Post-Coup Chilean Poetry Gonzalo Millán, 1986 North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Lisa

Sewell, Kazim Ali, 2020-02-25 North American Women Poets in the 21st Century Beyond Lyric and Language is an important new addition to the American Poets in the 21st Century series. Like the earlier anthologies, this volume includes generous selections of poetry by some of the best poets of our time, as well as illuminating poetics statements and incisive essays on their work. Among the insightful pieces included in this volume are essays by Catherine Cucinella on Marilyn Chin, Meg Tyler on Fanny Howe, Eline Lipkin on Alice Notley, Kamran Javadizadeh on Claudia Rankine, and many more. A companion web site will present audio of each poet's work. Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another Political Bodies Alice A. Nelson, 2002 Furthermore she argues that this contest has been enacted literally and figuratively on the stage of human bodies as sites of domination and resistance. Examining works by Pia Barros, David Benavente, and the Taller de Investigacion Teatral Ariel Dorfman, Diamela Eltit, and Isabel Allende, Political Bodies engages emergent feminist critiques of authoritarianism in terms of gender and class history and language.

Contemporary Hispanic Poets: Cultural Production in the Global, Digital Age John Burns, 2015-03-15 Poets writing in Spanish by the end of the twentieth century had to contend with globalization as a backdrop for their literary production. They could embrace it, ignore it, or potentially re-imagine the role of the poet altogether. This book examines some of the efforts of Spanish language poets to cope with the globalizing cultural economy of the late twentieth century. This study looks at the similarities and differences in both text and context of poets, some major and some minor, writing in Chile, Mexico, the Mexican American community, and Spain. These poets write in a variety of styles, from highly experimental approaches to poetry to more traditional methods of writing. Included in this study are Chileans Raúl Zurita and Cecilia Vicuña, Spaniards Leopoldo María Panero and Luis García Montero, Mexicans Silvia Tomasa Rivera and Guillermo Gómez-Peña, and Mexican American Juan Felipe Herrera. Some of them embrace and are even embraced by media, both old and new, whereas others eschew it. Some continue their work in the vein of national traditions, while others become difficult to situate within any one single national tradition Exploring the varieties of strategies these writers employ this book makes it clear that Spanish language poets have not been exempt from the process of globalization Individually these poets have been studied to varying degrees Globalization has been studied extensively from a variety of disciplinary approaches particularly in the context of the Latin American region and Spain However it is a relative rarity to see poets being studied as they are in this work in terms of their relationship to globalization Taken as a sample or snapshot of writing tendencies in Latin American and Spanish poetry of the late twentieth century this book studies them as part of a greater circuit of cultural production by establishing their literary as well as extra literary genealogies and connections It situates these poets in terms of their writing itself as well as in terms of their literary traditions their methods of contending with neoliberal economic models and global information flows from the television and Internet Although many literary critics attempt to study the connections and relationships between poetry and the world beyond the page few monographs go about it the way this one does It takes a transatlantic approach to contemporary Spanish language poetry focusing on poets on poets from Spain and the American continent emphasizing their connections commonalities and differences across increasingly porous borders in the age of information The relationship between text and context is explored with a cultural studies approach more often associated with media studies than with literary studies Literature is not treated as a privileged object of isolated study but rather as a system of ideas and images that is deeply interwoven with other forms of human expression that have arisen in the last decades of the twentieth century The result is a suggestive analysis of the figure of the poet in the broader globalized marketplace of cultural goods and ideas Contemporary Hispanic Poets Cultural Production in the Global Digital Age is an important book for library collections in Spanish Latin American and Iberian Studies Chicano Studies Chile Footprint Handbook Janak Jani, 2009 Travel holiday guides Women, Memory and Dictatorship in Recent Chilean Fiction Gustavo Carvajal, 2021-11-15 This study is the only book in English to analyse Chilean memory culture using an interdisciplinary angle memory studies gender studies literature in post dictatorship Chile It includes comprehensive material from award winning authors Diamela Eltit Carlos Franz Arturo Fontaine rising stars of the Chilean literary scene Nona Fernández to first time published novelists Paola González Fátima Sime It is the only book in English that focuses on women memory and dictatorship in contemporary Chile from a cultural and literary perspective It offers a new way of comprehending Chilean memory culture considering gender and literature as two key elements in this cultural approach to the recent past Witnessing beyond the Human Kate Jenckes, 2017-05-01 This book rethinks the nature of testimony beyond the ground of the human in works produced in Chile and Argentina from the 1970s to the present Focusing on literature by Juan Gelman Sergio Chejfec and Roberto Bolaño as well as art by Eugenio Dittborn Kate Jenckes argues that these works represent life death and the relation between self and other beyond the human that is beyond the sense that we can know and represent ourselves and others with powerful implications for our understanding of history community and politics Jenckes engages with the work of Jacques Derrida together with the intellectually rigorous field of Chilean aesthetic theory to explore issues related to the nature of testimony

Internationalität nationaler Literaturen Frank Seemann, 2000 World Literature in Spanish Maureen Ihrle, Salvador Oropesa, 2011-10-20 Containing roughly 850 entries about Spanish language literature throughout the world this expansive work provides coverage of the varied countries ethnicities time periods literary movements and genres of these writings Providing a thorough introduction to Spanish language literature worldwide and across time is a tall order However World Literature in Spanish An Encyclopedia contains roughly 850 entries on both major and minor authors themes genres and topics of Spanish literature from the Middle Ages to the present day affording an amazingly comprehensive reference collection in a single work This encyclopedia describes the growing diversity within national borders the increasing interdependence among nations and the myriad impacts of Spanish literature across the globe All countries that produce literature in Spanish in Europe Africa the Americas and Asia are represented covering both canonical authors and emerging contemporary writers and trends Underrepresented writings such as texts by women writers queer and Afro Hispanic texts children s literature and works on relevant but less studied topics such as sports and nationalism also appear While writings throughout the centuries are covered those of the 20th and 21st centuries receive special consideration Les

Littératures de Moindre Diffusion University of Alberta. Research Institute for Comparative Literature, 1990 Canadian Review of Comparative Literature , 1989 Chile in Their Hearts John Dinges, 2025 Set against the romance of revolution and the terror of a military coup this arresting mystery is also a reckoning with the callousness of U S foreign policy In 1972 two idealistic young Americans Charles Horman and Frank Teruggi arrived in Chile to participate in President Salvador Allende s socialist and democratic revolution A year later they were secretly executed as Chile s military with U S backing deposed Allende Following a sham investigation and cover up a Chilean defector leveled a stunning but ultimately false accusation a CIA agent was in the room when one of the killings was ordered The defector s tale inspired the acclaimed 1982 film Missing and established U S involvement as the accepted narrative But Chile in Their Hearts exposes the tale as a fabrication and leads us to a more intriguing reality This book will force readers to rethink what they thought they knew about this infamous case Renowned investigative journalist John Dinges scoured U S and Chilean archives and interviewed new witnesses to reveal the true story of the killings and the compelling adventure of the two Americans lives against the backdrop of U S intervention in Chile Chile Insight Guide Insight, 2002 Describes the history culture land and people of Chile and includes tips on travel accommodations restaurants and sightseeing Writing Revolution in Latin America Juan E. De Castro, 2019-09-15 In the politically volatile period from the 1960s through the end of the twentieth century Latin American authors were in direct dialogue with the violent realities of their time and place Writing Revolution in Latin America is a chronological study of the way revolution and revolutionary thinking is depicted in the fiction composed from the eye of the storm From Mexico to Chile the gradual ideological evolution from a revolutionary to a neoliberal mainstream was a consequence of on the one hand the political hardening of the Cuban Revolution beginning in the late 1960s and on the other the repression dictatorships and economic crises of the 1970s and beyond Not only was socialist revolution far from the utopia many believed but the notion that guerrilla uprisings would lead to an easy socialism proved to be unfounded Similarly the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in Chile led to unfathomable tragedy and social mutation This double edged phenomenon of revolutionary disillusionment became highly personal for Latin American authors inside and outside Castro's and Pinochet's dominion Revolution was more than a foreign affair it was the stuff of everyday life and therefore of fiction Juan De Castro's expansive study begins ahead of the century with Jos Mart in Cuba and continues through the likes of Mario Vargas Llosa in Peru Gabriel Garc'a M'quez in Colombia and Roberto Bola'o in Mexico by way of Chile The various often contradictory ways the authors convey this precarious historical moment speaks in equal measure to the social circumstances into which these authors were thrust and to the fundamental differences in the ways they themselves witnessed history

London Art Worlds Jo Applin, Catherine Spencer, Amy Tobin, 2017-12-14 The essays in this collection explore the extraordinarily rich networks of international artists and art practices that emerged in and around London during the 1960s and 70s a period that saw an explosion of new media and fresh attitudes and approaches to making and thinking about art The contributors to London Art Worlds examine the many activities and movements that existed alongside more established institutions in this period from the rise of cybernetics and the founding of alternative publications to the public protests and new pedagogical models in London's art schools The essays explore how international artists and the rise of alternative venues publications and exhibitions along with a growing mobilization of artists around political and cultural issues ranging from feminism to democracy pushed the boundaries of the London art scene beyond the West End's familiar galleries and posed a radical challenge to established modes of making and understanding art Engaging wide ranging and original London Art Worlds provides a necessary perspective on the visual culture of the London art scene in the 1960s and 70s Art historians and scholars of the era will find these essays especially valuable and thought provoking In addition to the editors contributors to this volume are Elena Crippa Antony Hudek Dominic Johnson Carmen Juli Courtney J Martin Lucy Reynolds Joy Sleeman Isobel Whitelegg and Andrew Wilson

Subversive Verse David A. Faught,2007 Lihn s work directly attacks the regime and its neo liberal experiment by inscribing new meaning on the Paseo Ahumada a street that the regime s urban planners transformed into a pedestrian walkway as he reinterprets its signs and markers as well as the historic or quotidian events that take place therein The central figure Pinguino is a reworking of Baudelaire s swan figure and he functions to expose the regime s myths The Archive Newsletter ,1990 Roberto Bolaño as World Literature Nicholas Birns,Juan E. De Castro,2017-01-26 Roberto Bolaño as World Literature provides an introduction to the Chilean novelist that highlights his connections with classic and contemporary masters of world literature and his investigation of topics of international interest such as the rise of rightwing and neofascist movements during the last decades of the 20th century But this anthology also shows how Roberto Bolaño s participation in world literature is informed in his experiences identity and more generally cultural location as a Chilean Latin American and more generally Hispanic writer and man This book provides a corrective to readings of his novels as exclusively postmodern or as unproblematically representative of Chilean or Latin American reality Roberto Bolaño as World Literature thus helps readers to better understand such complex works as his monumental global five part masterpiece 2666 his Chilean novels Distant Star By Night in Chile and his Mexican narratives Amulet The Savage Detectives among other works
