Raising Cain Dan Kindlon, Ph.D., Michael Thompson, PhD, 2009-08-05 The stunning success of Reviving Ophelia Mary Pipher's landmark book showed a true and pressing need to address the emotional lives of girls Now finally here is the book that answers our equally timely and critical need to understand our boys In Raising Cain Dan Kindlon Ph.D. and Michael Thompson Ph.D. two of the country's leading child psychologists share what they have learned in more than thirty-five years of combined experience working with boys and their families They reveal a nation of boys who are hurting sad afraid angry and silent Statistics point to an alarming number of young boys at high risk for suicide alcohol and drug abuse violence and loneliness Kindlon and Thompson set out to answer this basic crucial question What do boys need that they're not getting They illuminate the forces that threaten our boys teaching them to believe that cool equals macho strength and stoicism Cutting through outdated theories of mother-blame boy biology and testosterone Kindlon and Thompson shed light on the destructive emotional training our boys receive the emotional miseducation of boys Through moving case studies and cutting-edge research Raising Cain paints a portrait of boys systematically steered away from their emotional lives by adults and the peer culture of cruelty boys who receive little encouragement to develop qualities such as compassion sensitivity and warmth The good news is that this doesn't have to happen There is much we can do to prevent it Kindlon and Thompson make a compelling case that emotional literacy is the most valuable gift we can offer our sons urging parents to recognize the price boys pay when we hold them to an impossible standard of manhood They identify the social and emotional challenges that boys encounter in school and show how parents can help boys cultivate emotional awareness and empathy giving them the vital connections and support they need to navigate the social pressures of youth Powerfully written and deeply felt Raising Cain will forever change the way we see our sons and will transform the way we help them to become happy and fulfilled children within a challenging society      The Complete Parade's End Tetralogy Madox Ford, 2022-11-13 Madox Ford's The Complete Parade's End Tetralogy is a masterful exploration of the disillusionment wrought by World War I and its aftermath encapsulating the complexities of human relationships in a rapidly changing world. Comprising four interconnected novels, the tetralogy employs a stream of consciousness narrative style that delves into the psychological turmoil of its characters, particularly the protagonist Christopher Tietjens. Ford's meticulous attention to social and political intricacies offers a vivid portrayal of Edwardian society weaving themes of masculinity, duty, and the shifting nature of truth amidst the chaos of war. Ford, a prominent literary figure of the early twentieth century, was deeply influenced by his own experiences, including his service in the British Army during the Great War. His background in journalism and intimate connections with leading writers such as Joseph Conrad shaped his innovative approach to narrative structure and character development. This rich tapestry of personal and collective experiences informs the tetralogy's poignant reflections on love, loss, and the struggle for identity in the face of societal upheaval. A must-read for enthusiasts of modernist literature and history, The Complete Parade's End Tetralogy is not only a profound reflection on the impact of war but also a timeless exploration of human resilience. Ford's intricate character studies and expert narrative techniques make this work an essential contribution to 20th-century literature, inviting readers to engage with its enduring themes and complexities.

Farm Journal and Country Gentleman, 1923      From the West to the West Abigail Scott Duniway, 1905 This classic novel is based on the author's own arduous 2,500-mile overland journey in a train of covered wagons to the Pacific Northwest in 1852. Oregon State Library      The Parade's End Tetralogy: Some Do Not, No More Parades, A Man Could Stand Up & Last Post Ford Madox Ford, 2023-11-29 The Parade's End Tetralogy, comprising Some Do Not, No More Parades, A Man Could Stand Up, and Last Post, is a masterful exploration of the disillusionment wrought by World War I. Ford Madox Ford employs a modernist literary style characterized by its stream of consciousness technique, fragmented narrative, and rich psychological depth. Set against the backdrop of the tumultuous years before, during, and after the war, Ford intricately weaves the lives of his characters, primarily focusing on Christopher Tietjens, a soldier grappling with societal expectations and personal convictions amidst the chaos of change. The tetralogy vividly captures the erosion of traditional values, reflecting the larger existential crises faced by a generation. Ford Madox Ford, a pivotal figure in early 20th-century literature, was deeply influenced by his own experiences of war and the shifting social landscape of his time. Born in 1873 and steeped in the literary circles of Edwardian England, Ford's works often grapple with themes of identity, loyalty, and the moral complexities of war. His own service in the army and his relationships with fellow writers such as Joseph Conrad and Ezra Pound shaped his narrative techniques and thematic concerns, making this tetralogy an essential reflection on contemporary society. This profound and poignant tetralogy is highly recommended for readers seeking a deeper understanding of the effects of war on the human psyche and societal norms. Ford's nuanced examination of love, duty, and betrayal, set against the historical backdrop, resonates with modern audiences. For anyone
