Poverty In Burkina Faso Uppsala University Research In Cultural Anthropology Series Representations And Realities:

Poverty in Burkina Faso Sten Hagberg, 2001 A study that highlights the importance of addressing representations and realities of poverty in socially and culturally specific contexts situations and relations Historical Dictionary of Burkina Faso Lawrence Rupley, Lamissa Bangali, Boureima Diamitani, 2013 Burkina Faso known as Upper Volta until its independence from France in 1960 and locally called the land of the upright people is a medium sized land locked country with no less than six neighbors some of which periodically get into trouble which makes it reasonably strategic in some ways While it has not done as poorly as some other African states its economic has certainly not prospered and many Burkinabe go abroad to earn a living As for politics it is another case of stability without democracy even if there are periodic elections Still this is better than not even having stability This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Burkina Faso covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay maps appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1000 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Burkina Faso Domesticating

Vigilantism in Africa Thomas G. Kirsch, Tilo Grätz, 2010 An unprecedented overview of anthropological and political science research on vigilantism in Africa which makes an important and innovative contribution to current discussions on the relationship between violent self justice and state and non state agencies Self justice and legal self help groups have been gaining importance throughout Africa The question of who is entitled to formulate legal principles enact justice police morality and sanction wrongdoings has increasingly become a subject of controversy and conflict These conflicts focus on the strained relationship between state sovereignty and citizens self determination More particularly they concern the conditions modes and means of the legitimate execution of power and in this volume are seen as a diagnostics as to how social actors in Africa debate and practise socio political order State agencies try to bring vigilante groups under control by channelling their activities repressing them or using them for their own interests Vigilante groups usually must struggle for recognition and acceptance in local socio political spheres As several of the contributions in the volume show legal self help groups in Africa therefore domesticate themselves by among other things seeking legitimation engaging in publicly acceptable non vigilante activities or institutionalizing what often began as a rather unrestrained and disorderly social movement Thomas G Kirsch is Professor Tilo Grätz is Senior Research Fellow at the University of Hamburg Germany Associate Lecturer at the University of Halle Wittenberg African Sociological Review , 2002 Conflicts Over Land & Water in Africa William Derman, Rie Odgaard, Espen Sjaastad, 2007 This is an examination of the broader context for the re emergence of land reform and resource conflicts in Africa Efforts to change the race based systems of land ownership and land tenure in Namibia South Africa and Zimbabwe have pushed land issues to the forefront of social and economic discourses in Africa This collection examines the broader context for the re emergence of land reform and resource conflicts Mande Studies , 2006 Africa
