Olesen, 1993 Ancient Art to Post-Impressionism Ny Carlsberg glyptotek, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 2004-11-09

The collections of the renowned Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek in Copenhagen owe their character to the tastes of Carl and Helge Jacobsen. Published to coincide with an exhibition of the most outstanding works in this collection held at the Royal Academy of Arts London September 18th December 10th 2004. This catalogue illustrates some 200 items and details the history of each piece.

Post-impressionism: from Van Gogh to Gauguin John Rewald, 1962 The Annenberg Collection

Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Colin B. Bailey, 2009. The Walter and Leonore Annenberg Collection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist paintings, watercolors and drawings constitutes one of the most remarkable groupings of avant garde works of art from the mid 19th to the early 20th century ever given to The Metropolitan Museum of Art. A revised and expanded edition of the 1989 publication Masterpieces of Impressionism and Post Impressionism. The Annenberg Collection this volume presents more than fifty masterworks by such luminaries as Manet, Degas, Morisot, Renoir, Monet, Cézanne, Gauguin, Van Gogh, Picasso and Matisse, accompanied by elucidating texts and a wealth of comparative illustrations. From publisher: The Colosseum Keith Hopkins, Mary Beard, 2012-06-01. Byron and Hitler were equally entranced by Rome's most famous monument, the Colosseum. Mid Victorians admired the hundreds of varieties of flowers in its crannies and occasionally shuddered at its reputation for contagion, danger and sexual temptation. Today it is the highlight of a tour of Italy for more than three million visitors a year, a concert arena for the likes of Paul McCartney and a national symbol of opposition to the death penalty. Its ancient history is chock full of romantic but erroneous myths. There is no evidence that any gladiator ever said 'Hail Caesar, those about to die and we know of not one single Christian martyr who met his finish here.' Yet the reality is much stranger than the legend, as the authors, two prominent classical historians, explain in this absorbing account. We learn the details of how the arena was built and at what cost; we are introduced to the emperors who sometimes fought in gladiatorial games staged at the Colosseum and we take measure of the audience who revelled in or opposed these games. The authors also trace the strange afterlife of the monument as fortress, shrine of martyrs, church and glue factory. Why are we so fascinated with this arena of death? Gauguin Flemming Friberg, Ny Carlsberg glyptotek, 2005 Impressionism John I.

Clancy, 2003. Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush. Such is the case with impressionism, which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century, including Monet, Cézanne, Renoir, Degas and van Gogh. Basically, impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods. The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history. In addition, each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time-honoured standards. This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history s most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes
