Postmodernity, Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson,2002-01-04 In Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson sets out to demonstrate that postmodern theory has actually made possible an ethical discourse around fiction Each chapter elaborates and discusses a particular aspect of Levinas thought and raises questions for that thought and its bearing on the novel It also contains detailed analyses of particular texts Part of the book s originality is its concentration on a range of modernist and postmodern novels which have seldom if ever served as the basis for a larger ethical theory of fiction Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel discusses among others the writings of Joseph Conrad Henry James Jane Austen Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Salman Rushdie The Making and Mirroring of Masculine Subjectivities Susan Mooney,2022-08-09 This book shows how diverse critical modern world narratives in prose fiction and film emphasize masculine subjectivities through affects and ethics Highlighting diverse affects and mental states in subjective voices and modes modern narratives reveal men as feeling intersubjective beings and not as detached masters of master narratives Modern novels and films suggest that masculine subjectivities originate paradoxically from a combination of copying and negation surplus and lack sameness and alterity among fathers and sons siblings and others In this comparative study of more than 30 diverse world narratives Mooney deftly uses psychoanalytic thought narrative theories of first and third person narrators and Levinasian and feminist ethics of care creativity honor and proximity We gain a nuanced picture of diverse postpaternal postgentlemen emerging out of older character structures of the knight and gentleman The Politics of

Postmodernism Linda Hutcheon,2003-12-16 Working through the issue of representation in art forms from fiction to photography Linda Hutcheon sets out postmodernism s highly political challenge to the dominant ideologies of the western world Milton and the Post-Secular Present Feisal Mohamed,2011-08-09 Milton and the Post Secular Present defines and critiques the term post secular as it appears in current thought bringing its implications into sharp relief by comparison to the pre secular works of John Milton Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory Michael Groden,Martin Kreiswirth,Imre Szeman,2012-10-05 Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory The Johns Hopkins Guide is a clear accessible and detailed overview of the most important thinkers and topics in the field Written by specialists from across disciplines its entries cover contemporary theory from Adorno to i ek providing an informative and reliable introduction to a vast challenging area of inquiry Materials include newly commissioned articles along with essays drawn from The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism known as the definitive resource for students and scholars of literary theory and for philosophical reflection on literature and culture

Toward a Phenomenological Rhetoric Barbara Couture,1998 Current rhetorical and critical theory for the most part separates writing from consciousness and presumes relative truth to be the only possible expressive goal for rhetoric These presumptions are reflected in our tradition of persuasive rhetoric which values writing that successfully argues one person s belief at the expense of another s Barbara Couture presents a case for a phenomenological rhetoric one that values and respects consciousness and selfhood and that restores to rhetoric the possibility of seeking an all embracing truth through pacific and cooperative interaction Couture discusses the premises on which current interpretive theory has supported relative truth as the philosophical grounding for rhetoric premises she argues that have led to constraints on our notion of truth that divorce it from human experience She then shows how phenomenological philosophy might guide the theory and practice of rhetoric reanimating its role in the human enterprise of seeking a shared truth She proposes profession and altruism as two guiding metaphors for the phenomenological activity of truth seeking through interaction Among the contemporary rhetoricians and philosophers who influence Couture are Pierre Teilhard de Chardin Martin Buber Charles Altieri Charles Taylor Alasdair MacIntyre and J rgen Habermas

The Ethical Work of Literature in a Post-Humanist World Benice Spark,2018-10-11 This book examines the contention that in an era where the relevance of the literary novel is compromised the novel remains an important means of exploring and interrogating societies and culture It answers the question of what we lose with the loss of the novel as an important public space for discourse It does so through readings of a selection of Don DeLillo s later novels together with the political philosophies of Hannah Arendt and Alain Badiou in their engagement with contemporary history DeLillo explores in his fiction the profound cultural and socio political changes and historical events which affect people His literary interest is the status of the individual in changing times On a personal level his concern is the writer in an epoch where the novel is challenged by crises of diminished relevance in a techno media culture and the emergence of radical forms of censorship that target literature and its producers This book will appeal to students of DeLillo s novels researchers in the disciplines of literature philosophy and contemporary history and students of Badiou and Arendt Arendt s political theories are currently undergoing a renaissance of interest given current global politics

Critical Animal Studies Dawne McCance,2013-01-01 Comprehensive overview of key theoretical approaches and issues in the field

Eco-Deconstruction Philippe Lynes,David Wood,2018-03-27 Eco Deconstruction marks a new approach to the degradation of the natural environment including habitat loss species extinction and climate change While the work of French philosopher Jacques Derrida 1930 2004 with its relentless interrogation of the anthropocentric metaphysics of presence has already proven highly influential in posthumanism and animal studies the present volume drawing on published and unpublished work by Derrida and others builds on these insights to address the most pressing environmental issues of our time The volume brings together fifteen prominent scholars from a wide variety of related fields including eco phenomenology eco hermeneutics new materialism posthumanism animal studies vegetal philosophy science and technology studies environmental humanities eco criticism earth art and aesthetics and analytic environmental ethics Overall eco deconstruction offers an account of differential relationality explored in a non totalizable ecological context that addresses our times in both an ontological and a normative register The book is divided into four sections Diagnosing the Present suggests that our times are marked by a facile flattened out understanding of time and thus in need of deconstructive dispositions Ecologies mobilizes the spectral ontology of deconstruction to argue for an originary environmentality the constitutive ecological embeddedness of mortal life Nuclear and Other Biodegradabilities examines remains including such by products and disintegrations of human culture as nuclear waste environmental destruction and species extinctions Environmental Ethics seeks to uncover a demand for justice including human responsibility for suffering beings that emerges precisely as a response to original differentiation and the mortality and unmasterable alterity it installs in living beings As such the book will resonate with readers not only of philosophy but across the humanities and the social and natural sciences
