Postcolonialism A Very Short Introduction:

Postcolonialism Robert Young, 2003-06-26 An innovative and lively account of both the history and key debates in postcolonialism Robert Young situates it in a wide cultural context discussing its importance as an historical condition and as a means of changing the way that we think about the world

Postcolonialism Robert Young, 2020 Since the 1960s many people around the world have challenged the idea that western perspectives are the only ones that count This book examines the history of that challenge outlining the ideas behind it and showing the ways in which the histories and the cultures of the world can be rethought in new different and productive directions

Postcolonialism: A Very Short Introduction Robert J. C. Young, 2020-10-22 Postcolonialism explores the political social and cultural effects of decolonization continuing the anti colonial deconstruction of western dominance This Very Short Introduction discusses both the history and key debates of postcolonialism and considers its importance as a means of changing the way we think about the world Robert J C Young examines the key strategies that postcolonial thought has developed to engage with the impact of sometimes centuries of western political and cultural domination Situating the discussion in a wide cultural and geographical context he draws on examples such as the status of indigenous peoples of those dispossessed from their land Algerian rai music and global social and ecological movements In this new edition he also includes updated material on race slavery and postcolonial gender politics Above all Young argues that postcolonialism offers a political philosophy of activism that contests the current situation of global inequality which in a new way continues the anti colonial struggles of the past and enables us to decolonize our own lives in the present

The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies Graham Huggan, 2013-09-12 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies provides a comprehensive overview of the latest scholarship in postcolonial studies while also considering possible future developments in the field Original chapters written by a worldwide team of contributors are organised into five cross referenced sections The Imperial Past The Colonial Present Theory and Practice Across the Disciplines and Across the World The chapters offer both country specific and comparative approaches to current issues offering a wide range of new and interesting perspectives The Handbook reflects the increasingly multidisciplinary nature of postcolonial studies and reiterates its continuing relevance to the study of both the colonial past in its multiple manifestations and the contemporary globalized world Taken together these essays the dialogues they pursue and the editorial comments that surround them constitute nothing less than a blueprint for the future of a much contested but intellectually vibrant and politically engaged field

Beginning postcolonialism John McLeod, 2013-01-18 Postcolonialism has become one of the most exciting popular and stimulating fields of literary and cultural studies in recent years Yet the variety of approaches the range of debate and the critical vocabularies often used may make it challenging for new students to establish a firm foothold in this area Beginning Postcolonialism is a vital resource for those taking undergraduate courses in postcolonial studies for the first time and has become an established international best seller in the field In this fully revised and updated second edition John McLeod introduces the major areas of concern in a clear accessible and organised fashion He provides an overview of the emergence of postcolonialism as a discipline and closely examines its many established critical approaches while also exploring important recent initiatives in the field In particular Beginning Postcolonialism demonstrates how many key postcolonial ideas and concepts can be effectively applied when reading texts and enables students to develop their own independent thinking about the possibilities and pitfalls of postcolonial critique

Experiences of Freedom in Postcolonial Literatures and Cultures Annalisa Oboe, Shaul Bassi, 2011-03-30 Modern ideas of freedom and human rights have been repeatedly contested and are hotly debated at the beginning of the third millennium in response to new theories needs and challenges in contemporary life This volume offers culturally diverse contributions to the debate on freedom from the literatures and arts of the postcolonial world exploring experiences that evoke desire imagine and perform freedom across five continents and two centuries of history Experiences of Freedom opens with an introductory philosophical essay by Achille Mbembe and is divided into four sections that consider resisting history and colonialism the right to move and to belong the right to believe in free futures imaginative freedom and critical engagement Each section contains a piece of creative writing directly connected to these topics from authors Chris Abani Anita Desai Caryl Phillips and Alexis Wright followed by a selection of critical essays Contributors Chris Abani Rochelle Almeida Gil Anidjar Jogamaya Bayer Elena Bernardini Anne Collett Carmen Concilio Paola Della Valle Roberto Derobertis Anita Desai Lorna Down Francesca Giommi Gareth Griffiths Dave Gunning John C Hawley Peter H Marsden Russell McDougall Achille Mbembe Cinzia Mozzato Kevin Newmark Berndt Ostendorf Mai Palmberg Owen Percy Kirsten Holst Petersen Caryl Phillips Annel Pieterse Christiane Schlote Nermeen Shaikh Patrick Williams Alexis Wright and Robert J C Young

Language and Translation in Postcolonial Literatures Simona Bertacco, 2013-12-17 This collection gathers together a stellar group of contributors offering innovative perspectives on the issues of language and translation in postcolonial studies In a world where bi and multilingualism have become quite normal this volume identifies a gap in the critical apparatus in postcolonial studies in order to read cultural texts emerging out of multilingual contexts The role of translation and an awareness of the multilingual spaces in which many postcolonial texts are written are fundamental issues with which postcolonial studies needs to engage in a far more concerted fashion The essays in this book by contributors from Australia New Zealand Zimbabwe Cyprus Malaysia Quebec Ireland France Scotland the US and Italy outline a pragmatics of language and translation of value to scholars with an interest in the changing forms of literature and culture in our times Essay topics include multilingual textual politics the benefits of multilingual education in postcolonial countries the language of gender and sexuality in postcolonial literatures translational cities postcolonial calligraphy globalization and the new digital ecology Planetary Loves Stephen D. Moore, Mayra Rivera, 2011 Postcolonial theology has recently emerged as a site of intense intellectual and political energy and has taken its place in the interdisciplinary field of postcolonial studies This volume is animated by the conviction that postcolonial theology is now ready for a second deeper phase of engagement with postcolonial theory one that moves beyond the general to the specific No critic has been more emblematic of the challenging and contested field of postcolonial theory than Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak In this volume the product of a theological colloquium in which Spivak herself participated theologians and biblical scholars engage with her thought in order to catalyze a diverse range of original theological and exegetical projects The volume opens with a topography of postcolonial theology and also includes other valuable introductory essays At the center of the collection are transcriptions of two extended public dialogues with Spivak on theology and religion in general A further dozen essays appropriate Spivak's work for theological and ethical reflection The volume is also significant for the larger field of postcolonial studies in that it is the first to focus centrally on Spivak's immensely suggestive and vital concept of planetarity Postcolonial Sociologies Julian Go, 2016-08-26 How can postcolonial thought be most fruitfully translated and incorporated into sociology This special volume brings together leading sociologists to offer some answers and examples The chapters offer new postcolonial readings of canonical thinkers like Karl Marx Max Weber Emile Durkheim and Robert Park Postcolonial Ecocriticism Graham Huggan, Helen Tiffin, 2015-04-17 This second edition of Postcolonial Ecocriticism a book foundational for its field has been updated to consider recent developments in the area such as environmental humanities and animal studies Graham Huggan and Helen Tiffin examine transverse relations between humans animals and the environment across a wide range of postcolonial literary texts and also address key issues such as global warming food security human over population in the context of animal extinction queer ecology and the connections between postcolonial and disability theory Considering the postcolonial first from an environmental and then a zoocritical perspective the book looks at Narratives of development in postcolonial writing Entitlement belonging and the pastoral Colonial asset stripping and the Christian mission The politics of eating and the representation of cannibalism Animality and spirituality Sentimentality and anthropomorphism The changing place of humans and animals in a posthuman world With a new preface written specifically for this edition and an annotated list of suggestions for further reading Postcolonial Ecocriticism offers a comprehensive and fully up to date introduction to a rapidly expanding field Postcolonial Studies Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2025-01-22 Now in its fourth edition this popular A-Z guide provides a comprehensive overview of the issues which characterize postcolonialism explaining what it is where it is encountered and the crucial part it plays in debates about race gender politics language and identity Fully revised and updated the fourth edition contains more than 30 new entries including Anthropocene Biopolitics Decoloniality Ecocriticism Global South Postcolonial sciences Transnationalism With substantial updates to the further reading

Postcolonial Studies The Key Concepts remains an essential guide for anyone studying this vibrant field The Future of Postcolonial Studies Chantal Zabus, 2014-11-20 The Future of Postcolonial Studies celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Empire Writes Back by the now famous troika Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths and Helen Tiffin When The Empire Writes Back first appeared in 1989 it put postcolonial cultures and their post invasion narratives on the map This vibrant collection of fifteen chapters by both established and emerging scholars taps into this early mapping while merging these concerns with present trends which have been grouped as comparing converting greening post queering and utopia The postcolonial is a centrifugal force that continues to energize globalization transnational diaspora area and queer studies Spanning the colonial period from the 1860s to the present The Future of Postcolonial Studies ventures into other postcolonies outside of the Anglophone purview In reassessing the nation state language race religion sexuality the environment and the very idea of the future this volume reasserts the notion that postcolonial is an anticipatory discourse and bears testimony to the driving energy and thus the future of postcolonial studies Using Critical Theory Lois Tyson, 2020-10-21 Explaining both why theory is important and how to use it Lois Tyson introduces beginning students of literature to this often daunting field in a friendly and readable style The new edition of this textbook is clearly structured with chapters based on major theories frequently covered both in courses on literature and on critical theory Key features include coverage of major theories including reader response theory New Criticism formalism psychoanalysis Marxism feminism lesbian gay queer theories African American theory and postcolonial theory practical demonstrations of how to use these theories to interpret short literary works selected from canonical authors including William Faulkner and Alice Walker a chapter on reader response theory that shows students how to use their personal responses to literature while avoiding typical pitfalls sections on cultural criticism for each chapter that use our selected theories to interpret productions of popular culture This new edition also includes updated and expanded theoretical vocabulary as well as basic concepts and further study sections and an expanded next step appendix that suggests additional literary works for extra practice Comprehensive easy to use and fully updated throughout Using Critical Theory is the ideal first step for students beginning degrees in literature composition and cultural studies Postcolonial Italy Cristina Lombardi-Diop, 2012-12-06 This volume constitutes a multidisciplinary intervention into the emerging field of postcolonial studies in Italy bringing together cultural and social history critical and political theory literary and cinematic analyses ethnomusicology and cultural studies anthropological fieldwork and race gender diaspora and urban studies Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball, 2012 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory

in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine s struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine

Under Postcolonial Eyes Efraim Sicher,Linda Weinhouse,2013-01-01 In the Western literary tradition the jew has long been a figure of ethnic exclusion and social isolation the wanderer the scapegoat the alien But it is no longer clear where a perennial outsider belongs This provocative study of contemporary British writing points to the figure of the jew as the litmus test of multicultural society Efraim Sicher and Linda Weinhouse examine the jew as a cultural construction distinct from the Jewishness of literary characters in novels by among others Salman Rushdie Anita Desai Doris Lessing Monica Ali Caryl Philips and Zadie Smith as well as contemporary art and film Here the image of the jew emerges in all its ambivalence from postcolonial migrant and modern everyman to more traditional representations of the conspirator and malefactor The multicultural discourses of ethnic and racial hybridity reflect dissolution of national and personal identities yet the search for transnational cultural forms conceals both the acceptance of marginal South Asian Caribbean and Jewish voices as well as the danger of resurgent antisemitic tropes Innovative in its contextualization of the jew in the multiculturalism debate in contemporary Britain Under Postcolonial Eyes Figuring the jew in Contemporary British Writing analyzes the narrative of identities in a globalized culture and offers new interpretations of postmodern classics

Postcolonial Translocations Marga Munkelt,Markus Schmitz,Mark Stein,Silke Stroh,2013 The sites from which postcolonial cultural articulations develop and the sites at which they are received have undergone profound transformations within the last decades This book traces the accelerating emergence of cultural crossovers and overlaps in a global perspective and through a variety of disciplinary approaches It starts from the premise that after the spatial turn human action and cultural representations can no longer be grasped as firmly located in or clearly demarcated by territorial entities The collection of essays investigates postcolonial articulations of various genres and media in their spatiality and locatedness while envisaging acts of location as dynamic cultural processes It explores the ways in which critical spatial thinking can be made Productive Testing the uses and limitations of translocation as an open exploratory model for a critically spatialized postcolonial studies it covers a wide range of cultural expressions from the anglophone world and beyond literature film TV photography and other forms of visual art philosophy historical memory and tourism The extensive introductory chapter charts various facets of spatial thinking from a variety of disciplines and critically discusses their implications for postcolonial studies The Contributors essays range from theoretical interventions into the critical routines of postcolonial criticism to case studies of specific cultural texts objects and events reflecting temporal and spatial material and intellectual physical and spiritual mobility What emerges is a fascinating survey of the multiple directions postcolonial translocations can take in the future This book is aimed at students and scholars of postcolonial literary and cultural studies diaspora studies migration studies transnational studies globalisation studies critical space studies urban studies film studies media studies art history philosophy history and anthropology Contributors Diana Brydon Lars Eckstein Paloma Fresno Calleja Lucia Kr mer Gesa Mackenthun Thomas Martinek Sandra Meyer Therese M Meyer Marga Munkelt Lynda Ng Claudia Perner Katharina Rennhak Gundo Rial y Costas Markus Schmitz Mark Stein Silke Stroh Kathy Ann Tan Petra Tournay Theodotou Daria Tunca Jessica Voges Roland Walter Dirk Wiemann

Postcolonial Thought and Social Theory Julian Go, 2016 Social scientists have long resisted the radical ideas known as postcolonial thought while postcolonial scholars have critiqued the social sciences for their Euro centric focus However in Postcolonial Thought and Social Theory Julian Go attempts to reconcile the two seemingly contradictory fields by crafting a postcolonial social science Contrary to claims that social science is incompatible with postcolonial thought this book argues that the two are mutually beneficial drawing upon the works of thinkers such as Franz Fanon Amilcar Cabral Edward Said Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak Go concludes with a call for a third wave of postcolonial thought emerging from social science and surmounting the narrow confines of disciplinary boundaries

The Indian Postcolonial Elleke Boehmer, Rosinka Chaudhuri, 2010-10-04 India has often been at the centre of debates on and definitions of the postcolonial condition Offering a challenging new direction for the field this Critical Reader confronts how theory in the Indian context is responding in vital terms to our understanding of that condition today The Indian Postcolonial A Critical Reader is made up of four sections looking in turn at visual cultures translating cultural traditions the ethical text global cosmopolitan worlds Each section is prefaced with a short introduction by the editors that locate these interdisciplinary articles within the contemporary national and international context Showcasing the diversity and vitality of current debate this volume collects the work of both established figures and a new generation of cultural critics Challenging and unsettling many basic premises of postcolonial studies this volume is the ideal Reader for students and scholars of the Indian Postcolonial
