Rat Stew:

Soyala's Saga Richard Donahue,2015-03-31 Author House Review The Sixth Coming is set within an original mythology to fascinating results It combines vividly realized characters with spiritual themes and elements of Aztec lore There is an incredible array of exciting sequences that could provide great material for adapting this work into another medium Due to the nontraditional structure and storytelling style live theater could be an interesting option Film is another option perhaps animation could make the most of the impressive locations creatures and spectacles There are several elements that are very well suited for a film or theater piece Because both these mediums usually feature the interactions between characters the strong personalities of The Sixth Coming are essential to capture Soyala is a great heroine from her borderline petulance over the Builders gift to her reluctant and confused acceptance of her destiny She isn't perfect which makes her all the more compelling as she overcomes overwhelming odds Kajika Buriilgi and the Minstrel are wonderful supporting characters Each of these brothers has his own distinct personality and their squabbling provides comic relief Buriilgi and the Minstrel in particular provide humor Kajika could bring in sex appeal for female audiences while Soyala and Xochiquetzal could do so for males Xochiquetzal Tona teotl is a fascinating villain Her sinister sexuality when welcoming Soyala and Kajika could play very well in a film The later scenes on the Barge are thrilling due to Tona teotl's increasingly evident madness These scenes would provide terrific moments for an actor to really chew up the scenery The Shield Maidens story begins with the reader being introduced to her loved ones Each character is well developed and had distinctive characteristics When bad things happen to them we also feel her loss We also learn more about how she came to be and how important loyalty is to her survival The places that this story takes us to are either incredibly beautiful or eerily foreboding The creatures in it are also very uniquely described and incredibly different from the mundane realm that we currently inhabit Uncle Brucker the

Crap Kitchen Geoff Tibballs, 2015-11-19 The worst cookbook ever packed with truly bizarre and utterly disgusting recipes from all over the world Ever since humankind produced its first foodie the culinary world has dished up some staggering confections which could best be described as acquired tastes dishes such as Virgin Boy Eggs eggs soaked in the urine of prepubescent boys live octopus which clutches at the diner's tongue and throat as it is swallowed and Beard Beer made from the yeast found in facial hair In northern Greenland the Inuit are fond of cramming as many as 500 dead auks small sea birds into an old seal skin which they place under a large rock until the birds have fermented into what has rightly been described as a sticky pungent toxic cheesy gloop Kiviak as it is called is eaten by biting off the birds heads and sucking out the juices The mighty Roman Empire was built on such delicacies as larks tongues stuffed thrush boiled flamingo and grilled cow's womb while the Tudors loved nothing more than a roast cockenthrice the head and upper body of a pig carefully stitched onto the lower body and legs of a turkey Today for those with an adventurous mindset and a robust life insurance policy there is no shortage of nauseating local delicacies to enjoy In China not only is tuna eyeball on the menu but also yak penis served whole In Vietnam one can enjoy the still beating heart of a freshly killed snake in Iceland raw puffin heart In the Philippines there is duck embryo to be had like a Kinder Surprise only containing a dead foetus instead of a toy In Sardinia they like nothing more than a nice bit of maggot infested cheese and the favourite tippie of Korean foodies is Ttongsul a wine made from the fermented faeces of a child Bon appetit
