The Power of Love: my victory over breast cancer Karla Icaza, 2017-02-02 When I was diagnosed with breast cancer almost immediately I thought I should write a book about my experience. I began to write a few days after my surgery when I was at home recovering. It is a book written while I battled the disease. Since I wrote it while things were happening on its pages I poured my heart. In it are my weaknesses and my strengths. Is a book that provokes many emotions to cry to laugh to reflect. I included photos that illustrate many of the things I talk about. There are testimonies of my husband, my children, and other relatives where they reflect the way they handled the battle. It is a book that conveys the love of God and the love of family and friends who accompanied me throughout my process. A book inspired by the Holy Spirit I could not have written it without His help. It is my desire that every person who reads it receives hope, peace, love, and faith to face any difficult circumstances and experience God's embrace. Power and
