Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess, 2008-05-24 Despite being central to the project of postcolonialism the concept of resistance has received only limited theoretical examination Writers such as Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Homi K Bhabha have explored instances of revolt opposition or subversion but there has been insufficient critical analysis of the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to liberation or social and cultural transformation In Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess looks to redress this critical imbalance Jefferess argues that interpreting resistance as these critics have done as either acts of opposition or practices of subversion is insufficient He discerns in the existing critical literature an alternate paradigm for postcolonial politics and through close analyses of the work of Mohandas Gandhi and the South African reconciliation project Postcolonial Resistance seeks to redefine resistance to reconnect an analysis of colonial discourse to material structures of colonial exploitation and inequality Engaging works of postcolonial fiction literary criticism historiography and cultural theory Jefferess conceives of resistance and reconciliation as dependent upon the transformation of both the colonial subject and the antagonistic nature of colonial power In doing so he reframes postcolonial conceptions of resistance violence and liberation thus inviting future scholarship in the field to reconsider past conceptualizations of political power and opposition to that power

Re-Routing the Postcolonial Janet Wilson, Cristina Sandru, Sarah Lawson Welsh, 2009-12-16 Rerouting the Postcolonial re orientates and re invigorates the field of Postcolonial Studies in line with recent trends in critical theory reconnecting the ethical and political with the aesthetic aspect of postcolonial culture Bringing together a group of leading and emerging intellectuals this volume charts and challenges the diversity of postcolonial studies including sections on new directions and growth areas from performance and autobiography to diaspora and transnationalism new subject matters such as sexuality and queer theory ecocriticism and discussions of areas of Europe as postcolonial spaces new theoretical directions such as globalization fundamentalism terror and theories of affect Each section incorporates a clear concise introduction making this volume both an accessible overview of the field whilst also an invigorating collection of scholarship for the new millennium

Gothic: Eighteenth-century Gothic : Radcliffe, reader, writer, romancer Fred Botting, Dale Townshend, 2004-05 This collection brings together key writings which convey the breadth of what is understood to be Gothic and the ways in which it has produced reinforced and undermined received ideas about literature and culture In addition to its interests in the late eighteenth century origins of the form this collection anthologizes path breaking essays on most aspects of gothic production including some of its nineteenth twentieth and twenty first century manifestations across a broad range of cultural media

Worlds of Difference Said Arjomand, Elisa P Reis, 2013-08-22 How can differences be understood in social theory through comparisons and how should social theory relate to regional studies to do so This question has been prevalent within the sociological field for over a century but is becoming increasingly important in a globalised age in which cultural borders are constantly challenged and rapidly changing In this collection Arjomand and Reis illuminate the importance of exploring spatial cultural and intellectual differences beyond generalizations attempting to understand diversity in itself as it takes shape across the world With contributions from internationally renowned scholars and a focussed emphasis upon sociological key themes such as modernization citizenship human rights inequality and domination this title provides a rich and convincing discussion that will add significant value to the ongoing debate about alternative modernities diversity and change within the social sciences Worlds of Difference constitutes an important and timely collection that will be of great inspiration for students and scholars alike

Is Canada Postcolonial? Laura

Moss,2009-08-01 How can postcolonialism be applied to Canadian literature In all that has been written about postcolonialism surprisingly little has specifically addressed the position of Canada Canadian literature or Canadian culture Postcolonialism is a theory that has gained credence throughout the world it is be productive to ask if and how we as Canadians participate in postcolonial debates It is also vital to examine the ways in which Canada and Canadian culture fit into global discussions as our culture reflects how we interact with our neighbours allies and adversaries This collection wrestles with the problems of situating Canadian literature in the ongoing debates about culture identity and globalization and of applying the slippery term of postcolonialism to Canadian literature The topics range in focus from discussions of specific literary works to general theoretical contemplations The twenty three articles in this collection grapple with the recurrent issues of postcolonialism including hybridity collaboration marginality power resistance and historical revisionism from the vantage point of those working within Canada as writers and critics While some seek to confirm the legitimacy of including Canadian literature in the discussions of postcolonialism others challenge this very notion Urban Culture Chris Jenks,2004 This set includes key pieces from Peter Ackroyd Charles Baudelaire Walter Benjamin Homi Bhaba Charles Dickens Fredrick Engels Paul Gilroy Thomas Hobbes Max Weber George Simmel Ian Sinclair Edward W Soja Gayatri Spivak Nigel Thrift Virginia Woolf Sharon Zukin and many others The material is arranged thematically highlighting the variety of interests that coexist and conflict within the city Issues such as gender class race age and disability are covered along with urban experiences such as walking politics anthropology cultural history cultural geography art critical theory visual culture literary studies social policy and cultural studies http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0650/2004044268_d.html
