The Woman Babylon and the Marks of Empire Shanell T. Smith, 2014-10-01 The Great Whore of the Book of Revelation the hostile symbolization used to illustrate the author's critique of empire has attracted considerable attention in Revelation scholarship Feminist scholar Tina Pippin criticizes the use of gendered metaphors Babylon as a tortured woman which she asserts reflect an inescapably androcentric even misogynistic perspective Alternatively Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza understands John's rhetoric and imagery not simply in gendered terms but in political terms as well observing that Babylon relies on conventionally coded feminine language for a city Shanell T Smith seeks to dismantle the either/or dichotomy within the Great Whore debate by bringing the categories of race ethnicity and class to bear on John's metaphors Her socio cultural context impels her to be sensitive to such categories and therefore leads her to hold the two elements woman and city in tension rather than privileging one over the other Using postcolonial womanist interpretation of the woman Babylon Smith highlights the simultaneous duality of her characterization her depiction as both a female brothel slave and as an empress or imperial city Most remarkably however Smith's reading also sheds light on her own ambivalent characterization as both a victim and participant in empire

Why We Need the Humanities Donald

Drakeman, 2016-02-25 An entrepreneur and educator highlights the surprising influence of humanities scholarship on biomedical research and civil liberties This spirited defence urges society to support the humanities to obtain continued guidance for public policy decisions and challenges scholars to consider how best to fulfil their role in serving the common good Hyphenating Moses Federico A. Roth, 2017-06-06 Postcolonial biblical criticism took shape largely by critiquing the book of Exodus Because of the eventual dispossession of Canaanites in the conquest narratives so goes the thinking the Hebrews God amounts to little more than a dangerous destructive and ethnocentric figure In Hyphenating Moses Federico Alfredo Roth challenges this consensus by providing an alternative reading of its early narratives 1 1 3 15 Redeploying postcolonial theory and themes Roth presents a reading of these well known scenes as orbiting around the topic of identity formation climaxing in the burning bush episode In the giving of the name YHWH promotes the virtue of conceiving identity as a malleable reality to be sought after by all parties caught in the dehumanizing discourse of colonial subjugation

Theology in Global Context Amos Yong, Peter G. Heltzel, 2016-10-06 Robert Cummings Neville has been a consistent advocate for the necessity of global theology Early in his career he realized that the philosophical framework of the West alone was inadequate for a truly global theology Since then he has sought to develop theology creatively and responsibly within the world context The original essays in this volume written in his honour by fellow theologians participate in and model the kind of dialogical global theology embodied in Neville's work Graham Greene's Catholic Imagination Mark Bosco, 2005-02-17 Graham Greene's early books are described as Catholic Novels with his later work falling into political and detective genres This title argues that this is a false dichotomy created by a narrowly prescriptive understanding of the Catholic genre and obscures the impact of Greene's religious imagination on his literary art Christianity & Literature, 2001 Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Mapping the Sacred, 2021-11-15 Interweaving the interpretative methods of religious studies literary criticism and cultural geography the essays in this volume focus on issues associated with the representation of place and space in the writing and reading of the postcolonial The collection charts the ways in which contemporary writers extend and deepen our awareness of the ambiguities of economic social and political relations implicated in sacred space the sense of spiritual significance associated with those concrete locations in which adherents of different religious traditions past and present maintain a ritual sense of conditions that give rise to the growth of pentecostalism among contemporary Vietnamese evangelicals Emerging from the analysis is an understanding of how underprivileged evangelicals have utilized the pentecostal emphasis on divine intervention in their pursuit of the betterment of life amid religious and ethnic marginalization Within the context of the global growth of pentecostalism Vietnamese Evangelicals and Pentecostalism shows how people at the grassroots marry the deeply local based meaning dictated by the particularity of living context and the profoundly universal truth claims made by a religion aspiring to reach all four corners of the earth to enhance life

Woman and Nation Jean Kim, 2021-10-01 Kim reads the Gospel of John from a postcolonial feminist perspective as a patriarchal nationalist discourse The author examines effects of colonialism in twentieth century Korean cultural experience as seen in social memory pervasive emotional nonlinear experience of the collective or oral traditions to develop an intercontextual lens through which she examines the role of the Johannine female characters in supporting Jesus's role as a national hero and in functioning as continuers of the nation In her unique handling of the Gospel of John the author describes how John's resistance to Roman imperial power defines and shapes the boundaries of his Jewish nationalism in relation to the symbolic meanings attached to the female characters sexuality and gender roles

Jonah's Story, Our Challenge Karl Möller, 2023-02-28 Jonah's radical and enigmatic nature calls for deeper exploration and engagement. Given its brevity, it is also an ideal text for multiple readings from a range of perspectives that complement, build upon, or challenge each other. In Jonah's Story, Our Challenge, each chapter brings a different hermeneutical tool to the text to demonstrate the wealth of fresh readings and new vistas which can open up and the rich resources for ministry which can come from these multiple readings. Bibliographic Guide to Gabriel García Márquez, 1992-2002 Nelly S. de Gonzalez, 2003-08-30 With this latest installment, Nelly Sfeir de Gonzalez has completed her trilogy of bibliographies on Gabriel Garcia Marquez. They Were All Together in One Place? Toward Minority Biblical Criticism Randall C. Bailey, Tat-siong Benny Liew, Fernando F. Segovia, 2021-01-20 Critics from three major racial/ethnic minority communities in the United States—African American, Asian American, and Latino—focus on the problematic of race and ethnicity in the Bible and in contemporary biblical interpretation. With keen eyes on both ancient text and contemporary context, contributors pay close attention to how racial/ethnic dynamics intersect with other differential relations of power, such as gender, class, sexuality, and colonialism. In groundbreaking interaction, they also consider their readings alongside those of other racial/ethnic minority communities. The volume includes an introduction pointing out the crucial role of this work within minority criticism by looking at its historical trajectory, critical findings, and future directions. The contributors are Cheryl B. Anderson, Francisco O. García-Treto, Jean Pierre Ruiz, Frank M. Yamada, Gale A. Yee, Jae Won Lee, Gay L. Byron, Fernando F. Segovia, Randall C. Bailey, Tat-siong Benny Liew, Demetrius K. Williams, Mayra Rivera, Evelyn L.
