Dancing with the River Kuntala Lahiri-Dutt, Gopa Samanta, 2013-06-25 DIV An intimate glimpse into the microcosmic world of hybrid landscapes and their inhabitants div Democracy in Desperation Douglas Steeples, David O. Whitten, 1998-09-24 The Panic of 1893 and the depression it triggered mark one of the decisive crises in American history Devastating broad sections of the country like a tidal wave the depression forced the nation to change its way of life and altered the pattern and pace of national development ever after The depression served as the setting for the transformation from an agricultural to an industrial society exposed grave economic and social problems sharply tested the country's resourcefulness reshaped popular thought and changed the direction of foreign policy It was a crucible in which the elements of the modern United States were clarified and refined Yet no study to date has examined the depression in its entirety This is the first book to treat these disparate matters in detail and to trace and interpret the business contraction of the 1890s in the context of national economic political and social development Steeples and Whitten first explain the origins of the depression measure its course and interpret the business recovery giving full coverage to structural changes in the economy namely the growing importance of manufacturing emergence of new industries consolidation of business and increasing importance of finance capitalism The remainder of the book examines the depression's impact on society discussing for example unemployment birth rate health and education and on American culture politics and international relations Placing the business collapse at the center of the scene the book shows how the depression was a catalyst for ushering in a more modern America Handbook of Research on Nascent Entrepreneurship and Creating New Ventures Carrizo Moreira, António,Dantas, José Guilherme Leitão,2020-10-09 Due to the 2008 2009 crisis the United Nations 2030 agenda for sustainable development and the COVID 19 pandemic the role of entrepreneurship has become more critical in most economies Moreover emerging protectionist policies are further encouraging the emergence of new entrepreneurial projects particularly to replace goods and services traditionally provided by other countries Understanding current challenges and best practices in nascent entrepreneurship is integral for the successful launching of new ventures to support the revitalization of economies and achieve sustainability The Handbook of Research on Nascent Entrepreneurship and Creating New Ventures is a crucial reference source that covers the latest empirical research findings in the field of entrepreneurship and addresses the obstacles entrepreneurs face in these recent challenging times The book embraces a pluralistic perspective from academicians currently navigating nascent entrepreneurship and key concepts for launching successful new ventures Covering topics that include government support programs spin off companies leadership strategic entrepreneurship and crowdfunding this book is targeted towards entrepreneurs professionals academicians researchers and students

The Causes of the 1929 Stock Market Crash Harold Bierman Jr.,1998-04-16 Attempting to reveal the real causes of the 1929 stock market crash Bierman refutes the popular belief that wild speculation had excessively driven up stock market prices and resulted in the crash Although he acknowledges some prices of stocks such as utilities and banks were overpriced reasonable explanations exist for the level and increase of all other securities stock prices Indeed if stocks were overpriced in 1929 then they were even more overpriced in the current era of staggering growth in stock prices and investment in securities The causes of the 1929 crash Bierman argues lie in an unfavorable decision by the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities coupled with the popular practice known as debt leverage in the 1920s corporate and investment arena This book extends Bierman's argument in an earlier book The Great Myths of 1929 and the Lessons to Be Learned Greenwood 1991 in which he discussed and refuted seven myths about 1929 but could not explain the crash He now believes he has a reasonable explanation He also examines the actions of Charles E Mitchell and Sam Insull and their subsequent unjust criminal prosecution after the crash of the 1929 stock market

Adoption of agricultural innovations by smallholder farmers in the context of HIV/AIDS Faith N. Nguthi,2023-08-28 Using tissue cultured technology is a potentially important way for smallholder banana farmers to improve their yields and income In the situation of the impoverishing effects of high HIV AIDS prevalence in a rural banana farming community this applies even more The research documented in this book examines the balance between required inputs and potential benefits of applying the tissue cultured technology among HIV AIDS affected and non affected households in Maragua district Central Kenya using a livelihood approach The results show that adoption of the technology and its continued use differs according to the resources endowment of the farming households Lack of financial and physical capital notably a water tank inhibits adoption irrespective of HIV AIDS status However households headed by elderly females dominate among the poor households and the HIV AIDS affected households This illustrates how HIV AIDS interfaces with poverty and thereby indirectly with the feasibility of sustainable technology adoption The research also shows that livelihood decisions and strategies of farming households are influenced by land tenure status having title deeds or not and labour constraints at the household level The latter arise as a consequence of HIV AIDS related morbidity and mortality
