Private Landscapes Pamela Burton, Marie Botnick, 2002 When we think of the gardens of Southern California we tend to think of the enormous semiarid landscapes of the Huntington and Rancho Los Alamitos often built on the sprawling grounds of former ranches But there is another garden tradition in Southern California the modest rectangular suburban plots designed by the most famous architects of mid century modernism Richard Neutra Rudolph Schindler Gregory Ain Raphael Soriano Harwell Hamilton Harris A Quincy Jones and John Lautner These architects saw the garden as an outdoor extension of the space of the houses they designed rather than a neo Spanish fantasy to be added later by a landscapist Their modern gardens made use of low maintenance drought resistant plants and made room for informal outdoor living by children and adults with an emphasis on recreation and exercise The first book of its kind Private Landscapes profiles twenty significant gardens and their accompanying houses by these celebrated architects Using contemporary photographs by Julius Shulman and newly commissioned color images along with plans and plant lists Private Landscapes provides a never before seen look at these gardens As beautiful and practical now as they were 50 years ago these designs continue to provide inspiration for gardeners and designers everywhere
The Urban Condition Ghent Urban Studies Team, 1999 What does the Western city at the end of the twentieth century look like How did the modern metropolis of congestion and density turn into a posturban or even postsuburban cityscape What are edge cities and technoburbs How has the social composition of cities changed in the postwar era What do gated communities tell us about social fragmentation Is public space in the contemporary city being privatized and militarized How can the urban self still be defined What role does consumer aestheticism have to play in this These and many more questions are addressed by this uniquely conceived multidisciplinary study The Urban Condition seeks to interfere in current debates over the future and interpretation of our

Pierre Koenig Neil Jackson, 2019-02-05 A heavily illustrated and highly designed tribute to Los Angeles architect Pierre Koenig a key figure of the Los Angeles Modernist movement In this remarkable and gorgeously illustrated book Neil Jackson presents a vibrant profile of the Los Angeles architect Pierre Koenig who Time magazine said lived long enough to become cool twice From the influences of Koenig's youth in San Francisco and his military service during World War II to the Case Study Houses and his later award laden years Jackson's study plots the evolution of Koenig's oeuvre against the backdrop of Los Angeles a city that both shaped and was shaped by his architecture The book is anchored by Jackson's exciting discoveries in Koenig's archive at the Getty Research Institute Drawings photographs diaries letters lecture notes building contracts and university projects many of which are published for the first time provide an expanded understanding of Koenig and additional context for his architectural achievements An examination of Koenig s Case Study Houses shows how his often single minded and pragmatic approach to domestic architecture recognized the advantages of production housing and presciently embraced sustainable ecologically responsible design A new account of the Chemehuevi housing project in Havasu Lake California demonstrates the special role that learning and teaching played in the development of his architecture Over his fifty year career Koenig not only designed iconic houses but also directed their restoration and curated their legacy ensuring that his work could be seen and appreciated by present and future admirers of midcentury Los Angeles
