Power And Identity In The Creative Writing Classroom The Authority Project:

Power and Identity in the Creative Writing Classroom Anna Leahy, 2005-11-11 Power and Identity In the Creative Writing Classroom remaps theories and practices for teaching creative writing at university and college level This collection critiques well established approaches for teaching creative writing in all genres and builds a comprehensive and adaptable pedagogy based on issues of authority power and identity A long needed reflection this book shapes creative writing pedagogy for the 21st century

Writing Intersectional Identities Janelle Adsit, Renée M. Byrd, 2019-09-19 Is it okay to write about people of other genders races and identities And how do I do this responsibly Whether you are working in fiction poetry drama or creative non fiction becoming conscious of how you represent people of different social identities is one of the most important responsibilities you have as a writer This is the first practical guide to thinking and writing reflectively about these issues Organised in an easy to use A to Z format for practicing writers teachers and students Writing Intersectional Identities covers such key terms as Appropriation Authenticity Body Class Counternarrative Disability Essentialism Gender Indigenous Power Privilege Representation The book is meant for writers of fiction poetry screenplays and creative non fiction who are seeking to develop a writing practice that is attentive to the world The book is supported by a companion website at www.criticalcreativewriting.org

Naming the Unnamable Tom Dobson, 2014-05-05 Reflecting upon his own prior experiences as Writer PhD Student embarks on an ethnographic research project which seeks to explain the relationship between Boys creative writing and identity A view of identity as performance is adopted a main cast of year 6 Boys is assembled and the stage of the year 6 primary classroom and the secondary school is set Undertaking participant observation PhD Student sends his reflections as emails to PhD Supervisor but as their dialogue takes hold questions relating to the problematic nature of research and representation proliferate Which identity is PhD Student performing in the classroom himself Mr Dobson Writer or Tom Is self reflexivity enough To what extent can the Boys identities ever be known Rather than silencing these problems PhD Student looks for a form of writing which lays bare the messiness of research He rejects the linearity of the traditional form and writes his thesis as a self conscious fiction a dialogue on a train between himself a post structuralist academic and You a humanist non academic As PhD Student s data is analysed critiqued and deconstructed from both essentialist and interpretivist perspectives the impossibility of objective representation is explored Within its own frame of reference PhD Student s analysis of the Boys writing offers a theoretical framework for thinking about creative writing in terms of identity and agency However the thesis script itself is primarily a methodological critique one that shows that no matter what is written on pages between the words between the letters there will always be the Unnamable
