Random House Parent And Child Trivia:

Parents, Children, and the Facts of Life Henry V. Sattler, 1993-06 Father Sattler has written Parents Children and the Facts of Life to help parents fulfill the extremely important duty of training boys and girls to be pure and innocent and eventually to enter marriage with a noble and holy purpose if God calls them to that state of life According to the official Catholic teaching sex education is the duty of the parents yet many parents still struggle to convey the facts of life to their children in a natural and inspiring way Applying traditional Catholic principles to very practical questions Fr Sattler explains what parents should tell their children when and how they should tell it what moral and psychological dangers they must avoid and what questions they should anticipate His conversational and down to earth style provides parents with the confidence and practical wisdom to fulfill their role as their children s primary teachers of the facts of life Pre-School Parenting Secrets Brian Caswell, David Phu An Chiem, Kylie Bell, 2010 The creators of cutting edge learning strategies New Brain Software and Optimal Flow Method Brian Caswell and David Chiem have accumulated betweenween them over 50 years of experience in the domains of education mind development him the literary and performing arts and the creation of active learning programmes for children of all ages Book Jacket Maximum Strength Parenting Andrew Vaughan, Lauren Resnick, 2007-12-07 Welcome to the town of Maximum Strength Parenting a happy little place where youll have a lot to do a lot to think about and a lot of fun Maximum Strength Parenting is the art of using all of your gifts and knowledge in the most important and influential job you will ever have parenting A Maximum Strength Parent helps foster the growth of a Maximum Strength Child which is a child who enjoys the process of striving to his or her potential and acts with courage consistency responsibility power authority flexibility sound judgment and humanity in his or her emotional intellectual spiritual moral and physical interactions with the world Maximum Strength Parenting is the greatest gift you can give your child In Maximum Strength Parenting we express our Freedom of Speech and our Freedom to Teach but we stop well short of the Freedom to Preach that is evident in so many parent advice books of the day Throughout Maximum Strength Parenting you will find rich information balanced commentary and consideration of nuanced points that will cause you to think more deeply about your positions or perhaps re think your positions on countless topics of philosophical and practical importance in parenting We also provide broad ranges of effective parenting strategies for you to choose from Throughout these pages we have provided hundreds of little bits of insight encouragement strategy inspiration and solution options From our hearts to yours we hope you will find the ideas and strategies in Maximum Strength Parenting to be worthy companions on your lifelong journey of raising a Maximum Strength Child Andrew Vaughan Ph D Lauren Resnick M S CCC SLP Anne Long M S Ed Do Men Mother? Andrea Doucet, 2018-04-13 The first edition of Do Men Mother 2006 was awarded the John Porter Tradition of Excellence Book Award from the Canadian Sociological Association and remains one of the most widely cited books on primary caregiving fathers and stay at home fathers This second edition of Do Men Mother builds on interviews conducted between 2000 and 2004 with 101 fathers and 14 mother father couples and follow up interviews with six of the mother father couples about a decade later It charts how fathers and mothers navigate and negotiate parental and breadwinning responsibilities and calls attention to the generative changes that occur for men when they share responsibilities for their children s care Working closely with Sara Ruddick s Maternal Thinking 1989 Doucet advocates for a wider maternal lens that focuses on entanglements between dependence independence inter dependence and argues that fathers stories expand how we think about mothering and caregiving In this expanded second edition with a new Preface and two new chapters Doucet takes on three revisiting projects returning to interview several research participants re entering scholarly fields of work care and parenting in shifting neoliberal contexts and rethinking her approach to knowledge making concepts and narratives Bringing together what she calls diffractive readings of feminist philosopher Lorraine Code s ecological approach to knowledge making and historical sociologist Margaret Somers genealogical and relational approach to concepts and her non representational approach to narratives Doucet lays out an innovative ecological and non representational approach to knowledge making concepts and narratives about care work and paid work This book calls for greater attention not only to what we claim to know but also to how we come to know write about and intervene in shifting practices concepts and narratives of work and care the politics of care and growing crises of care Banned Books for Kids American Library Association (ALA),2023-09-18 From the American Library Association comes an expansive guide to teaching banned books to children at home or in the classroom with a forward by renowned children s author Judy Blume Books matter In our polarized environment the censorship and outright banning of children s books remains a major concern for libraries The American Library Association an intellectual freedom champion has created this illuminating and expansive guide for book lovers who hope to teach children the importance of banned literature With a focus on modern books that have been banned along with classic literature that continues to be under attack for political or religious reasons Teaching Banned Books to Kids will educate adults and children about the importance of books With useful tools and techniques caregivers and educators will find the best ways to talk about banned books to children Becoming a mother Carla Pascoe Leahy,2023-04-04 Becoming a mother charts the diverse and complex history of Australian mothering for the first time exposing the ways it has been both connected to and distinct from parallel developments in other industrialised societies In many respects the historical context in which Australian women come to motherhood has changed dramatically since 1945 And yet examination of the memories of multiple maternal generations reveals surprising continuities in the emotions and experiences of first time motherhood Drawing upon interdisciplinary insights from anthropology history psychology and sociology Carla Pascoe Leahy unpacks this multifaceted rite of passage through more than 60 oral history interviews demonstrating how maternal memories continue to influence motherhood today Despite radical shifts in understandings of gender care and subjectivity becoming a mother remains one of the most personally and culturally significant moments in a woman s life Slick Spins and Fractured Facts

Caryl Rivers, 1996 French rule in Syria and Lebanon coincided with the rise of colonial resistance around the world and with profound social trauma after World War I. In this tightly argued study Elizabeth Thompson shows how Syrians and Lebanese mobilized like other colonized peoples to claim the terms of citizenship enjoyed in the European metropole. The negotiations between the French and citizens of the Mandate set the terms of politics for decades after Syria and Lebanon achieved independence in 1946. Colonial Citizens highlights gender as a central battlefield upon which the relative rights and obligations of states and citizens were established. The participants in this struggle included not only elite nationalists and French rulers but also new mass movements of women workers, youth, and Islamic populists. The author examines the gendered battles fought over France's paternalistic policies in health, education, labor, and the press. Two important and enduring political structures issued from these conflicts: First, a colonial welfare state emerged by World War II that recognized social rights of citizens to health, education, and labor protection. Second, tacit gender pacts were forged first by the French and then reaffirmed by the nationalist rulers of the independent states. These gender pacts represented a compromise among male political rivals who agreed to exclude and marginalize female citizens in public life. This study provides a major contribution to the social construction of gender in nationalist and postcolonial discourse. Returning workers, low ranking religious figures, and most of all women to the narrative history of the region, figures usually omitted, Colonial Citizens enhances our understanding of the interwar period in the Middle East, providing needed context for a better understanding of statebuilding, nationalism, Islam, and gender since World War II.
