with postcoloniality such as the preoccupation with Western feminism political conflict and war the social effects of non conformity and female empowerment and the negotiation of influential cultural discourses such as orientalism Contemporary Arab Women Writers revitalizes theoretical concepts associated with feminism gender studies and cultural studies and explores how art history popular culture translation studies psychoanalysis and news media all offer productive ways to associate with Arab women's writing that work beyond a limiting socio historical context Discussing the writings of authors including Ahdaf Soueif Nawal El Saadawi Leila Sebbar Liana Badr and Hanan Al Shaykh this book represents a new direction in postcolonial literary criticism that transcends constrictive monothematic approaches

Rethinking the French Classroom E. Nicole Meyer, Joyce Johnston, 2018-12-13 This volume investigates how teaching practices can address the changing status of literature in the French classroom Focusing on how women writing in French are changing the face of French Studies opening the canon to not only new approaches to gender but to genre expanding interdisciplinary studies and aiding scholars to rethink the teaching of literature each chapter provides concrete strategies useful to a wide variety of classrooms and institutional contexts Essays address how to bring French Studies and women's and gender studies into the twenty first century through intersections of autobiography gender issues and technology ways to introduce beginning and intermediate students to the rich diversity of women writing in French strategies for teaching postcolonial writing and literary theory and interdisciplinary approaches to expand our student audiences in the United States Canada or abroad In short revisiting how we teach why we teach and what we teach through the prism of women's texts and lives while raising issues that affect cisgender women of the Hexagon queer and other gendered women immigrants and residents of the postcolony attracts more openly diverse students Whether new to the profession or seasoned educators faculty will find new ideas to invigorate and diversify their pedagogical approaches Historicizing Colonial Nostalgia P. Lorcin, 2011-12-15 Comparative study of the writings and strategies of European women in two colonies French Algeria and British Kenya during the twentieth century Its central theme is women's discursive contribution to the construction of colonial nostalgia Between Image and Identity Karina Eileraas, 2007-01-01 This book addresses the autobiographical literature visual and performance art of postcolonial women from Maghreb and Southeast Asia including Leila Sebbar Assia Djebar and Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Karina Eileraas critically examines how contemporary postcolonial artists participate in the violence of representation in order to re-imagine the relationship between image and identity French Civilization and Its Discontents Tyler Stovall, Georges Van Den Abbeele, 2003-10-22 What happens when the study of French is no longer coterminous with the study of France French Civilization and Its Discontents explores the ways in which considerations of difference especially colonialism postcolonialism and race have shaped French culture and French studies in the modern era Rejecting traditional assimilationist notions of French national identity contributors to this groundbreaking volume demonstrate how literature history and other aspects of what is considered French civilization have been shaped by global processes of creolization and differentiation This book ably demonstrates the necessity of studying France and the Francophone world together and of recognizing not only the presence of France in the Francophone world but also the central place occupied by the Francophone world in world literature and history National Identity and Cultural Representation in the Novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai Sonali Das, 2018-04-18 This book is the first of its kind to examine the theories of nation and national identity in both the West according to the theories of Benedict Anderson and Salman Rushdie and in the East in the light of the works of Jawaharlal Nehru as they apply to the novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai The second part of the twentieth century witnessed a new interface between fiction and history called New History It brought into its purview the hitherto marginalized sections of society like slaves peasants workers women and children Whereas the subalterns in The Inheritance of Loss are disempowered by the brunt of globalisation and neo colonialism the subalterns in The God of Small Things face the ire of the deep seated divisions based on caste and gender bias in a postcolonial society In addition this book also deals with contemporary social issues like individual identity in a multicultural world where cultures and nature converge into myriad ways of living It will be of immense benefit to MA and MPhil students all over India as well as to PhD scholars and teachers of English literature both in India and abroad Eating Well, Reading Well Nicole Jenette Simek, 2008 While rejecting a conception of literature as moral philosophy or a device for imparting particular morals to the reader through exemplary characters and plots Maryse Conde has displayed throughout her writing career a strong valorization of literature as ethical critique This study examines her singular approach to literary commitment as a critical reworking of aesthetic models and modes of interpretation Focusing on four dominant problematics in Conde's work history and globalization in La Belle Creole and Moi Tituba sorcière noire de Salem intertextuality and reception in La migration des cœurs and Celanire cou coupe trauma and subjectivity in En attendant le bonheur and Desirada community and ethics in Traversee de la mangrove and Histoire de la femme cannibale this analysis proposes to elucidate how and to what ends Conde engages and alters approaches to reading staging the problematic yet pragmatic need to read well This hermeneutic imperative foregrounds the need to engage with texts to cannibalize texts while recognizing their fundamental opacity and inexhaustibility their resistance to the reader's interpretive habits Nicole Simek is an Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages and Literatures at Whitman College Specializing in French Caribbean literature Simek's research interests include the intersection of politics and literature in Caribbean fiction trauma theory and sociological approaches to literature

Postcolonial Paradoxes in French Caribbean Writing Jeannie Suk, 2001-05-17 This book is the first major study of French Caribbean literature in light of the concept of postcoloniality Postcolonial theory debates have developed in the anglophone domain and have not as yet referred prominently to francophone literature Jeannie Suk investigates how the literature of Martinique and Guadeloupe provides a kaleidoscopic view of the paradoxes at the heart of postcoloniality Through subtle and provocative readings of Aimé Césaire, Édouard Glissant, Maryse Condé, Baudelaire, Freud and others she illuminates how the development of French Caribbean literature and debates about négritude, antillanité and créolité contribute to theories of in-betweenness and incompleteness central to postcolonial modes In each chapter lively and detailed analyses of literary and critical texts reveal connections between key thematic, conceptual, rhetorical and psychic issues that form the interface of Caribbean and postcolonial concerns The first part paves theoretical ground focusing on readings of two seminal texts Césaire's Cahier d'un retour au pays natal and Glissant's Discours antillais the second part concentrates on Maryse Condé's exemplary work Lucidly articulating the overlap and interplay of the distance of oceanic crossing, the discontinuities of allegorical signification and the gap at the heart of trauma Suk probes the paradoxical dynamic of impossible yet inevitable returns in space, time and the psyche She shows how literal and metaphorical crossings both produce and impede history and representation The result is a new framework for understanding the intersection of postcolonial, psychoanalytic, deconstructive and French Caribbean problems in a language attentive to improbable recurrences across theories and registers Postcolonial Paradoxes is a major contribution to criticism and theory of interest to scholars and students of postcolonialism Caribbean and African diaspora literature French literature and psychoanalysis Resituations Lincoln Shlensky, 2003 Packaging Post/coloniality Richard Watts, 2005-01-01 Packaging Post Coloniality reads the marketing matter surrounding works of Francophone literature as an important though overlooked source in the cultural history of colonialism and the articulation of new identities in France and the Francophone world
