Poststructuralism And International Relations Bringing The Political Back In:

Poststructuralism & International Relations Jenny Edkins,1999 Offering an introduction to the major poststructuralist thinkers this text shows how Foucault Derrida Lacan and Zizek expose the depoliticization found in conventional international relations theory poststructuralists are concerned with the big questions of international politics it is precisely their work that analyzes the political and explains the processes of depoliticization and technologization

Poststructuralism and International Relations Jenny Edkins,1999 Offering a sophisticated introduction to the major post structuralist thinkers this book shows how Foucault Derrida Lacan and i ek expose the depoliticization found in conventional international relations theory Edkins argues that contrary to the opinions of their detractors the poststructuralists are concerned with the big questions of international politics it is precisely their work that analyzes the political and explains the processes of depoliticization and technologization Paying particular attention to notions of the subject and subjectivity in relation to the political and to the relationship between ideology and social reality Edkins explores in short why Foucault and others matter for international relations Whose Hunger? Jenny Edkins,2000 We see famine and look for the likely causes poor food distribution unstable regimes caprices of weather A technical problem we tell ourselves one that modern social and natural science will someday resolve To the contrary Jenny Edkins responds in this book Famine in the contemporary world is not the antithesis of modernity but its symptom A critical investigation of hunger famine and aid practices in international politics Whose Hunger shows how the forms and ideas of modernity frame our understanding of famine and consequently shape our responses

International Political Economy and Poststructural Politics Marieke De Goede,2006-03-14 This edited volume brings together leading scholars to debate the promises of poststructural politics within the study of the International Political Economy IPE The volume offers a sustained theoretical dialogue on the meaning of discourse identity and representation for practices of political economy Politics and Post-Structuralism

Alan Finlayson,2019-07-29 No detailed description available for Politics and Post Structuralism Iraqi Kurdistan, the PKK and International Relations Hannes Černý,2017-07-28 Due to its primacy in explaining issues of war and peace in the international arena the discipline of International Relations IR looms large in analyses of and responses to ethnic conflict in academia politics and popular media in particular with respect to contemporary conflicts in the Middle East Grounded in constitutive theory this book challenges how ethnic ethno nationalist conflict is represented in explanatory IR by deconstructing its most prominent state centric models frameworks and analytical concepts As much a critique of contemporary scholarship on Kurdish ethno nationalism as a detailed analysis of the most prominent Kurdish ethno nationalist actors the book provides the first in depth investigation into the relations between the PKK and the main Iraqi Kurdish political parties from the 1980s to the present It situates this inquiry within the wider context of the ambiguous political status of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq its relations with Turkey and the role Kurdish parties and insurgencies play in the war against ISIS in Iraq and Syria Appreciating these complex dynamics and how they are portrayed in Western scholarship is essential for understanding current developments in the Iraqi and Syrian theatres of war and for making sense of discussions about a potential independent Kurdish state to emerge in Iraq Iraqi Kurdistan provides a comprehensive and critical discussion of the state centric and essentialising epistemologies ontologies and methodologies of the three main paradigms of explanatory IR as well as their analytical models and frameworks on ethnic identity and conflict in the Middle East and beyond It will therefore be a valuable resource for anyone studying ethnicity and nationalism International Relations or Middle East Politics 'The Politics' and 'The Political' of the Eastern Partnership Initiative Elena

Korosteleva,Igor Merheim-Eyre,Eske Van Gils,2019-10-23 The Special Issue consolidates new approaches to the study of the EU s role in the eastern neighbourhood and beyond informed by post structuralist traditions in international relations More specifically by revisiting the European Neighbourhood Policy s agenda from the conceptual perspective of the political and redefining the notions of othering differentiation and normalisation this volume renders a new and much needed theoretical and empirical outlook onto the policy developments and their practices By unpacking and connecting security regional institutional normative and sector thematic policy dimensions the book seeks to re politicise the agenda and re focus policy revision on understanding the fundamentals of power relations when applied to the EU external relations In light of the compounding crises external and internal one can no longer afford to simply tinker around the edges of the policy content and instruments A more radical theoretical undertaking is overdue to re shape re define and re centre the EU relations with the eastern region especially put in the context of the new EU s Global Security Strategy and the new aspirations for the 2017 European Neighbourhood summit The chapters originally published as a special issue in East European Politics

Lacan, Deleuze and World Politics Andreja Zevnik,2016-02-26 This book aims to re think the way in which the subject is inscribed in the modern political and does so by exploring the potentiality of Lacano Deleuzian theoretical framework It concerns a different ontology and a non dualist understanding of political and legal existence by focusing on questions such as how to think alternative notions of political existence and what kind of political social and legal order do these come to create This investigation into political appearance of subjects through concepts of law body and life is led and influenced by the thought of Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Lacan as well as Alain Badiou Antonio Negri and Slavoj i ek The book takes on various conceptualisations of life explores the relationship between law and life and develops an alternative notion of legal and political existence in particular in the context of rights On the back of Guant namo s legal and political discourses this work aims to show why and how the problems of world politics or the limitations of human rights discourse require an engagement with questions such as what it means to exist as a human being what forms of life are politically recognised which are not and why this distinction By pointing to a different ontology for thinking and understanding global politics and demonstrating how a trans disciplinary and philosophical approaches can foster the debates in world politics this book will be of interest to postgraduates and scholars working on critical normative ideas in international politics critical security studies and critical legal studies Ethics and World Politics Duncan Bell, 2010-03-25 The book opens with a discussion of different methods and approaches employed to study the subject including analytical political theory post structuralism and critical theory It then surveys some of the most prominent perspectives on global ethics including cosmopolitanism communitarianism of various kinds theories of international society realism postcolonialism feminism and green political thought Part III examines a variety of more specific issues including immigration democracy human rights the just war tradition and its critics international law and global poverty and inequality Publisher description Hybrid Sovereignty in the Arab Middle East G. Global Capitalism, Global War, Global Crisis Andreas Bieler, Adam David Morton, 2018-05-17 This book assesses the forces of social struggle shaping the past and present of the global political economy from the perspective of historical materialism Based on the philosophy of internal relations the character of capital is understood in such a way that the ties between the relations of production state civil society and conditions of class struggle can be realised By conceiving the internal relationship of global capitalism global war global crisis as a struggle driven process the book provides a novel intervention on debates within theories of the international Through a set of conceptual reflections on agency structure and the role of discourses embedded in the economy class struggle is established as our point of departure This involves analysing historical and contemporary themes on the expansion of capitalism through uneven and combined development the role of the state and geopolitics and conditions of exploitation and resistance These conceptual reflections and thematic considerations are then extended in a series of empirical interventions including a focus on the rising powers of the BRICS conditions of the new imperialism and the ongoing financial crisis The book delivers a radically open ended dialectical consideration of ruptures of resistance within the global political economy US Taiwan Policy Øystein Tunsjø, 2008-02-18 The relationship between the United States and China is one of the most important issues in the twenty first century and is ultimately hostage to conditions across the Taiwan Strait This book is the first to attempt to trace the historical origin of what is known as the Taiwan issue in US China relations from a constructivist perspective based on detailed archival research The analysis used supplements the mainstream rationalist approach by developing a new theoretical perspective on US Taiwan policy that incorporates constructivism s emphasis on identity norms and discourse analysis Scholars have never previously developed or elaborated upon this approach to any significant extent The book re examines the protection of Taiwan by military means following the outbreak of the Korean War and the establishment of the one China policy in relation to the process of rapprochement during President Nixon s first term in office It also considers the contemporary challenges posed to the one China policy by the increased importance of promoting human rights and democracy in US foreign policy arguing that the current US China policy is guided by a new strategy based on engagement plus hedging

The Killing of Cambodia: Geography, Genocide and the Unmaking of Space James A. Tyner, 2017-05-15 Between 1975 and 1978 the Khmer Rouge carried out genocide in Cambodia unparalleled in modern history Approximately 2 million died almost one quarter of the population Taking an explicitly geographical approach this book argues whether the Khmer Rouge s activities not only led to genocide but also terraced the erasure of space In the Cambodia of 1975 the landscape would reveal vestiges of an indigenous pre colonial Khmer society a French colonialism and American intervention The Khmer Rouge however were not content with retaining the past inscriptions of previous modes of production and spatial practices Instead they attempted to erase time and space to create their own utopian vision of a communal society The Khmer Rouge s erasing and reshaping of space was thus part of a consistent sacrifice of Cambodia and its people a brutal justification for the killing of a country and the birth of a new place Democratic Kampuchea While focusing on Cambodia the book provides a clearer geographic understanding to genocide in general and insights into the importance of spatial factors in geopolitical conflict

Ethical Security Studies Jonna Nyman, Anthony Burke, 2016-03-02 At a time of grave ethical failure in global security affairs this is the first book to bring together emerging theoretical debates on ethics and ethical reasoning within security studies In this volume working from a diverse range of perspectives poststructuralism liberalism feminism just war securitization and critical theory leading scholars in the field of security studies consider the potential for ethical visions of security and lay the ground for a new field ethical security studies These ethical visions of security engage directly with the meaning and value of security and security practice and consider four key questions Who or what should be secured What are the fundamental grounds and commitments of different security ethics Who or what are the most legitimate agents providers or speakers of security What do ethical security practices look like What ethical principles arguments or procedures will generate and guide ethical security practices Informed by a rich understanding of the intellectual and historical experience of security the contributors advance innovative methodological analytical political and ethical arguments that represent the cutting edge of the field This book opens a new phase of collaboration and growth that promises to have great benefits for the more humane effective and ethical practice of security politics This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies ethics philosophy and international relations

Constructing Sovereignty Between Politics and Law Tanja E. Aalberts, 2012 This book explores the interplay between sovereignty politics and law through different conceptualizations of sovereignty Despite developments such as European integration globalization and state failure sovereignty proves to be a resilient institution in contemporary international politics This book investigates both the continuity and change of sovereignty through an examination of the different ways it is understood sovereignty as an institution as identity as a language game and as subjectivity In this illuminating book Aalberts examines sovereign statehood as a political legal concept an institutional product of modern international society and seeks an interdisciplinary approach that combines international relations and international law This book traces the consequences of this origin for the conceptualization of sovereign statehood in modern academic discourse drawing on key jurisprudence and international treaties and provides a new framework to consider the international significance of sovereignty As an innovative approach to a critical institution Constructing Sovereignty between Politics and Law will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations international relations theory and international law

The Eurasian Project in Global Perspective David Lane, 2018-10-18 Regional associations have become major players in international politics and economics The Eurasian Economic Union EEU composed of Russia Kazakhstan Belarus Armenia and Kyrgyzstan is considered as a player which will strengthen the international influence and international trade of the post socialist countries It is intended to become a parallel association to the European Union This comprehensive volume considers the potential global role of the EEU A major problem outlined is the balancing of relations between the EU and the West on the one hand and China and the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation on the other The book explores the impact of the global crisis as well as a consideration of the EEU in the world system of states It also examines the EEU s relationship with other regional developments in relation to the EU and to the outer circle of post socialist states that joined neither the EU nor the EEU It concludes by considering Eurasia in the Asian context looking at the two central Asian countries Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan relations with China and the relationship between the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation SCO and the EEU This book was originally published as a special issue of European Politics and Society The Concept of the Political Hans J. Morgenthau, 2012-03-06 A growing interest in the oeuvre of Hans J Morgenthau and in re readings of classical realism increases the significance of his European pre emigration writings in order to understand the work of one of the founding figures of IR This book is the first English translation of Morgenthau s French monograph La notion du politique from 1933 translated by Maeva Vidal
