Poverty and Social Inequality in Wales Gareth Rees, Teresa L. Rees, 2023-03-31 Originally published in 1980 this book presents a detailed empirical analysis of the key dimensions of inequality and poverty in Wales discussing such aspects as the distribution of income and wealth the housing situation the functioning of the NHS and urban deprivation Wales emerges as a country severely disadvantaged in relation to much of the rest of Britain Moreover the extent of inequalities within Wales is also striking In the second part of the book each contributor applies a particular theoretical perspective to an aspect of the situation discussed in the first part The perspectives adopted are diverse ranging from Keynesianism through dual labour markets to dependency theory and Marxist analysis Each essay emphasises the importance of locating our understanding of poverty and social inequality in the context of the patterns of economic development in Wales and in the functioning of the State apparatus

The Crisis of the Meritocracy Peter Mandler, 2020-09-11 Before the Second World War only about 20% of the population went to secondary school and barely 2% to university today everyone goes to secondary school and half of all young people go to university How did we get here from there The Crisis of the Meritocracy answers this question not by looking to politicians and educational reforms but to the revolution in attitudes and expectations amongst the post war British public the rights guaranteed by the welfare state the hope of a better life for one's children widespread upward mobility from manual to non manual occupations confidence in the importance of education in a learning society and a knowledge economy As a result of these transformations meritocracy the idea that a few should be selected to succeed has been challenged by democracy and its wider understandings of equal opportunity across the life course At a time when doubts have arisen about whether we need so many students and amidst calls for a return to grammar school selection at 11 the tension between meritocracy and democracy remains vital to understanding why our grandparents our parents ourselves and our children have sought and got more and more education and to what end
