Poverty Of Postmodernism:

The Poverty of Postmodernism John O'Neill, 1995

Postmodernism and The Other Ziauddin Sardar, 1998

Postmodernism has often been presented as a new theory of liberation that promotes pluralism and gives representation to the marginalised peoples of the non west and other cultures In this major assessment of postmodernism from a non western perspective Ziauddin Sardar offers a radical critique of this view Covering the salient spheres of postmodernism from architecture film television and pop music to philosophy consumer lifestyles and new age religions Sardar reveals that postmodernism in fact operates to further marginalise the reality of the non west and confound its aspirations By tracing postmodernism s roots in colonialism and modernity Sardar demonstrates that the dominant contemporary intellectual fashion peddling an insidiously oppressive and subtle revisionism is the most comprehensive onslaught on the non west ever experienced In stern retort the author offers ways in which the peoples of the non west can counter the postmodern assault and survive with their identities histories and cultures intact

Postmodernity and the Fragmentation of Welfare John Carter, 2012-10-12 Postmodern ideas have been vastly influential in the social sciences and beyond However their impact on the study of social policy has been minimal Postmodernity and the Fragmentation of Welfare analyses the potential for a postmodern or cultural turn in welfare as it treats postmodernity as an evolving canon from the seminal works of Baudrillard Foucault and Lyotard through to recent theories of the risk society Already disorientated by globalisation new technologies and the years of new right ascendancy welfare faces a significant challenge in the postmodern It suggests that rather than universality and state provision the new social policy will be consumerised and fragmented a welfare state of ambivalence With contributions from authors coming from a variety of fields offering very different perspectives on postmodernity and welfare Postmodernity and the Fragmentation of Welfare also keeps social policy s intellectual inheritance in view By exploring ways in which theorisations of postmodernity might improve understanding of welfare issues in the 1990s and assessing the relevance of theories of diversity and difference to mainstream and critical social policy traditions this book will be an essential text for all students of social policy social administration social work and sociology

Modern/Postmodern Peter V. Zima, 2010-08-05 Modern Postmodern Society Philosophy Literature offers new definitions of modernism and postmodernism by presenting an original theoretical system of thought that explains the differences between these two key movements Taking a contrastive approach Peter V Zima identifies three key concepts in the relationship between modernism and postmodernism ambiguity ambivalence and indifference Zima defines modernism and postmodernism as problematics as opposed to aesthetics stylistics or ideologies Unlike modernism which is grounded in an increasing ambivalence towards social norms and values postmodernity is presented as an era of indifference i e of interchangeable norms values and perspectives Taking an historical interdisciplinary and intercultural approach that engages with Anglo American and European debates the book describes the transition from late modernist ambivalence to postmodern indifference in the contexts of philosophy literature and sociology This is the ideal guide to the relationship between modernism and postmodernism for students and scholars throughout the humanities New Poverty David Cheal, 1996-06-30 Cheal argues that the sociology of poverty has entered a new postmodern phase The new poverty is about loss of faith in relationships that were once believed to last a lifetime and in government programs that we used to think would last for generations The new poverty is about the economic fall of individuals and countries who used to be affluent and who once dreamed that their affluence would go on forever It is about the experience of free falling without a parachute and without much of a safety net The new poverty is about people who lose their jobs when their company downsizes It is about people whose hours of employment are cut in half when the work runs out And it is about couples who separate thereby plunging one of them and probably their children into a low income level that they had never anticipated What is new about the new poverty is the sense of surprise that poverty can hit so suddenly that people can fall so far before they are caught and lifted up that the poverty of children still troubles us after a century of progress The new poverty is about our loss of faith not only in relationships that were once thought to last a lifetime but also in government programs that we believed would last for generations Cheal translates the experience of the new poverty into sociological theory and into social statistics His purpose is to provoke serious critical reflection about families today and the risks of being poor An important study for scholars and researchers involved with family issues and social policy The Postmodernism Debate in Latin America John Beverley, Michael Aronna, José Oviedo, 1995-05-05 Postmodernism may seem a particularly inappropriate term when used in conjunction with a region that is usually thought of as having only recently and then unevenly acceded to modernity Yet in the last several years the concept has risen to the top of the agenda of cultural and political debate in Latin America This collection explores the Latin American engagement with postmodernism less to present a regional variant of the concept than to situate it in a transnational framework Recognizing that postmodernism in Latin America can only inaccurately be thought of as having traveled from an advanced capitalist center to arrive at a still dependent neocolonial periphery the contributors share the assumption that postmodernism is itself about the dynamics of interaction between local and metropolitan cultures in a global system in which the center periphery model has begun to break down These essays examine the ways in which postmodernism not only designates the effects of this transnationalism in Latin America but also registers the cultural and political impact on an increasingly simultaneous global culture of a Latin America struggling with its own set of postcolonial contingencies particularly the crisis of its political left the dominance of neoliberal economic models and the new challenges and possibilities opened by democratization With new essays on the dynamics of Brazilian culture the relationship between postmodernism and Latin American feminism postmodernism and imperialism and the implications of postmodernist theory for social policy as well as the text of the Declaration from the Lacandon Jungle of the Zapatista National Liberation Army this expanded edition of boundary 2 will interest not only Latin Americanists but scholars in all disciplines concerned with theories of the postmodern Contributors Xavier Albó, José Joaquín Bruner, Fernando Calderón, Enrique Dussel, Néstor García Canclini, Martin Hopenhayn, Neil Larsen, the Latin American Subaltern Studies Group, Norbert Lechner, María Milagros López Raquel Olea, Anibal Quijano, Nelly Richard, Carlos Rincón, Silviano Santiago, Beatriz Sarlo, Roberto Schwarz and Hernán Vidal Teaching Art in a Postmodern World Lee Emery, 2002 Collection of essays by Australian and English art educators discussing the transition from modernist to postmodernist art education Teachers reflect on changes in their own teaching and discuss how they introduce students to contemporary art and plan a curriculum Includes photos and references Simultaneously published in PDF and paperback formats Editor is Associate Professor in arts education at the University of Melbourne and is an honorary life member of the Australian Institute for Art Education
