Postsocialist Pathways:

Postsocialist Pathways David Stark, Laszlo Bruszt, 1998-02-28 This book first published in 1998 analyzes democratization and economic change in the postsocialist societies of East Central Europe      Postsocialist Europe László Kürti, Peter Skalník, 2009 Now that nearly twenty years have passed since the collapse of the Soviet bloc there is a need to understand what has taken place since that historic date and where we are at the moment Bringing together authors with different historical cultural regional and theoretical backgrounds this volume engages in debates that address new questions arising from recent developments such as whether there is a need to reject or uphold the notion of post socialism as both a necessary and valid concept ignoring changes and differences across both time and space The authors firsthand ethnographies from their own countries belie such a simplistic notion revealing as they do the cultural social and historical diversity of countries of Central and Southeastern Europe      Class Cultures in Post-Socialist Eastern Europe Dražen Cepić, 2018-10-26 This book investigates the extent to which social class has changed in Eastern Europe since the fall of communism Based on extensive original research the book discusses how ideas about class are viewed by both working class and middle class people The book examines how such people's social identities are shaped by various factors including economic success culture and friendship networks The present class situation in Eastern Europe is contrasted to what prevailed in Communist times when societies were officially classless but nevertheless had Communist party elites      The Sense of Dissonance David Stark, 2011-08-01 What counts In work as in other areas of life it is not always clear what standards we are being judged by or how our worth is being determined This can be disorienting and disconcerting Because of this many organizations devote considerable resources to limiting and clarifying the logics used for evaluating worth But as David Stark argues firms would often be better off especially in managing change if they allowed multiple logics of worth and did not necessarily discourage uncertainty In fact in many cases multiple orders of worth are unavoidable so organizations and firms should learn to harness the benefits of such heterarchy rather than seeking to purge it Stark makes this argument with ethnographic case studies of three companies attempting to cope with rapid change a machine tool company in late and postcommunist Hungary a new media startup in New York during and after the collapse of the Internet bubble and a Wall Street investment bank whose trading room was destroyed on 9 11 In each case the friction of competing criteria of worth promoted an organizational reflexivity that made it easier for the company to change and deal with market uncertainty Drawing on John Dewey's notion that perplexing situations provide opportunities for innovative inquiry Stark argues that the dissonance of diverse principles can lead to discovery      Modeling Post-Socialist Urbanization Daniel Kiss, 2018-12-17 This book examines Budapest's urban development planning and governance between 1990 and 2010 In the face of socialist urbanization's structural legacies the recent radical decentralization of government and resources and the impacts of a post socialist war of ideologies a trend is analyzed which leads to an urbanization mostly characterized by business dominated development projects not integrated into any grand urban design The author claims this outcome to be typical of the development of post socialist cities and presents it in an abstract model establishing links between particular historical background conditions and the phenomena of Budapest's recent urbanization With a conversation between Kees Christiaanse, Kósa Mór and the author State and Society in Post-Socialist Economies J. Pickles, 2008-01-17 State and Society in Post Socialist Economies focuses on the reform economies of post socialist Europe It looks at how various projects of communism that emerged in have been and are still being dismantled and recomposed by alternative visions institutions and practices of capitalist market economies and democratic polities Democratic Paths and Trends Barbara Wejnert, 2010-07-16 Presents the issues of democratic trends This title addresses worldwide changes and developments of democratization from historical and contemporary perspectives It also presents discourses on the diffusion of democracy paths of democratic transitions worldwide trends towards democratization as well as discussion about democracy in retreat

Conditioning Democratization Ridvan Peshkopia, 2014-04-15 This book analyzes the effects of European Union membership conditionality on institutional reforms in Eastern Europe building on concrete examples from four sectors in Albania and Macedonia two postcommunist countries that have yet to join the EU The author discusses the theory of consociational democracy often considered the key to stabilizing deeply divided countries and reapplies it on the international stage to argue for how the EU can better direct democratization Political Elites and Decentralization Reforms in the Post-Socialist Balkans Alexander Kleibrink, 2015-08-11 Across the globe more powers are being devolved to local and regional levels of government This book provides an innovative analysis of such decentralisation in transition states in the Balkans Using new and rich data it shows how political elites use decentralisation strategically to ensure their access to state resources Building a Trustworthy State in Post-Socialist Transition J. Kornai, 2015-12-25 Building a Trustworthy State in Post Socialist Transition considers the problems and prospects for creating trustworthy and reliable public institutions in the aftermath of the transition from socialism in Central and Eastern Europe The volume draws on the experience of those who have lived through and studied the transition and contrasts their insights with those of generalist scholars who study government accountability and democracy The contributions originated in the Collegium Budapest project on Honesty and Trust Theory and Experience in the Light of the Post Socialist Transition organized by János Kornai and Susan Rose Ackerman A second volume entitled Creating Social Trust in Post Socialist Transition is being published simultaneously The Making of Regions in Post-Socialist Europe — the Impact of Culture, Economic Structure and Institutions Melanie Tatur, 2012-12-06 The study combines the debate on regionalisation with transformation research It regards the formation of regional actors and institutions not primarily from the perspective of formal organisational structures but also a consequence of the macro political transformation regime and region specific opportunity structures These structures include economic restrictions historical legacies and cultural resources that are conveyed in present informal mechanisms personal networks discourses and development strategies The qualitative empirical approach offers a vivid picture of regional developments The two volumes cover Malopolska and Silesia Poland Hajdu Bihar County Hungary Timis County Romania and the Lviv and Donetsk regions Ukraine

Transforming Mozambique M. Anne Pitcher, 2002-11-14 Many of the economic transformations in Africa have been as dramatic as those in Eastern Europe Yet much of the comparative literature on transitions has overlooked African countries This 2002 study of Mozambique's shift from a command to a market economy draws on a wealth of empirical material including archival sources interviews political posters and corporate advertisements to reveal that the state is a central actor in the reform process despite the claims of neo liberals and their critics Alongside the state social forces from World Bank officials to rural smallholders have also accelerated thwarted or shaped change in Mozambique M Anne Pitcher offers an intriguing analysis of the dynamic interaction between previous and emerging agents ideas and institutions to explain the erosion of socialism and the politics of privatization in a developing country She demonstrates that Mozambique's political economy is a heterogeneous blend of ideological and institutional continuities and ruptures

Capitalist Diversity on Europe's Periphery Dorothee Bohle, Béla Greskovits, 2012-07-27 With the collapse of the Council for Mutual Economic Assistance in 1991 the Eastern European nations of the former socialist bloc had to figure out their newly capitalist future Capitalism they found was not a single set of political economic relations Rather they each had to decide what sort of capitalist nation to become In Capitalist Diversity on Europe's Periphery Dorothee Bohle and Béla Greskovits trace the form that capitalism took in each country the assets and liabilities left behind by socialism the transformational strategies embraced by political and technocratic elites and the influence of transnational actors and institutions They also evaluate the impact of three regional shocks the recession of the early 1990s the rolling global financial crisis that started in July 1997 and the political shocks that attended EU enlargement in 2004 Bohle and Greskovits show that the postsocialist states have established three basic variants of capitalist political economy neoliberal embedded neoliberal and neocorporatist The Baltic states followed a neoliberal prescription low controls on capital open markets reduced provisions for social welfare The larger states of central and eastern Europe Poland Hungary and the Czech and Slovak republics have used foreign investment to stimulate export industries but retained social welfare regimes and substantial government power to enforce industrial policy Slovenia has proved to be an outlier successfully mixing competitive industries and neocorporatist social inclusion Bohle and Greskovits also describe the political contention over such arrangements in Romania Bulgaria and Croatia A highly original and theoretically sophisticated typology of capitalism in postsocialist Europe this book is unique in the breadth and depth of its conceptually coherent and empirically rich comparative analysis

The Self-restraining State Andreas Schedler, Larry Jay Diamond, Marc F. Plattner, 1999 This text states that democratic governments must be accountable to the electorate but they must also be subject to restraint and oversight by other public agencies The state must control itself This text explores how new democracies can achieve this goal      How Russia Really Works Alena V. Ledeneva, 2014-01-15 During the Soviet era blat the use of personal networks for obtaining goods and services in short supply and for circumventing formal procedures was necessary to compensate for the inefficiencies of socialism The collapse of the Soviet Union produced a new generation of informal practices In How Russia Really Works Alena V Ledeneva explores practices in politics business media and the legal sphere in Russia in the 1990s from the hiring of firms to create negative publicity about one's competitors to inventing novel schemes of tax evasion and engaging in alternative techniques of contract and law enforcement Ledeneva discovers ingenuity wit and vigor in these activities and argues that they simultaneously support and subvert formal institutions They enable corporations the media politicians and businessmen to operate in the post Soviet labyrinth of legal and practical constraints but consistently undermine the spirit if not the letter of the law The know how Ledeneva describes in this book continues to operate today and is crucial to understanding contemporary Russia      Inventing the Needy Lynne Haney, 2002-06-03

Inventing the Needy offers a powerful innovative analysis of welfare policies and practices in Hungary from 1948 to the last decade of the twentieth century Using a compelling mix of archival interview and ethnographic data Lynne Haney shows that three distinct welfare regimes succeeded one another during that period and that they were based on divergent conceptions of need The welfare society of 1948-1968 targeted social institutions the maternalist welfare state of 1968-1985 targeted social groups and the liberal welfare state of 1985-1996 targeted impoverished individuals Because they reflected contrasting conceptions of gender and of state recognized identities these three regimes resulted in dramatically different lived experiences of welfare Haney's approach bridges the gaps in scholarship that frequently separate past and present ideology and reality and state policies and local practices A wealth of case histories gleaned from the archives of welfare institutions brings to life the interactions between caseworkers and clients and the ways they changed over time In one of her most provocative findings Haney argues that female clients' ability to use the state to protect themselves in everyday life diminished over the fifty year period As the welfare system moved away from linking entitlement to clients' social contributions and toward their material deprivation the welfare system and those associated with it became increasingly stigmatized and pathologized With its focus on shifting inventions of the needy this broad historical ethnography brings new insights to the study of welfare state theory and politics      The Handbook of COURAGE Apor, Balázs, Apor, Péter, Horváth, Sándor, 2018-11-27 The COURAGE Handbook ushers its reader into the world of the compellingly rich heritage of cultural opposition in Eastern Europe It is intended primarily to further a subtle understanding of the complex and multifaceted nature of cultural opposition and its legacy from the perspective of the various collections held in public institutions or by private individuals across the region Through its focus on material heritage the handbook provides new perspectives on the history of dissent and cultural non-conformism in the former socialist countries of Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe The volume is comprised of contributions by over 60 authors from a range of different academic and national backgrounds who share their insights into the topic It offers focused discussions from comparative and transnational perspectives of the key themes and prevailing forms of opposition in the region including non conformist art youth sub cultures intellectual dissent religious groups underground rock avantgarde theater exile traditionalism ethnic revivalism censorship and surveillance The handbook provides its reader with a concise synthesis of the existing scholarship and suggests new avenues for further research      Ruling Ideas Cornel Ban,2016 Why do some countries governed by moderate neoliberalism while others by a radical one Looking at Spain and Romania the book points to the role of local intellectual traditions the strength of international alternatives the resources of the local advocates of neoliberalism and their vulnerability to external coercion

Paths for Cuba Scott Morgenstern,Jorge Pérez-López,Jerome Branche,2019-02-02 The Cuban model of communism has been an inspiration from both a positive and negative perspective for social movements political leaders and cultural expressionists around the world With changes in leadership the pace of change has accelerated following decades of economic struggles The death of Fidel Castro and the reduced role of Ra l Castro seem likely to create further changes though what these changes look like is still unknown For now Cuba is opening in important ways Cubans can establish businesses travel abroad access the internet and make private purchases Paths for Cuba examines Cuba s internal reforms and external influences within a comparative framework The collection includes an interdisciplinary group of scholars from around the world to explore reforms away from communism      Mapping Vilnius. Transitions of Post-socialist Urban Spaces ,2016-12-01 Mapping Vilnius is the first book in a series promoting Critical Urbanism as a way of analyzing the changing relationships between citizens the state and the international context in shaping urban spaces in Central and Eastern Europe In this participatory research into two districts of the Lithuanian capital Vilnius mapping is used as a process oriented technique to visualize these relationships in transition It book was edited by the Laboratory of Critical Urbanism at the European Humanities University in Vilnius Among the authors are Felix Ackermann Vaiva Andriu yt Philip Boos Benjamin Cope Dalia iupalait Inga Freimane Elisa Gerbsch Tomas Grunskis Max Hellriegel Alina Jablonskaya Justas Juz nas Anu K gu Andrei Karpeka Yagmur Koreli Miodrag Ku Siarhei Liubimau Migl Pau ait Indre Ruseckait Tom Samec Aliaksandra Smirnova Kamil U palyt Gerda Vaitkevi i t Kotryna Valiukevi i t Clemens Weise Lennart Wiesiolek
