Power And Its Disguises Anthropology Culture And Society Series:

Power and Its Disguises John Gledhill, 2000-07-20 This book explores both the complexities of local situations and the power relations that shape the global order He shows how historically informed anthropological perspectives can contribute to debates about democratisation by incorporating a view from below and revealing forces that shape power relations behind the formal facade of state institutions Examples are drawn from Brazil Cameroon Democratic Republic of Congo Guatemala Indonesia India Mexico Peru Sierra Leone South Africa and Sri Lanka amongst others Power And Its Disguises - Second Edition John Gledhill, 2000-07-20 In this fully updated edition of Power and Its Disguises John Gledhill explores both the complexities of local situations and the power relations that shape the global order He shows how historically informed anthropological perspectives can contribute to debates about democratisation by incorporating a view from below and revealing forces that shape power relations behind the formal facade of state institutions Examples are drawn from Brazil Cameroon Democratic Republic of Congo Guatemala Indonesia India Mexico Peru Sierra Leone South Africa and Sri Lanka amongst others Anthropology and Cultural Studies Stephen Nugent, Cris Shore, 1997-10-20 The contributors chart a new agenda for anthropology in an increasingly shared terrain of globally interacting cultures and identities

Anthropological Perspectives On Kinship Ladislav Holy, 1996-10-20 This authoritative introductory text takes into account the changes in the conceptualisation of kinship brought about by new reproductive technologies and the growing interest in culturally specific notions of personhood and gender Holy considers the extent to which Western assumptions have guided anthropological study of kinship in the past In the process he reveals a growing sensitivity on the part of anthropologists to individual ideas of personhood and gender and encourages further critical reflection on cultural bias in approaches to the subject Women of a Lesser Cost Sylvia Chant, Cathy McIlwaine, 1995-07-20 A n accessible introduction to models and theories of human nature and how they inform our professional practice Professional Social Work

Anthropology, Art and Cultural Production Maruska Svasek, 2007-02-20 This book provides an introduction to anthropological perspectives on art Svasek defines art as a social process We study not only the artefacts themselves and the values attributed to them but also the process of production and its wider context Providing a critical overview of various anthropological theories of art Svasek offers a new perspective which centres on the analysis of commoditisation aestheticisation and object agency She explores the process of collecting and exhibiting art works and how this relates to art s production distribution and consumption in an increasingly global market The book outlines the significance of art and aesthetics in everyday life and examines the shifting boundaries between art and other categories such as kitsch souvenirs propaganda and pornography Finally Svasek argues for an anthropological perspective that links the production and consumption of artefacts to political religious and other cultural processes Ideal as a teaching text this book gives a detailed overview of themes that are central to the fields of art history art sociology and cultural studies The Postcolonial Biblical Reader R. S.

Sugirtharajah, 2008-04-15 This wide ranging Reader provides a comprehensive survey of the interaction between postcolonial criticism and biblical studies Examines how various empires such as the Persian and Roman affected biblical narratives Demonstrates how different biblical writers such as Paul Matthew and Mark handled the challenges of empire Includes examples of the practical application of postcolonial criticism to biblical texts Considers contemporary issues such as diaspora race representation and territory Editorial commentary draws out the key points to be made and creates a coherent narrative The War of Dreams Marc Auge, 1999-06-20 Continues Aug's critical exploration of contemporary modernity with an examination of the role of dreams myth and fiction in the age of satellite TV and the Internet Anthropology,

Development and the Post-Modern Challenge Katy Gardner, David Lewis, 1996-05-20 A well crafted sensitive reflective and constructive book It is highly recommended Development Policy Review Land, Law and Environment Allen Abramson, Dimitrios Theodossopoulos, 2000-11-20 In ten essays anthropologists mostly focus more on the practical rather than cultural and ideological issues of postcolonial legacies in land law contemporary claims on ancestral lands and conservation issues from Australia to West Africa Abramson is with U College London Theodossopoulos is at the U of Wales Lampeter The book is distributed by Stylus Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Ethnic Distinctions, Local Meanings Mary Rack, 2005-03-20 This innovative book explores the way Western anthropologists use studies of ethnicity to interpret local cultures Mary Rack raises critical issues about ethnic classifications and the way they are used making this a book that will be useful for all students of ethnicity Overturning the generalising tendencies characteristic of classic anthropology Rack demonstrates that ethnic classifications have little to do with the self perceptions of those concerned and everything to do with political and intellectual elites Focusing on a rural area of south China Rack shows how so called ethnic minority cultural events have become occasions for the exploration of personal identity by urban elites She suggests that historically ethnic classifications were drawn up as a result of elite concern to demonstrate the existence of a contrasting homogeneous and superior civilisation This study sheds new light on the ways in which Western anthropologists handle ethnicity and ethnic difference more generally Identity and Affect John R. Campbell, Alan Rew, 1999-02-20 A rethinking of popular political movements this book looks at new emerging mass visions and analyses their impact and potential in new ways On the Game Sophie Day, 2007-06-20 Winner of the Eileen Basker Prize and the Wellcome Medal for Anthropology as Applied to Medical Problems On the Game is an ethnographic account of prostitutes and prostitution Sophie Day has followed the lives of individual women over fifteen years and her book details their attempts to manage their lives against a backdrop of social disapproval The period was one of substantial change within the sex industry Through the lens of public health economics criminalisation and human rights Day explores how individual sex workers live in public and in private This offers a unique perspective on contemporary capitalist society that will be of interest both to a broad range of social scientists The author brings a unique perspective to her work as both an anthropologist and the founder of the renowned Praed Street Project set up in 1986 as a referral and support centre for London prostitutes New Directions in Economic Anthropology Susana Narotzky, 1997-04-20 Using an historical perspective Narotzky highlights the interdependent nature of the contemporary world economy and includes case studies of Western societies She gives special emphasis to current issues such as the anthropology of work the informal economy and the cultures of industrialisation

State Formation Christian Krohn-Hansen, Knut G. Nustad, 2005-09-20 What is the state and how can we best study it This book investigates new ways of analysing the state The contributors argue that the state is not a fixed and definite object Our perceptions of it are constantly changing and differ from person to person What is your idea of the state if you are a refugee Or if you are living in post apartheid South Africa Our perceptions are formed and sustained by evolving discourses and techniques these come from institutions such as government but are also made by communities and individuals The contributors examine how state structures are viewed from the inside by official state bodies composed of bureaucrats and politicians and how these state manifestations are supported reproduced or transformed at a local level An outline of theoretical approaches is followed by nine case studies ranging from South Africa to Peru to Norway With a good range of contributors including Cris Shore Clifton Crais Ana Alonso and Bruce Kapferer this is a comprehensive critical analysis of anthropological approaches to the study of state formation Grassroots Politics and Oil Culture in Venezuela Iselin

Åsedotter Strønen, 2017-09-01 This book is published open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This book presents an ethnographic study of how grassroots activism in Venezuela during the Chávez presidency can be understood in relation to the country's history as a petro state Taking the contested relationship between the popular sectors and the Venezuelan state as a point of departure Iselin Åsedotter Strønen explores how notions such as class race state bureaucracy popular politics capitalism neoliberalism consumption oil wealth and corruption gained salience in the Bolivarian process A central argument is that the Bolivarian process was an attempt to challenge the practices ideas and values inherited from Venezuela's historical development as an oil producing state Drawing on rich ethnographic material from Caracas shantytowns state institutions as well as everyday life and public culture Strønen explores the complexities and challenges in fostering deep social and political change

Topography of Politics in Rural China Xiaoyang Zhu, 2015 Contemporary Chinese rural life is placed in sharp theoretical and practical focus in this book State of the art techniques and perspectives are combined to take the reader into Xiaocun a small village on the east bank of the Dianchi Lake in Kunming City In 2003 the author published the book Crime and Punishment The Story of Xiaocun 1931-1997 which dealt with disputes mediation and punishment in the village following the legal anthropology tradition At that time neither the villagers nor the author foresaw the vast changes that were to appear a few years later Their main economic activity then was growing vegetables and flowers urbanisation was tsunami like in its speed and impact Land requisition for urban development was so swift that five years later in 2008 there was no farmland left Instead there were many landmark real estate and development projects Xiaocun has become the centre of an enlarged Kunming City. Observers including the Xiaocun residents are unavoidably shocked at the changes to the physical landscape in the wake of its rapid urbanisation. This book, Topography of Politics in Rural China: The Story of Xiaocun, reports the author's revisits to the village starting in early 2007. In the past few years of research on this village, the author deeply felt that the problems that make people passionate are fully exposed through issues surrounding land and housing. Well written in narrative, this book tells the story of Xiaocun in this new century from the perspective of topography, exploring the peasantry and its relations to the state in more fundamental terms. The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology Simon Coleman, Susan B. Hyatt, Ann Kingsolver, 2016-11-25. The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is an invaluable guide and major reference source for students and scholars alike, introducing its readers to key contemporary perspectives and approaches within the field. Written by an experienced international team of contributors with an interdisciplinary range of essays, this collection provides a powerful overview of the transformations currently affecting anthropology. The volume both addresses the concerns of the discipline and comments on its construction through texts, classroom interactions, engagements with various publics, and changing relations with other academic subjects. Persuasively demonstrating that a number of key contemporary issues can be usefully analyzed through an anthropological lens, the contributors cover important topics such as globalization, law and politics, collaborative archaeology, economics, religion, citizenship, and community health and the environment. The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Anthropology is a fascinating examination of this lively and constantly evolving discipline. The Aid Effect David Mosse, David Lewis, 2005-10-20. Today, international development policy is converging around ideas of neoliberal reform, democratisation, and poverty reduction. What does this mean for the local and international dimensions of aid relationships? The Aid Effect demonstrates the fruitfulness of an ethnographic approach to aid policy reform and global governance. The contributors provide powerful commentary on hidden processes, multiple perspectives, or regional interests behind official aid policy discourses. The book raises important questions concerning the systematic social effects of aid relationships, the nature of sovereignty and the state, and the working of power inequalities built through the standardisations of a neoliberal framework. The contributors take on new challenges to anthropology presented by a global aid architecture which no longer operates through discrete projects but has moved on to sector-wide approaches, budgetary support, and other macro-level instruments of development, but they remain faithful to the fieldwork methodology that is anthropology's strength and the source of rare insight. A History of Anthropology Thomas Hylland Eriksen, Finn Sivert Nielsen, 2001-10-20. Without aspiring to compete with the full textbook available, social anthropologists Erikson U of Oslo and Nielsen U of Copenhagen succinctly outline the history of the science. They begin with precursors from ancient Greece to the Enlightenment and progress to post-postmodern trends of the 1990s. Distributed in the US by Stylus Publishing.
