The book analyzes the role of Hindi films in the British film market it shows how audiences engage with Bollywood cinema and it discusses the ways the image of Bollywood in Britain has been shaped. In contrast to most of the existing books on the subject which tend to approach Bollywood as something that is made by Asians for Asians the book also focuses on how Bollywood has been adapted for non Asian Britons. An analysis of Bollywood as an unofficial brand is combined with in depth readings of texts like film reviews the TV show Bollywood Star 2004 and novels and plays with references to the Bombay film industry. On this basis Bollywood in Britain demonstrates that the presentation of Bollywood for British mainstream culture oscillates between moments of approximation and distancing with a clear dominance of the latter. Despite its alleged transculturality Bollywood in Britain thus emerges as a phenomenon of difference distance and Othering. The multicultural Midlands Tom Kew, 2023-01-17 The multicultural Midlands is a unique interdisciplinary study of the literature music and food that shape the region's irrepressible though often overlooked cultural identity. It is the first of its kind to give serious critical attention to a part of the world which is frequently ignored by readers critics and the culture industries. This book makes a claim for the importance of the Midlands and evidences this with nuanced close reading of a multitude of diverse texts spanning so called high to low culture from the Black Country's Desi Pubs to Leicester's McIndians Peri Peri you've tried the cowboys now try the Indians Handsworth's reggae roots to Adrian Mole's diaries. THE INDIAN LISTENER All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi, 1949-08-21 The Indian Listener fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service Bombay started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in English which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927.
