a fish Fly fishing historian Mark Kurlansky has found is a battle of wits fly fisher vs fish and the fly fisher does not always or often win The targets salmon trout and char and for some bass tarpon tuna bonefish and even marlin are highly intelligent athletic animals The allure Kurlansky learns is that fly fishing makes catching a fish as difficult as possible The flies can be beautiful and intricate some made with over two dozen pieces of feather and fur the cast is a matter of grace and rhythm with different casts and rods yielding varying results Kurlansky is known for his deep dives into specific subjects from cod to oysters to salt But he spent his boyhood days on the shore of a shallow pond Here where tiny fish weaved under a rocky waterfall he first tied string to a branch dangled a worm into the water and unleashed his passion for fishing Since then his love of the sport has led him around the world s countries coasts and rivers from the wilds of Alaska to Basque country from Ireland and Norway to Russia and Japan And in true Kurlansky fashion he absorbed every fact detail and anecdote along the way The Unreasonable Virtue of Fly Fishing marries Kurlansky s signature wide ranging reach with a subject that has captivated him for a lifetime combining history craft and personal memoir to show readers devotees of the sport or not the necessity of experiencing nature s balm first hand
