Stajduhar,2013-08-01 Explores the end of life spiritual needs of people who do not identify with traditional religions This groundbreaking book addresses the spiritual aspect of hospice care for those who do not fit easily within traditional religious beliefs and categories A companion volume to Religious Understandings of a Good Death in Hospice Palliative Care this work also advocates for renewed attention to the spiritual the often overlooked element of hospice care Drawing on data from clinical case studies new sociological research and the perspectives of agnostics atheists those who emphasize the spiritual rather than institutional dimensions of a traditional religion and the rapidly growing cohort of those who describe themselves as spiritual but not religious the contributors to this volume interpret the shift from predominantly Christian based pastoral services to a new approach to the spiritual shaped by the increasing diversity of Western societies and new understandings of the nature of secular society How do we use it in a way that enables caregivers to assist patients Clinicians and policy makers will appreciate the book s practical recommendations regarding staff roles training and resource allocation General readers will be moved by the persuasive call for greater religious and spiritual literacy at every level of health care in order to respond to the full spectrum of human needs in life and in death Financial Management for Nurse Managers Janne

Dunham-Taylor,2017-08 Financial Management for Nurse Managers Merging the Heart with the Dollar Fourth Edition is a unique text that addresses the financial management issues faced by nurse leaders in a variety of settings including hospitals ambulatory outpatient clinics long term care facilities and home care With an evidence based and practical approach it covers a wide range of financial information including healthcare finance economics budgeting reimbursements accounting and financial strategies Completely updated and revised the Fourth Edition features a new streamlined structure that concentrates on core financial management topics while condensing supplemental material As a result the text is organized into three parts Healthcare the Economy and Value Based Purchasing Budget Principles Financial Strategies and Accounting Issues The Fourth Edition also focuses on bringing financial concepts to life for students with real life applications in nursing practice From Experience to Relationships Jasna K. Schwind,Gail M. Lindsay,2008-04-01 The six writers in this book explore the contribution and the transferability of narrative inquiry from curriculum studies to daily life in education and in healthcare They examine the interconnectivity of reconstructed experience with the construction of disciplinary identity and knowledge Thinking narratively they write auto biographically about relationships between teachers students nurses colleagues and or people in their care As narrative inquirers they are curious how research moves forward professional situations in education and healthcare The narrative plotlines of knowledge construction curriculum building and identity formation thread through the chapters In education and healthcare the reconstructed experience of a teacher is shown to be foundational to curriculum content and processes In nursing education we see congruence between narrative inquiry Clandinin Connelly and theorists such as Watson 1999 include the nurse in the caring situation as shapers of the experience of people in their care As practitioner researchers teachers in education and healthcare construct who they are and how they are in relationship in the context of social situations Inquiry not certainty Dewey 1929 is a life stance that is formative for education Practitioners in education and in healthcare will be interested in this book as a way to make meaning of their experience Policymakers and administrators will be interested in this book as a way of conceptualizing teachers knowledge as a source of curriculum Researchers will be interested in this book as a demonstration of how narrative inquiry illuminates ways of being that are educative and an innovative way to study curriculum
