Postscript To Yesterday American Life:

Postscript to Yesterday Lloyd R. Morris, 1965      P.S. I Love You Carlton Jackson, 2007-03-16 In 1953 the same year that Elvis Presley cut his first demo Cash Box magazine named the Hilltoppers the top vocal group of the year Hits such as Trying and P S I Love You raced up the charts and kept the group in Billboard s Top 40 The four fresh faced singers appeared on The Toast of the Town with Ed Sullivan who introduced them to the nation On weekends the Hilltoppers performed in cities across the country but on Monday mornings they were better known as Western Kentucky State College students Jimmy Sacca Seymour Spiegelman Don McGuire and Billy Vaughn The Korean War military drafts and changing public tastes in music however cut short singing careers that should have lasted much longer Sacca was drafted in 1953 mere months before the end of the war Vaughn left the group shortly after that for a career at Dot Records and found fame elsewhere with his orchestra McGuire and Spiegelman were drafted as well and despite a set of temporary replacement members the group eventually called it quits Fifty years later historian Carlton Jackson revisits the Kentucky college kids who made it big between classes He follows the group from their first hit recorded in Western s Van Meter Auditorium to their brief 1970s reunion Their story recalls the nature of celebrity and youth in the early days of rock n roll      P.S. United States. U.S. Savings Bonds Division. Office of Public Affairs, 1950-08      Internal Revenue Bulletin United States. Internal Revenue Service, 1992      Music in American Life Jacqueline Edmondson, 2013-10-03 A fascinating exploration of the relationship between American culture and music as defined by musicians scholars and critics from around the world Music has been the cornerstone of popular culture in the United States since the beginning of our nation s history From early immigrants sharing the sounds of their native lands to contemporary artists performing benefit concerts for social causes our country s musical expressions reflect where we as a people have been as well as our hope for the future This four volume encyclopedia examines music s influence on contemporary American life tracing historical connections over time Music in American Life An Encyclopedia of the Songs Styles Stars and Stories That Shaped Our Culture demonstrates the symbiotic relationship between this art form and our society Entries include singers composers lyricists songs musical genres places instruments technologies music in films music in political realms and music shows on television      P.S. Burn This Letter Please Craig Olsen, 2023-08-15 With an introduction from RuPaul s Drag Race winner Sasha Velour Their greatest act of resistance was simply existing In 1950s New York a group of drag pioneers found work in a small number of Lower East Side clubs They occupied the margins of society determined to live authentically despite the attentions of the police These girls were unstoppable fearless and fabulous but their very existence was deemed a criminal threat to society When a secret cache of their letters was discovered in 2014 these individuals were given a voice for the first time The letters reveal personal triumphs and tragedies and a fascinating world that has rarely been documented Expertly weaving social political and cultural history Craig Olsen illuminates the lives and loves of our exceptional LGBTQ forebears P S Burn This Letter Please is the ground breaking result a deeply moving encounter with a generation of survivors and a necessary account of how modern drag culture was born American Studies Jack Salzman, American Studies Association, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00

The Power of the 5 Ps Marva T. Dixon, 2012-05 Let not your true purpose be defined by the organization the system or that you be defined by it Understand the policies and laws that dictate what you should say or do within the boundaries of the system Excel in the practices of your field defining what and how you perform your art and how you shall be known Seek out people of quality who provide guidance and truly care about your success Yield to prayer maintaining your faith in good and bad times even when things don t make sense knowing your goal is to make a difference Professional educators are now living in an era where there is increased concern about the quality of education in public schools in America States are beginning to take a greater role in monitoring and maintaining higher academic standards Communities across the country are scrutinizing the expense of public education Local school districts are expressing concern about the district s ability to continue providing high quality teaching and other related services with diminishing resources Parents everywhere regardless of ethnicity socioeconomic status or cultural family background want the assurance that their child will receive adequate and appropriate academic preparation that will lead to a productive livelihood for their child s future The intended result of this book is to serve as a guide and inspiration to educators whether they serve in the capacity of a teacher paraprofessional or administrator as they continue their journey in the field of public education especially during these most challenging times America needs every person involved in the education of youth to remain steadfast Each educator makes a difference in the lives of youth America s youth need and are counting on you
