Lyotard and the 'figural' in Performance, Art and Writing Kiff Bamford, 2012-06-14 This original study offers a timely reconsideration of the work of French philosopher Jean-François Lyotard in relation to art performance and writing How can we write about art whilst acknowledging the transformation that inevitably accompanies translations of both media and temporality That is the question that persistently dogs Lyotard's own writings on art and to which this book responds through reference to artists from the recently formed canon of performance art history including the myths of seminal figures Marina Abramovic and Vito Acconci and the controlled documentation of Gina Pane's actions Through the unstable untranslatable element that Lyotard calls the figural his thought is brought to bear on attempts to write a history of performance art and to question the paradoxically prescriptive demand for rules to govern re performance Kiff Bamford contextualises Lyotard s writings and approach with reference to both his contemporaries including Deleuze and Kristeva and the contemporary art about which they wrote whilst arguing for the pertinence of Lyotard s provocations today

Behind the Postmodern Facade Magali Sarfatti Larson,2024-07-26 Magali Larson s comprehensive study explores how architecture happens and what has become of the profession in the postmodern era Drawing from extensive interviews with pivotal architects from Philip Johnson who was among the first to introduce European modernism to America to Peter Eisenman identified with a new deconstructionist style she analyzes the complex tensions that exist between economic interest professional status and architectural product She investigates the symbolic awards and recognition accorded by prestigious journals and panels exposing the inner workings of a profession in a precarious social position Larson captures the struggles around status place and power as architects seek to redefine their very purpose in contemporary America The author s novel approach in synthesizing sociological research and theory proposes nothing less than a new cultural history of architecture This is a ground breaking contribution to the study of culture and the sociology of knowledge as well as to architectural and urban history This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1993 with a paperback edition in 1995 The Idea of the Postmodern Hans Bertens,2003-09-02 At last Everything you ever wanted to know about postmodernism but were afraid to ask Hans Bertens Postmodernism is the first introductory overview of postmodernism to succeed in providing a witty and accessible guide for the bemused student In clear and straightforward but always elegant prose Bertens sets out the interdisciplinary aspects the critical debates and the key theorists of postmodernism He also explains in thoughtful and illuminating language the relationship between postmodernism and poststructuralism and that between modernism and postmodernism An enjoyable and indispensable text for today s student Psychoanalysis and the Postmodern Impulse Barnaby B. Barratt,2015-11-06 According to the author psychoanalytic theory and practice which discloses the interminable falsity of the human subject s belief in the mastery of its own mental life is in part responsible for the coming of the postmodern era In this title originally published in 1993 Barratt examines the role of psychoanalysis in what he sees as the crisis of modernism shows why the modernist position what he calls the modern episteme is failing and proposes that psychoanalysis should redefine itself as a postmodern method In Barratt s innovative account of psychoanalysis which focuses on the significance of the free associative process Freud s discovery of the repressed unconscious leads to a claim that is basic to postmodern ideas that all thinking and speaking the production and reproduction of psychic reality is inherently dynamic polysemous and contradictory He argues that subsequent attempts to normalize and systematize
