

"This is one hell of a fast read! A story that grabs the reader from the opening page and carries him through a densely textured, fast-paced world of an explosive crime." THE WIRE

"Powder Burn is a work of absolutely persuasive authority." ROBERT D. PARKER

"Powder Burn is a crack-pot yarn well told." LARRY KING

Reminiscent of the best of John D. MacDonald, Powder Burn is a stunning novel of murder and violence set against the background of the Florida drug trade.

Southwest Florida is the home of tons of billions of dollars of cocaine money every year, easy money—and bloody money. Not a week goes by without a drug-related killing—and sometimes innocent people are caught in the crossfire.

When Chris Meadows witnesses the senseless death of an old friend and his young daughter in a chase between local Cuban and Colombian drug gangs, he himself becomes a target, hunted by the gangs, slugged as fast by the police. Caught in the middle, determined for revenge, yet literally running for his life, Meadows is forced to undergo a crash course in survival as he submerges himself in the hair-trigger world of the cocaine cowboys.

There, with the help of two friends, he devises an intricate and desperate plan. If it succeeds, it will strike at the heart of the drug traffic. If it fails, these friends will be found floating on the burning tide in Mexican Bay.

Written with penetrating authority drawn from the author's reporting experience, filled with smart, sharp characters and unerring suspense, Powder Burn marks the debut of an eminently exciting new writer.
