Postmodernism and Its Discontents E. Ann Kaplan,1988 Postmodernism and Its Discontents Ann E.

Kaplan,1988-11-17 Postmodernity and its Discontents Zygmunt Bauman,2013-05-20 When Freud wrote his classic Civilization and its Discontents he was concerned with repression Modern civilization depends upon the constraint of impulse the limiting of self expression Today in the time of modernity Bauman argues Freud s analysis no longer holds good if it ever did The regulation of desire turns from an irritating necessity into an assault against individual freedom In the postmodern era the liberty of the individual is the overriding value the criterion in terms of which all social rules and regulations are assessed Postmodernity is governed by the will to happiness the result however is a sacrificing of security The most prominent anxieties in our society today Bauman shows derive from the removal of security The world is experienced as overwhelmingly uncertain uncontrollable and frightening Totalitarian politics frightened by its awesome power the new social disorder frightens by its lack of consistency and direction The very pursuit of individual happiness corrupts and undermines those systems of authority needed for a stable life This book builds imaginatively upon Bauman s earlier contributions to social theory It consolidates his reputation as the interpreter of postmodernity The book will appeal to second year undergraduates and above in sociology cultural studies philosophy and anthropology Encyclopedia of Postmodernism Victor E. Taylor,Charles E. Winquist,2003 Provides comprehensive and authoritative coverage of academic disciplines critical terms and central figures relating to the vast field of postmodern studies Publisher s description

Postmodernism and The Other Ziauddin Sardar,1998 Postmodernism has often been presented as a new theory of liberation that promotes pluralism and gives representation to the marginalised peoples of the non west and other cultures In this major assessment of postmodernism from a non western perspective Ziauddin Sardar offers a radical critique of this view Covering the salient spheres of postmodernism from architecture film television and pop music to philosophy consumer lifestyles and new age religions Sardar reveals that postmodernism in fact operates to further marginalise the reality of the non west and confound its aspirations By tracing postmodernism s roots in colonialism and modernity Sardar demonstrates that the dominant contemporary intellectual fashion peddling an insidiously oppressive and subtle revisionism is the most comprehensive onslaught on the non west ever experienced In stern retort the author offers ways in which the peoples of the non west can counter the postmodern assault and survive with their identities histories and cultures intact

Popular Culture Icons in Contemporary American Drama Konstantinos Blatanis, 2003 The discussion addresses the task of theater images in a cultural field where the real is mistaken for its reflection originality constantly played against seriality at a moment when simulacra clones and emulations of selves and texts become firmly established as the norm The accommodation of pop icons on stage and the results this framing yields constitute this work's primary interests and aims Jacket

Photography after Postmodernism David Bate, 2022-08-19 In life after postmodernism our conception of photography is not the same as before Photography After Postmodernism starts with this conception and explores what changes have affected photography its relation to social life and our image centred culture Engaging with the visual environment and issues that have emerged in the postmodern world David Bate introduces fresh approaches and analysis of photographs and their place within the aftermath of postmodernist thought The book shows how photographs circulate in an image world beyond their art or media origins that deeply affects our sense of time and relation to memory The role of archives dreams memories and time are deployed to develop and resituate arguments about photography made by Roland Barthes in Camera Lucida to further engage and understand our contemporary condition By considering how afterwordness is invoked in the developments of modern and contemporary photography Bate demonstrates the complex ways in which photographic images resonate across public and private spaces while carrying a slippage of meaning that is never quite fixed yet always contingent and social The approach shows how modernist photography was already invested in values that its discourse could not enunciate which resonates with much contemporary photography today Featuring a range of historical and contemporary images the book offers detailed and innovative readings of specific photographs which open new avenues of thought for those studying and researching visual culture and photography

Television Criticism Victoria O'Donnell, 2013 Television Criticism presents a four part original treatment of television criticism with a foundational approach to the nature of criticism Readers gain an understanding of the business of television production background in creating television style and are presented with in depth chapters on storytelling narrative theories and television genres

The Postmodern History Reader Keith Jenkins, 1997 The Postmodern History Reader introduces students to the new points of controversy in the study of history and provides a framework by which to understand postmodernism and a guide to explore it further

Tactical Readings Nicola Pitchford, 2002 Both writers novels borrow heavily from other authors and in doing so they offer strategies for a politically committed rereading of literary history and its interaction with the popular imagination

Critical Theory Now Philip Wexler, 2003-05-20 First Published in 1991 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Postmodern Education Stanley Aronowitz, 1991

Romancing the Postmodern Diane Elam, 2019-08-13 By exposing the theory of romance to the romance of theory Diane Elam explores literature's most uncertain least easily definable and most tenacious genre assessing its implications for both feminism and the understanding of history Arguing for a parallel between postmodernism's divided relation to modernism and romance's difficult stance towards realism Romancing the Postmodern first published in 1992 not only highlights how postmodernism questions our assumptions about historical time it also reintroduces the figure of woman to the theory of both history and literature

Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse

Magali Cornier Michael, 1996-07-03 Michael analyzes the intersections between feminist politics and postmodern aesthetics as demonstrated in recent Anglo American fiction While much has been written on various aspects of postmodernism and postmodern fiction and of feminism and feminist fiction very little attention has been given to the postmodern aesthetic strategies that surface in post World War II feminist fiction Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse examines ways in which many widely read and acclaimed novels with feminist impulses engage and transform subversive aesthetic strategies usually associated with postmodern fiction to strengthen their feminist political edge The author discusses many examples of recent feminist postmodern fiction and explores in greater depth Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook Marge Piercy's Woman on the Edge of Time Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale and Angela Carter's Nights at the Circus She shows that feminist postmodern fiction's emphasis on the material historical situation the link to activist politics and commitment to enacting concrete changes in the world and thus the need to reach a large reading public often results in a blending and transformation of postmodern and realist aesthetic forms Moreover feminist fiction uses deconstructive strategies not only to disrupt the status quo but also to create a space for reconstruction particularly of recreating new forms of female subjectivities and feminist aesthetics

The Postmodern Arts Nigel Wheale, 1995 The Postmodern Arts provides essential material and invaluable guidance for students of modern literature and culture

Theories of Play and Postmodern

Fiction Brian Edwards, 2013-05-13 Drawing on developments in critical theory and postmodernist fiction this study makes an important contribution to the appreciation of playforms in language texts and cultural practices Tracing trajectories in theories of play and game and with particular attention to the writings of Nietzsche Wittgenstein Bakhtin and Derrida the author argues that the concept of play provides perspectives on language and communication processes useful both for analysis of literary texts and also for understanding the interactive nature of constructions of knowledge Exploring manifestations of game and play throughout the history of Western culture from Plato to Pynchon this study traces developments in 20th century cultural and literary theory of ideas about play in the writings of Johan Huizinga Roger Caillois Jacques Ehrmann Bernard Suits James Hans Mihai Spariosu and Robert Rawdon Wilson The author emphasizes post structuralist developments with specific attention to deconstruction and reception theory and argues that deconstruction makes the most significant recent contribution to play theory in its application to language and to literature The work also explores the modes and effects of playforms in particular examples of postmodernist fiction With attention to major works from Thomas Pynchon Gravity's Rainbow John Barth LETTERS Robert Kroetsch What the Crow Said Angela Carter Nights at the Circus and Peter Carey Illywhacker Edwards acknowledges and deconstructs such basic oppositions as play and seriousness fiction and truth difference and identity to explore the literature's cultural political significance Seeking to affirm the fiction's continuing social relevance the readings presented in this book place play irresistibly at the heartland of language meaning and culture A Cinema Without Walls Timothy Corrigan, 1991 Corrigan argues that in the past 25 years the increased conglomerization of film production distribution companies and the rise of VCR satellite and cable television technologies have altered the way films are made and how we view them The result is a growing internationalization of national cinema cultures and an increasing fragmentation of the audience Video has reduced the movie to private and domestic performance At the same time audiences are bombarded with a surfeit of images that leaves them with a battered sense of their place in history and culture Corrigan notes that combined with what many critics have recognized as the growing incoherence in film texts these facts make it more meaningful to discuss films not as texts but as multiple cultural and commercial processes constructed by increasingly specialized audiences ISBN 0 8135 1667 6 36 00
