A Doctor Across Borders Alexander Cameron-Smith, 2019-02-28 In his day Raphael Cilento was one of the most prominent and controversial figures in Australian medicine As a senior medical officer in the Commonwealth and Queensland governments he was an active participant in public health reform during the inter war years and is best known for his vocal engagement with public discourse on the relationship between hygiene race and Australian nationhood Yet Cilento's work on tropical hygiene and social welfare ranged beyond Australia especially when he served as a colonial medical officer in British Malaya and in the Mandated Territory of New Guinea He also worked with the League of Nations Health Organization in the Pacific Islands and oversaw international social welfare programs for the United Nations On one level this professional mobility allowed ideas and practices of public health and government to circulate between colonial spaces of northern Australia the Pacific Islands and Asia On another it meant that Cilento's Pacific colonialism and colonial experience shaped his understanding of Australian national health and welfare Rather than attempt a comprehensive biography of Cilento this book instead uses this border crossing career as a means to explore several material and discursive facets of Australia's relationships to the Pacific and the world

McGregor,2016-06-15 This new study offers a timely and compelling account of why past generations of Australians have seen the north of the country as an empty land and how those perceptions of Australia s tropical regions impact current policy and shape the self image of the nation It considers the origins of these concerns from fears of invasion and moral qualms about leaving resources lying idle from apprehensions about white nationhood coming under international censure and misgivings about the natural attributes of the north and elucidates Australians changing appreciations of the natural environments of the north their shifting attitudes toward race and their unsettled conceptions of Asia

Lives of Stories traces three stories of Aboriginal settler friendships that intersect with the ways in which Australians remember founding national stories build narratives for cultural revival and work on reconciliation and self determination These three stories which are still being told with creativity and commitment by storytellers today are the story of James Morrill s adoption by Birri Gubba people and re adoption 17 years later into the new colony of Queensland the story of Bennelong and his relationship with Governor Phillip and the Sydney colonists and the story of friendship between Wiradjuri leader Windradyne and the Suttor family Each is an intimate story about people involved in relationships of goodwill care adoptive kinship and mutual learning across cultures and the strains of maintaining or relinquishing these bonds as they took part in the larger events that signified the colonisation of Aboriginal lands by the British Each is a story in which cross cultural understanding and misunderstanding are deeply embedded and in which the act of storytelling itself has always been an engagement in cross cultural relations The Lives of Stories reflects on the nature of story as part of our cultural inheritance and seeks to engage the reader in becoming more conscious of our own effect as history makers as we retell old stories with new meanings in the present and pass them on to new generations

Quakers in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict Nancy Gallagher, 2007-09-01 The Israeli Palestinian conflict has resulted in the longest standing refugee crisis in the world today Based on new archival research and interviews with surviving participants this book considers one early effort to resolve that crisis while offering helpful lessons for current efforts at conflict resolution in the Middle East and elsewhere When war broke out in Palestine in 1948 the American Friends Service Committee AFSC a Quaker service organization had just won the Nobel Peace Prize for its peacemaking endeavors and its service to war refugees during the Second World War On the basis of that experience the United Nations invited the highly visible AFSC to provide humanitarian relief to Arab refugees in Gaza The AFSC also sent volunteers to work in Israel where they hoped to serve both Arabs and Jews Its long term goal was repatriation of the refugees and conciliation and coexistence between Israelis and Palestinians As eyewitnesses to some of the major events of the conflict the AFSC volunteers came to understand it better than most outsiders at the time By examining these early efforts at peacemaking and assistance historian Nancy Gallagher has uncovered essential insights for today s peacemakers human rights activists and humanitarian NGOs

The 1960s in Australia Shirleene Robinson, Julie Ustinoff, 2012-01-17 The 1960s is one of the most heavily mythologised decades of the twentieth century More than 50 years on the era continues to capture the public s imagination The 1960s in Australia People Power and Politics recognises the complexity of social and cultural change by presenting a broad range of contributions that acknowledge an often overlooked fact that not everyone experienced the 1960s in the same way The diversity of the time is confirmed by contributions from a number of expert Australian historians who each provide an insight into Australia in the 1960s offering an understanding of the social realities of this period as well as the ebbs and flows of transnational influence This collection includes a featured contribution by prominent Australian historian Raymond Evans who provides a personal insight into the 1960s Other contributors also place the lived experience at the centre of their analysis by considering the growth of modern flats the impact of cosmopolitanism and sex and sexuality in the Sixties The book also highlights the way power was deployed and deconstructed during this era by considering the psychiatric profession the agenda of the counter culture and the role that women s magazines played in reinforcing dominant gender paradigms The complex politics of the era are also explored through the transnational impact of figures such as Anthony Crosland the impact of the Vietnam War and the multiplicity of motivations behind the anti war protest and the Aboriginal rights movement of the era The 1960s in Australia Power People and Politics is a fresh focus on a significant time in Australia s history It brings together a collection of innovative and engaging explorations into the Australian Sixties which underline the complexity of the time
