Postsocialism Ideals Ideologies And Practices In Eurasia:

Postsocialism C.M. Hann, 2003-09 Social scientist did not predict the collapse of the socialist system in 1989 91 Their attempts to explain postsocialism have not been comprehensive This book examines why for the first time from an anthropological standpoint

Ethnographies of Grey Zones in Eastern Europe Ida Harboe Knudsen, Martin Demant Frederiksen, 2015-04-15 Over the last two decades Eastern European countries have experienced extensive changes in geo political relocations and relations leading to everyday uncertainty Based on ethnographic cases this anthology explores how grey zones of governance borders relations and invisibilities affect everyday life in contemporary Eastern Europe

The Postsocialist Agrarian Question C. M. Hann, 2003 This is an age of neo liberalism in which the advantages and virtues of private property are often taken for granted Post socialist governments have privatized and broken up state farms and socialist cooperatives However economic outcomes and the social insecurity now experienced by many rural inhabitants highlight the need for a broader anthropological analysis of property relations which go beyond changes of legal form A century after Kautsky addressed The Agrarian Question in Germany it is necessary to address a post socialist Agrarian Question throughout Central and Eastern Europe the former Soviet Union and China The studies collected here derive from the first cycle of projects carried out at the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology They are prefaced by a substantial introduction by Chris Hann Chris Hann is Director of the Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology Halle Saale

Modalities of Change James Wilkerson, Robert Parkin, 2012-10-01 While in some cases modernity may dominate traditional forms of expression in others the modern is embraced as a welcome source of new ideas that can modify tradition while still keeping it within its own bounds Maintaining a strong and distinct cultural identity with the help of modernity helps representatives of that identity cope with the modern world more generally By contrast assimilation to a dominant culture marked as modern is clearly associated with not only the loss of a distinct identity but also its specific forms of cultural expression This book explores the consequences of the interface between modernity and tradition in selected societies in Taiwan mainland China and Vietnam The contributors examine how traditions are themselves exploiting modernity in creative ways in the interests of their own further cultural developments and to what extent this approach is likely to help a tradition survive

Rural Governance Lynda Cheshire, Vaughan Higgins, Geoffrey Lawrence, 2006-12-05 This book critically explores the social causes and consequences of emerging governance arrangements In particular the book moves beyond questions of empowerment in governance debates to consider how new kinds of power relations arise between the various actors involved

The New Bosnian Mosaic Elissa Helms, 2016-02-17 Since the violent events of the Bosnian war and the revelations of ethnic cleansing that shocked the world in the early 1990s Bosnia has become a metaphor for the new ethnic nationalisms for the transformation of warfare in the post Cold War era and for new forms of peacekeeping and state building This book is unique in offering a re examination of the Bosnian case with a bottom up perspective It gathers together cultural anthropologists and other social scientists to consider the specificities of the Bosnian case However the book also raises broader questions what are the consequences of internecine violence and how should societies attempt to overcome them Are the uncertainties and the transformations of Bosnian post war society due entirely to the war or are they related to wider processes encompassing post communist Europe as a whole And are the difficulties experienced by international state building operations mainly due to distinctive features of the local societies or are they due to the policies promoted by the international community itself

Sinophobia Franck Billé, 2014-10-31 Sinophobia is a timely and groundbreaking study of the anti Chinese sentiments currently widespread in Mongolia Graffiti calling for the removal of Chinese dot the urban landscape songs about killing the Chinese are played in public spaces and rumors concerning Chinese plans to take over the country and exterminate the Mongols are rife Such violent anti Chinese feelings are frequently explained as a consequence of China s meteoric economic development a cause of much anxiety for her immediate neighbors and particularly for Mongolia a large but sparsely populated country that is rich in mineral resources Other analysts point to deeply entrenched antagonisms and to centuries of hostility between the two groups implying unbridgeable cultural differences Franck Bill challenges these reductive explanations Drawing on extended fieldwork interviews and a wide range of sources in Mongolian Chinese and Russian he argues that anti Chinese sentiments are not a new phenomenon but go back to the late socialist period 1960 1990 when Mongolia s political and cultural life was deeply intertwined with Russia s Through an in depth analysis of media discourses Bill shows how stereotypes of the Chinese emerged through an internalization of Russian ideas of Asia and how they can easily extend to other Asian groups such as Koreans or Vietnamese He argues that the anti Chinese attitudes of Mongols reflect an essential desire to distance themselves from Asia overall and to reject their own Asianness The spectral presence of China imagined to be everywhere and potentially in everyone thus produces a pervasive climate of mistrust suspicion and paranoia Through its detailed ethnography and innovative approach Sinophobia makes a critical intervention in racial and ethnic studies by foregrounding Sinophobic narratives and by integrating psychoanalytical insights into its analysis In addition to making a useful contribution to the study of Mongolia it will be essential reading for anthropologists sociologists and historians interested in ethnicity nationalism and xenophobia

This volume offers a profound analysis of post socialist economic and political transformation in the Balkans involving deeply unequal societies and oligarchical democracies The contributions deconstruct the persistent imaginary of the Balkans pervasive among outsiders to the region who see it as no more than a repository of ethnic conflict corruption and violence Providing a much needed critical examination of the Yugoslav socialist experience the volume sheds light on the recent rebirth of radical politics in the Balkans where new groups and movements struggle for a radically democratic vision of society Claiming Ownership in Postwar Croatia Carolin Leutloff-Grandits,2006 The book analyses inter group relations in a war torn region of postsocialist Croatia which previously had a large Serbian population The focus is on the legitimising discourses structures and agencies which regulate access to houses and land It explores the role of ethnicity and locality in everyday life and in politics and shows that the views of Knin Croats often diverge from those of recent Croatian immigrants The study contributes to theories of conflict and reconciliation as well as to the anthropology of postsocialism and legal anthropology A Companion to the Anthropology of Europe Ullrich Kockel,Máiréad Nic Craith,Jonas Frykman,2015-12-14

Written by leading international scholars in the field the volume constitutes the first authoritative guide for researchers instructors and students of anthropology and European studies Balkan Blues Yusef Jung, 2019-02-01 An exploration of how a state transitions from the collectivized production and distribution of socialism to the consumer focused culture of capitalism In Balkan Blues Yusef Jung considers the state as an economic agent in upholding rights and responsibilities in the shift to a global market Taking Bulgaria as her focus Jung shows how impoverished Bulgarians developed a consumer oriented society and how the concept of need adapted in surprising ways to accommodate this new culture Different legal frameworks arose to ensure the rights of vulnerable or deceived consumers Consumer advocacy NGOs and government officers scrambled to navigate unfamiliar EU imposed models for consumer affairs departments All of these changes involved issues of responsibility accountability and civic engagement which brought Bulgarians new ways of viewing both their identities and their sense of agency Yet these opportunities also raised questions of inequality injustice and social stratification Jung's study provides a compelling argument for reconsidering of the role of the state in the construction of twenty first century consumer cultures A good contribution to post socialist and Balkan studies showing well that the concept of post socialism can still be useful not only in the context of Central and Eastern Europe but also in the Balkans The book is based on long term deep ethnography and is well written I recommend it to anyone who wants to try to understand social political and economic differences in Europe and everyday practices related to the imaginaries of the state Karolina Bielenin Lenczowska Ethnologia Polona Kazakhstan - Ethnicity, Language and Power Bhavna Dave, 2007-09-13 Kazakhstan is emerging as the most dynamic economic and political actor in Central Asia It is the second largest country of the former Soviet Union after the Russian Federation and has rich natural resources particularly oil which is being exploited through massive US investment Kazakhstan has an impressive record of economic growth under the leadership of President Nursultan Nazarbaev and has ambitions to project itself as a modern wealthy civic state with a developed market economy At the same time Kazakhstan is one of the most ethnically diverse countries in the region with very substantial non Kazakh and non Muslim minorities Its political regime has used elements of political clientelism and neo traditional practices to bolster its rule Drawing from extensive ethnographic research interviews and archival materials this book traces the development of national identity and statehood in Kazakhstan focusing in particular on the attempts to build a national state It argues that Russification and Sovietization were not simply top down processes that they provide considerable scope for local initiatives and that Soviet ethnically based affirmative action policies have had a lasting impact on ethnic lite formation and the rise of a distinct brand of national consciousness Global Challenges and Local Reactions: Czech Republic and South Africa Hana Horáková, Stephanie Rudwick, 2014 This book presents an interdisciplinary perspective on the large scale processes of socio economic and political change of two young democracies post apartheid South Africa and the post socialist Czech Republic As the political transition in both countries coincides with the intensified effects of globalization especially with the advent of neoliberal economic ideologies and policies the two countries exhibit a number of common features and parallels in their respective transitions and post developments The book s chapters describe the particular place s South Africa and the Czech Republic occupy in the dual processes of internationalization and globalization Series International Politics Internationale Politik Vol 19 Subject Politics Economics European Studies African Studies Back to the Postindustrial Future Felix Ringel,2018-03-26 How does an urban community come to terms with the loss of its future The former socialist model city of Hoyerswerda is an extreme case of a declining postindustrial city Built to serve the GDR coal industry it lost over half its population to outmigration after German reunification and the coal industry crisis leading to the large scale deconstruction of its cityscape This book tells the story of its inhabitants now forced to reconsider their futures Building on recent theoretical work it advances a new anthropological approach to time allowing us to investigate the postindustrial era and the futures it has supposedly lost Armenia, the Regional Powers, and the West A. Mirzoyan,2010-04-12 This work represents the first systematic study of Armenia s foreign policy during the post independence period between 1991 and 2005 It explores four sets of relationships with Armenia s major historical partners Russia Iran Turkey and the West Europe and the United States , Exploring Civil Society Marlies Glasius,David Lewis,Hakan Seckinelgin,2004-08-02 This volume explores how the idea of civil society has been translated in different cultural contexts and examines its impact on politics worldwide Comparing and contrasting civil society in Latin America and Eastern Europe Western Europe and the United States Africa and South Asia and the Middle East the contributors show that there are multiple interpretations of the concept that depend more on the particular political configuration in different parts of the world than on cultural predilections They also demonstrate that the power of civil society depends less on abstract definitions and more on the extent to which it is grounded in the context of actual experiences from around the world This book includes some of the biggest names in the area such as Mary Kaldor Ronnie Lipschutz and Helmut Anheier
