Range Of Faith Basic Questions For A Living Theology:

The Range of Faith Anthony Kelly, Tony Kelly, 1989-01-01      God and the Natural World Ted Peters, Marie Turner, 2020-05-01 This collection of essays is a fitting tribute to Denis Edwards who was one of Australia's leading theologians. In exploring the most challenging questions of our time these essays canvas some of the great themes of Christian theology that were the focus of Edwards' research. Denis Edwards was a theologian of dialogue: dialogue with our rich theological tradition, dialogue with science, dialogue with contemporary theologians. The contributors to this volume enter into a dialogue with substantial parts of the theological output of Denis Edwards. In the process they capture something of his humanity, his love of creation and his concern for our common home. The book demonstrates the commitment Denis Edwards had to a theology that is truly ecumenical and always learning from the insights of others. The editors and authors have done a great service in helping many others to deepen reflection on Denis Edwards' contribution to our understanding of God and the natural world.

Key Questions about Christian Faith John Goldingay, 2010-11 A biblical theologian explores what the Old Testament says about twenty-five important questions of the Christian faith, drawing practical, sensible applications for today's church.

Main Questions in Religion Willard Chamberlain Selleck, 1916      RIC., 1990
Disputed Questions in Theology and the Philosophy of Religion J. Hick, 1997-04-23 Hick gives a personal account of how he has come to accept religious pluralism: that the major world faiths are different but equally valid responses to ultimate Reality. He considers how much Christians have to learn from Buddhism, discusses the ongoing dialogue among Jews, Christians, and Muslims, and outlines a philosophy of religions: a conception of the relationship between world religions and between them and the ultimately Real. Finally, he turns to the mystery of death and, using the resources of the world religions and of parapsychology, suggests a possible conception of life after death.

Bookbuyers' Reference Book, 1993      Christian Faith as Religion Paul E. Capetz, 2011-05-26 Christian Faith as Religion investigates the theologies of John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher with respect to the questions: What is Religion? and What is Christian Religion? The author argues that the classical and liberal exemplars of Protestant theology are best compared when these two questions are thoroughly examined and calls into question the contention of neo-orthodox theologians Karl Barth and Emil Brunner that Schleiermacher's theological use of the category religion signifies a departure from the tradition of the Reformation. He offers a revised comparative framework that discloses the material and formal similarities between Calvin and Schleiermacher with respect to their employment of the categories religion and revelation and allows the historical theologian to delineate the trajectory that accounts for both continuity and discontinuity in the transition from classical to modern Protestant theology This allows the systematic hermeneutical question of a contemporary Protestant theology informed by the historical and philosophical study of religion to be taken up anew D.Z. Phillips' Contemplative Philosophy of Religion Andy F. Sanders,2016-05-13 This collection presents a critical discussion and exploration of the late D Z Phillips contemplative approach in the philosophy of religion What are the main characteristics of this ground breaking approach which is inspired by thinkers like Kierkegaard and Wittgenstein and meant as a serious critical alternative to the mainstream way of doing philosophy of religion What is its aim if it is deliberately avoiding apology and defence of faith How does Phillips approach relate to systematic historical and empirical theology and is it really as neutral as he claims it to be Or is he perhaps a certain kind of theologian What are the implications of his contemplative philosophy for central issues of religious life today such as petitionary prayer the hope of eternal life and radical religious diversity The essays of six distinguished scholars from five different nations critically and sympathetically address these questions and are responded to by Phillips in essays of his own written briefly before his sudden death in July 2006 Faith Without Certainty Paul B. Rasor,2005

Making a Personal Faith William Fraser McDowell,1924 Encyclopedia of Distance Learning, Second Edition Rogers, Patricia L.,Berg, Gary A.,Boettcher, Judith V.,Howard, Caroline,Justice, Lorraine,Schenk, Karen D.,2009-01-31 Offers comprehensive coverage of the issues concepts trends and technologies of distance learning Intellect Encounters Faith - A Synthesis J.
