BOOK JACKET Research on Teacher Thinking James Calderhead, Christopher Day, Pam Denicolo, 2012 This is a companion volume to the editors Insights into Teachers Thinking and Practice Falmer Press 1999 and seeks to carry the discussion on further illustrating that there is a continuing intensity of thought activity and debate on how to conceptualise research on teacher thinking and thus generate knowledge for further understanding and action The ethical questions on undertaking research on the inner lives of teachers remain unresolved The international team present chapters which investigate the relationship between the researcher and the researched and the relevance and role of research in teacher development The papers are not presented as best practice for such definitions would be inevitably value laden Rather they are indications and anticipations of key areas for the development of understanding of teachers thinking and actions in the 1990s

Reflective Teaching In The Postmodern World Parker, Stuart, 1997-03-01 A well written and stimulating excursion into postmodern education Parker's challenge to critical educational theory can in the long run only help the left rethink and deepen its political project Peter McLaren University of California Los Angeles This is a book about two stories of education In one story there is a vocabulary of means efficiency bureaucracy inspection and science in the other one of autonomy democracy emancipation and action research One is the story of positivist managerialist approaches to education the other is the story of reflective teaching This book displaces both of these stories By applying the techniques of deconstruction Stuart Parker overturns the assumptions common to both of these positions and in doing so jettisons some widely cherished beliefs about education autonomy and rationality Moving beyond current debates this book articulates a new manifesto for education in postmodernity and highlights the implications for educational practices and institutions

Postmodernism and Education Richard Edwards, Robin Usher, 2002-11 This book shows the impact of postmodernism upon the theory and practice of education and how it challenges the existing concepts structures and hierarchies

The Art of Shrinking Heads Dany-Robert Dufour, 2008 After the hell of the Nazis and the terror of Communism it is possible that a new catastrophe has appeared on the horizon this time it is neoliberalism that wants to create its own new man For two centuries Kant's critical subject and Freud's neurotic subject provided us with philosophical templates for modernity but today modern capitalism is systematically destroying these two subjects and replacing them with something new The two subjects of modernity both presupposed some reference to a higher value or power like Reason which provided a symbolic guarantor but neoliberalism by emphasizing the exchange of commodities in the marketplace destroys all transcendental references of this kind Now human beings no longer look beyond themselves and no longer have to agree about symbolic values they only have to get on with the circulation and consumption of goods Deprived of his faculty of judgement and urged to enjoy himself without restraint the new man of neoliberalism takes centre stage in the era of global capitalism In this biting critique of our contemporary condition Dufour shows that the radical transformation of the subject brought about by neoliberalism what he calls the art of shrinking heads contains a new kind of violence which has far reaching consequences for our ways of living together

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Handbook of Curriculum Theory, Research, and Practice Peter Pericles Trifonas, Susan Jagger, 2024-02-22 This Handbook paints a portrait of what the international field of curriculum entails in theory research and practice It represents the field accurately and comprehensively by preserving the individual voices of curriculum theorist researchers and practitioners in relation to the ideas rules and principles that have evolved out of the history of curriculum as theory research and practice dealing with specific and general issues Due to its approach to both specific and general curriculum issues the chapters in this volume vary with respect to scope Some engage the purposes and politics of schooling in general Others focus on particular topics such as evaluation the use of instructional objectives or curriculum integration They illustrate recurrent themes and historical antecedents and the curricular debates arising from and grounded in epistemological traditions Furthermore the issues raised in the handbook cut across a variety of subject areas and levels of education and how curricular research and practice have developed over time This includes the epistemological foundations of dominant ideas in the field around theory research and practice that have led to marginalization based on race class gender sexuality ethnicity age religion and ability The book argues that basic curriculum issues extend well beyond schooling to include the concerns of anyone interested in how people come to acquire the knowledge skills and values that they do in relation to subjectivity and experience

Multicultural Education Batra P., 2004-01-01

Foucault and the Critique of Institutions John Caputo, Mark Yount, 2010-11-01 The Fear Problematic R. Michael Fisher, 2023-11-01 The author with over three decades of focused research on fear and fearlessness and 45 years as an emancipatory educator argues that philosophy and philosophy of education have missed several great opportunities to help bring about theoretical and meta perspectival clarity wisdom compassion and practical ways to the sphere of fear management education FME throughout history FME is not simple nor a luxury it is complex It is foundational to good curriculum but it requires careful philosophical critique This book embarks on a unique transdisciplinary understanding of The Fear Problematic and how it can be integrated as a pivotal contextual reference for assessing the best way to go in Education today and tomorrow Educational philosophy is examined and shown to have largely missed the boat in terms of responding critically and ethically to the insidious demand of having to truly educate ourselves when we are so scared stiff Such a state of growing chronic fear of morphing types of fear and a culture of fear ought to be central in shaping a philosophy of fearism for education The book challenges all leaders but especially philosophers and educators to upgrade their own fear imaginary and fear education for the 21st century a century of terror likely to grow in the cascading global crises

A Teacher's Introduction to Postmodernism Ray Linn, 1996 In this overview of intellectual and artistic trends from the seventeenth century to the present Linn unpacks the logic assumptions and philosophical implications wrapped up in what has become the founding statement of modern rationalism Descartes s I think therefore I am from publisher description

Critical Multiculturalism Barry Kanpol, Peter McLaren, 1995-02-28 This collection explores the way in which critical theory and practice can unite into a common vision of democratic hope While each author has his or her own specialty the thread of shared dreams is portrayed in a call for solidarity The separate viewpoints are drawn together to constitute a democratic platform for an enlightened critical education agenda From narrative to critical ethnography case studies explore the multicultural and power struggles of states districts and schools Intimately connected to all contributions in this collection is the commitment of each author to similarly share a common pregnancy of intention within a language of possibility
