Honest Horses Paula Morin,2006-02-13 Horses have been part of the American West since the first Spanish explorers brought their European bred steeds onto the new continent Soon thereafter some of these animals lost or abandoned by their owners or captured by indigenous peoples became the foundation of the great herds of mustangs from the Spanish meste o stray that still roam the West These feral horses are inextricably intertwined with the culture economy and mythology of the West The current situation of the mustangs as vigorous competitors for the scanty resources of the West s drought parched rangelands has put them at the center of passionate controversies about their purpose place and future on the open range Photographer oral historian Paula Morin has interviewed sixty two people who know these horses best ranchers horse breeders and trainers Native Americans veterinarians wild horse advocates mustangers range scientists cowboy poets western historians wildlife experts animal behaviorists and agents of the federal Bureau of Land Management The result is the most comprehensive impartial examination yet of the history and impact of wild mustangs in the Great Basin Morin elicits from her interviewees a range of expertise insight and candid opinion about the nature of horses ranching and the western environment Honest Horses brings us the voices of authentic westerners people who live intimately with horses and the land who share their experiences and love of the mustangs and who understand how precariously all life exists in Great Basin

The Living Church ,1964 The Man Who Listens to Horses Monty Roberts,2008-12-30 Monty Roberts is a real life horse whisperer an American original whose gentle Join Up training method reveals the depth of communication possible between man and animal He can take a wild high strung horse who has never before been handled and persuade that horse to accept a bridle saddle and rider in thirty minutes His powers may seem like magic but his amazing horse sense is based on a lifetime of experience In The Man Who Listens to Horses Roberts reveals his unforgettable personal story and his exceptional insight into nonverbal communication an understanding that applies to human relationships as well He shows that between parent and child employee and employer abuser and abused there are forms of communication far stronger than the spoken word that are accessible to all who will learn to listen This new edition features engaging photographs a chapter that traces Roberts s amazing experience gentling with a mustang in the wild and an Afterword about the remarkable impact this book has had on the world

Horse Crazy Jean O'Malley Halley,2019-07-01 Horse Crazy explores the meaning behind the love between girls and horses Jean O Malley Halley a self professed horse girl contends that this relationship and its cultural signifiers influence the manner in which young girls define their identity when it comes to gender Halley examines how popular culture including the pony book genre uses horses to encourage conformity to gender norms but also insists that the loving relationship between a girl and a horse fundamentally challenges sexist and mainstream ideas of girlhood Horse Crazy looks at the relationships between girls and horses through the frameworks of Michel Foucault s concepts of normalization and biopower drawing conclusions about the way girls agency is both normalized and resistant to normalization Segments of Halley's own experiences with horses as a young girl as well as experiences from the perspective of other girls are sources for examination Horsey girls as she calls them are girls who find a way to defy the expectations given to them by society thinness obsession with makeup and beauty frailty and gain the possibility of freedom in the process Drawing on Nicole Shukin's uses of animal capital theories Halley also explores the varied treatment of horses themselves as an example of the biopolitical use of nonhuman animals and the manipulation and exploitation of horse life In so doing she engages with common ways we think and feel about animals and with the technologies of speciesism
