Kramer, 2016-08-11 Kramer was one of the most visionary musical thinkers of the second half of the 20th century In his The Time of Music he approached the idea of the many different ways that time itself is articulated musically This book has become influential among composers theorists and aestheticians Now in his almost completed text written before his untimely death in 2004 he examines the concept of postmodernism in music Kramer created a series of markers by which we can identify postmodern works He suggests that the postmodern project actually creates a radically different relationship between the composer and listener Written with wit precision and at times playfully subverting traditional tropes to make a very serious point about this difference Postmodern Music Postmodern Listening leads us to a strongly grounded intellectual basis for stylistic description and an intuitive sensibility of what postmodernism in music entails Postmodern Music Postmodern Listening is an examination of how musical postmodernism is not just a style or movement but a fundamental shift in the relationship between composer and listener The result is a multifaceted and provocative look at a critical turning point in music history one whose implications we are only just beginning to understand

Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times

David S. Herrstrom,2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light being truer than any other

Writing in Real Time Paul Jaussen, 2017-07-03 From Walt Whitman to the contemporary period the long poem has been one of the more dynamic intricate and yet challenging literary practices of modernity Addressing those challenges Writing in Real Time combines systems theory literary history and recent debates in poetics to interpret a broad range of American long poems as emergent systems capable of adaptation and transformation in response to environmental change Due to these emergent properties the long poem performs essential cultural work offering a unique experience of history that remains valuable for our rapidly transforming digital age Moving across a broad range of literary and theoretical texts Writing in Real Time demonstrates that the study of emergence can enhance literary scholarship just as literature provides unique insights into emergent properties making this book a key resource for scholars graduate students and undergraduate students alike

All People, All Times Jeffery S. Stevenson, 2009-09 All People All Times Rethinking Biblical Authority in Churches of Christ explores the assumptions traditionally held in a cappella Churches of Christ regarding how one knows what in Scripture is binding on all people at all times The development of the tripartite model for determining Bible authority i e command example and implication is examined and critiqued While many in Churches of Christ advocate abandoning the model altogether others refuse to see its limitations in a postmodern culture All People All Times offers a hermeneutical approach The Transformational Restoration Hermeneutic or TRH that sharpens the tripartite method by providing a biblically based grid to more accurately discern Scripture s emphases As well it introduces a sorely needed means for the formational use of Scripture In short the TRH recognizes not only the need to take Scripture seriously when it speaks authoritatively regarding external or doctrinal necessities but also when it speaks to the spiritual moral and relational priorities stressed in our postmodern era It is hoped the TRH can provide a hermeneutical bridge between the widening streams of a fellowship historically devoted to speaking where the Bible speaks For the last 18 of his 32 years in preaching Jeffery S Stevenson has served as the Preaching Minister for the Church of Christ at Louisville Ohio and the Director of Second Wind Christian Counseling Ministries Jeff holds degrees from Freed Hardeman University Bible the University of Akron Marriage and Family Therapy and a Doctorate from Ashland Ohio Theological Seminary Jeff has written on topics such as hermeneutics and biblical application in the Restoration Movement evangelism and Christian counseling He has published articles in the Gospel Advocate Christian Standard and Restoration Quarterly Jeff and his wife Tonnie have three grown daughters Micah Meghann and Mallory Jeff s likes reading walking cycling and model railroading

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

RE: Reading the Postmodern Robert David Stacey, 2011-01-14 It would be difficult to exaggerate the worldwide impact of postmodernism on the fields of cultural production and the social sciences over the last quarter century even if the concept has been understood in various even contradictory ways An interest in postmodernism and postmodernity has been especially strong in Canada in part thanks to the country s non monolithic approach to history and its multicultural understanding of nationalism which seems to align with the decentralized plural and open ended pursuit of truth as a multiple possibility as outlined by Jean Fran ois Lyotard In fact long before Lyotard published his influential work The Postmodern Condition in 1979 Canadian writers and critics were employing the term to describe a new kind of writing RE Reading the Postmodern marks a first cautious step toward a history of Canadian postmodernism exploring the development of the idea of the postmodern and debates about its meaning and its applicability to various genres of Canadian writing and charting its decline in recent years as a favoured critical trope
