Rambling Rose:

Feminist Hollywood Christina Lane, 2000 Feminist Hollywood examines the differences between commercial cinema and counter cinema by focusing on the work of contemporary women directors who have entered Hollywood from the realm of independent filmmaking Christina Lane compares their early documentaries or avant garde films with their more mainstream endeavors as she explores the possibilities and limits of feminist expression within the male dominated industry of commercial filmmaking Feminist Hollywood incorporates interviews with directors Susan Seidelman Martha Coolidge Kathryn Bigelow Lizzie Borden Darnell Martin and Tamra Davis in an attempt to bridge the theory gap that often excludes women's professional experiences and makes false assumptions about how the industry operates Lane balances these firsthand accounts with cultural theory and an understanding of the current film industry in which the line between commercial and independent filmmaking has become blurred The timely and comprehensive nature of this volume will make it a welcome addition to the bookshelves of film scholars and amateur movie buffs alike

Rambling on Saint Martin Gérard M. Hunt, 2010-04-06 Grard M Hunt is a man without a country trying to piece together in essays editorials and scholarship a country of his own from three quite separate nations French Colonial by birth and upbringing United States by military service and higher education and Canada by profession in teaching and scholarship The three have by no means come together in a single national unity His homing tendency seems to be towards St Martin but St Martin is itself an amalgam a clump of volcanic earth still divided for no good reason between two independent sovereigns thousands of miles away He is a unitary citizen without an integrated polity Many of Grards essays are grave and penetrating trials Many are sentimental catching up with childhood comrades sharing grief over a lost friend or relative Several of these discourses are critiques of the wayward tendencies of French efforts to govern Saint Martin from Paris through Guadeloupe The most serious and extensive of essays aim at encouraging a greater sense of historical awareness and of community solidarity among St Martiners From Foreword to Rambling on Saint Martin by Theodore J Lowi Earn a Living as a Self Employed Gardener; How to Tell the Difference Between Weeds and Flowers baruch solomon,2010-03-25 If you ve ever thought of making your living gardening then this book is for you Don t be put off if you ve little gardening experience even less money and don t even drive let alone own a van In this comprehensive step by step guide you ll find everything you need to know to get started from what equipment to buy to how to prune roses from advertising for customers to the difference between a spade and a shovel If you follow the book s advice you won t make lots of money but you ll always be in demand and always have an enjoyable contentment inducing occupation to rely upon Merchant Vessels of the United States ,1989
