Postmodern Challenge Perspectives East:

The Postmodern Challenge: Perspectives East and West, 2023-12-04 This volume is designed to bridge a gap in the current theoretical debate about the nature scope and relevance of postmodern perspectives in the humanist and social sciences in Eastern and Western Europe While the debate has been reasonably comprehensive and certainly abrasive in Western European and Anglophone countries it has signally failed to incorporate the viewpoints of Eastern European scholars and intellectuals Even the current appropriation of Mikhail Bakhtin as a prophet of the postmodern is paradoxically a monologic engagement with his thought rather than a dialogic encounter of cultures Doubtless different historical experiences ideology and social aspirations go some way to account for the weariness of Eastern Europe with postmodern challenge and its glad embrace by Western scholars The volume comprises some fifteen essays by leading historians literary theorists and social scientists from Western and Eastern Europe and America It has a threefold aim firstly to illuminate the distinctiveness of current Western and Eastern European theorizing about history and society secondly to reveal points of tension and disagreement and finally to open up a space for a meeting of seemingly incompatible worlds Center and Periphery, 2013-03-15 William Chester Jordan s scholarship has demonstrated the complexity of negotiating power at both the center and margins of medieval society taking us into the inner chambers of medieval power structures where kings churchmen and courtiers dwell to the margins of society inhabited by disenfranchised peoples such as Jews women and the poor Center and Periphery Studies on Power in the Medieval World in Honor of William Chester Jordan edited by Katherine L Jansen G Geltner and Anne E Lester honors Professor Jordan by taking up these themes and expanding them from France into Spain Italy the Lowlands and the Mediterranean The volume highlights how Jordan s work inspired and influenced a generation of medievalists working in North America and Europe today Contributors are John W Baldwin Adam J Davis Jonathan Elukin Hussein Fancy Michelle Garceau G Geltner Erica Gilles Holly J Grieco Maya Soifer Irish Katherine L Jansen Emily Kadens Richard Landes Jacques Le Goff Anne E Lester Christopher MacEvitt David Nirenberg Mark Gregory Pegg Jarbel Rodriguez E M Rose and Teofilo Ruiz Humanism After Colonialism Claudia Alvares, 2006 This book is the result of a doctoral thesis defended at Goldsmith s College University of London Acknowledgements Writing History in the Age of Biomedicine Roger Cooter, 2013-06-18 DIV A collection of ten essays paired with substantial prefaces this book chronicles and contextualizes Roger Cooter s contributions to the history of medicine Through an analysis of his own work Cooter critically examines the politics of conceptual and methodological shifts in historiography In particular he examines the double bind of postmodernism and biological or neurological modeling that together threaten academic history To counteract this trend suggests Cooter historians must begin actively locating themselves in the problems they consider The essays and commentaries constitute a kind of contour map of history s recent trends and trajectories its points of passage to the present and lead both to a critical account of the discipline s historiography and to an examination of the role of intellectual frameworks and epistemic virtues in the writing of history

Doing Justice to History

Barrie Sander,2021-03-09 As communities struggle to make sense of mass atrocities expectations have increasingly been placed on international criminal courts to render authoritative historical accounts of episodes of mass violence Taking these expectations as its point of departure this book seeks to understand international criminal courts through the prism of their historical function The book critically examines how such courts confront the past by constructing historical narratives concerning both the culpability of the accused on trial and the broader mass atrocity contexts in which they are alleged to have participated The book argues that international criminal courts are host to struggles for historical justice discursive contests between different actors vying for judicial acknowledgement of their interpretations of the past By examining these struggles within different institutional settings the book uncovers the legitimating qualities of international criminal judgments In particular it illuminates what tends to be foregrounded and included within as well as marginalised and excluded from the narratives of international criminal courts in practice What emerges from this account is a sense of the significance of thinking about the emancipatory limits and possibilities of international criminal courts in terms of the historical narratives that are constructed and contested within and beyond the courtroom

The New History Alun Munslow,2016-09-17 The notion of history has always been one strenuously debated by both academics and the wider population This deeply provocative re thinking of our engagement with the past by one of the world s leading post modern historians takes that debate one step further Alun Munslow re assesses history in the light of post modernism and other intellectual challenges which have questioned the primacy of the modernist epistemology of empiricism In an original and stimulating vision of history that will intrigue all those seriously interested in the subject Munslow argues that history is not only about the sources but a literary construction Munslow concludes that history as a cultural narrative about the past can never tell us what the past really means This far reaching conclusion is based on the radical idea that the content of history is defined as much by the nature of the language used to represent and interpret that content as it is by research into the sources This suggests that history does not produce the most likely meaning of the past but rather can only generate alternative meanings The lead volume in a major new series on historical thinking and practice this is an accessible yet absorbing study that breaks new ground in discussing the stage history is at now and perhaps most engagingly the direction it will take in the future Reinventing Modernity in Latin America N. Miller,2007-12-25 This is an exploration of how Latin America developed an alternative modernity during the early twentieth century one that challenges the key assumptions of the Western dominant model States and Citizens Quentin Skinner,Bo Stråth,2003-10-16 States and Citizens offers a coherent survey of perceptions of the state its history its theoretical underpinnings and its prospects in the contemporary world The coverage of the Western European experience is thorough and wide ranging with the greatest post colonial democratic state India as an important comparative example The provocative and accessible contributions of a very distinguished and genuinely pan European team of contributors ensure that States and Citizens provides a unique and valuable resource of interest to students and teachers of the history of ideas political theory and European studies Home and Homeland in Asian Diaspora Kyunghye Pyun,Jean Amato,2024-07-21 While many of us may strive to locate a sense of identity and belonging expressed via a home or ancestral homeland today however this connection is no longer if it ever was a straightforward identification This collection aims at mapping narratives or artwork of home homeland that present shared private multifaceted and often contested experiences of place especially in the context of today s migrations and upheavals along with alarming degrees of increased nativism racism and anti Asian violence This volume includes papers by artists filmmakers and comparative scholars from diverse disciplines of literature cinema art history cultural studies and gender studies Our goal is to help literary and art historian scholars in Asian diaspora studies better decolonize and open up traditional research methodologies curricula and pedagogies The Karl Muck Scandal Melissa D. Burrage,2019 The demonization internment and deportation of celebrated Boston Symphony Orchestra conductor Dr Karl Muck finally told and placed in the context of World War I anti German sentiment in the United States BEST CLASSICAL MUSIC BOOK RELEASE OF 2019 by Classical music com the official website of BBC Music Magazine 2019 SUMMER READS ABOUT CLASSICAL MUSIC by the Australian Broadcasting Corporation 2019 BEST BOOK AWARD FINALIST in both the History and Performing Arts categories sponsored by American Book Fest 2019 SUBVENTION AWARD by the American Musicological Society funded in part by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Andrew W Mellon Foundation One of the cherished narratives of American history is that of the Statue of Liberty welcoming immigrants to its shores Accounts of the exclusion and exploitation of Chinese immigrants in the late nineteenth century and Japanese internment during World War II tell a darker story of American immigration Less well known however is the treatment of German Americans and German nationals in the United States during World War I. Initially accepted and even welcomed into American society at the outbreak of war, this group would face rampant intolerance and anti-German hysteria. Melissa D. Burrage's book illustrates this dramatic shift in attitude in her engrossing narrative of Dr. Karl Muck, the celebrated German conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, who was targeted and ultimately disgraced by a New York Philharmonic board member and by capitalists from that city who used his private sexual life as a basis for having him arrested, interned, and deported from the United States. While the campaign against Muck made national headlines and is the main focus of this book, Burrage also illuminates broader national topics such as Total War State power, vigilante justice, internment, and deportation, irresponsible journalism, sexual surveillance, attitudes toward immigration, anti-Semitism, and the development of America's musical institutions. The mistreatment of Karl Muck in the United States provides a narrative thread that connects these various wartime and postwar themes.

MELISSA D. BURRAGE, a former writing consultant at Harvard University Extension School, holds a Master's Degree in History from Harvard University and a PhD in American Studies from the University of East Anglia. Support for this publication was provided by the Howard Hanson Institute for American Music at the Eastman School of Music at the University of Rochester.

Genitricksling Joyce, 2021-11-22

Joyce's methods of composition have only recently begun to be examined in a rigorous fashion. Already the work done on the genesis of Joyce's texts has fostered both new insights and new questions regarding the overall status of his oeuvre. The conference Genitricksling Joyce held at Antwerp in 1997 testified to the variety and vitality of genetic investigations into Joyce's work. We have tried to recreate this vitality in the present volume with a double purpose or double trick. First, the essays collected in Genitricksling Joyce are not only indicative of the growing body of genetic scholarship; they also signify methodological and theoretical changes among its practitioners towards a more open form of discussion and understanding. Second, we hope that these essays will clearly demonstrate the relevance of genetic criticism to current critical and cultural concerns in Joyce studies.

Culture and Crisis, Nina Witoszek, Lars Trägårdh, 2002

It is often argued that Germany and Scandinavia stand at two opposite ends of a spectrum with regard to their response to social, economic disruptions and cultural challenges. Though in many respects they have a shared cultural inheritance, it is nevertheless the case that they mobilize different mythologies and different modes of coping when faced with breakdown and disorder. The authors argue that it is at these critical junctures, points of crisis and innovation in the life of communities, that the tradition and identity of national and local communities are formed, polarized, and revalued. It is here that social change takes a particular direction.

The Oxford History of Historical Writing, Axel Schneider, Daniel Woolf, 2011-05-05

The fifth volume of The Oxford History of Historical Writing offers essays by leading scholars on the writing of history globally since 1945 Divided into two parts part one selects and surveys theoretical and interdisciplinary approaches to history and part two examines select national and regional historiographies throughout the world It aims at once to provide an authoritative survey of the field and to provoke cross cultural comparisons This is chronologically the last of five volumes in a series that explores representations of the past across the globe from the beginning of writing to the present day

Academic freedom, institutional autonomy and the future of democracy Sjur Bergan,Tony Gallagher,Ira Harkavy,2020-09-15 Academic freedom and institutional autonomy are essential for universities to produce the research and teaching necessary to improve society and the human condition Academic freedom and institutional autonomy are increasingly important components of the development of democracy At the same time these fundamental democratic values are subject to pressure in many countries The relationship between academic freedom institutional autonomy and democracy is fundamental it is barely conceivable that they could exist in a society not based on democratic principles and democracy is enriched when higher education institutions operate on this basis Higher education institutions need to be imbued with democratic culture and that in turn helps to promote democratic values in the wider society None of these issues are simple and the lines between legitimacy and illegitimacy are sometimes hard to discern as is illustrated by perspectives from Europe North America Asia Australia and the Mediterranean region

Handbook for the Historiography of Science Mauro L. Condé,Marlon Salomon,2023-09-30 This book aims to perform a critical and broad assessment of the historiography of science produced from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century It presents its main authors concepts ideas conceptions and schools It also analyzes the historical circumstances of the rise of the discipline history of science and the relations of the historiography of science with related areas These chapters do not understand the historiography of science as a mere description or record of the history of science Instead they understand the historiography of science from the epistemological criteria and choices that guided the writing of the history of science in its different contexts In other words more than describing the record of the various possibilities of historiographical approaches to science the chapters carry out an epistemological reflection to assess the bases possibilities scope and limits of different historiographical conceptions authors and traditions that have established the writing of the history of science This book can be conceived as a reference work not only for professional historians and philosophers but also for academics from different backgrounds who are initiating themselves in the universe of history and philosophy of science be they scientists from different fields or young researchers from different backgrounds who want to start studying the history and philosophy of science

Postcolonial Perspectives on Postcommunism in Central and Eastern Europe Dorota Kołodziejczyk,Cristina Șandru,2017-10-02 A quarter of a century after the fall of the Berlin Wall and from the vantage point of a post Cold War globalised world there is a need to address the relative neglect of postcommunism in analysis of postcolonial and neo colonial configurations of power and influence This book proposes new critical perspectives on several themes and concepts that have emerged within or been propagated by postcolonial studies These themes include structures of exclusion inclusion formations of nationalism structures of othering and representations of difference forms and historical realisations of anti colonial anti imperial struggle the experience of trauma involving issues of collective memory amnesia and the re writing of history resistance as a complex of cultural practices and concepts such as alterity ambivalence self colonisation dislocation hegemonic discourse minority and subaltern cultures Taken together this volume suggests that some of the methodological instruments of postcolonial criticism can be fruitfully applied to the study of postcommunist cultures and conversely that the experience of the Soviet brand of imperialist rule in the form of communism in East Central Europe can function as an ideological moderator in Third World oriented Marxist inspired postcolonial discourses This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing The postmodern Challenge Bo Stråth, Nina Witoszek, 1999
