Endres, 2022-08-12 Before there was an immigrant American Church there was a Native American Church The Native American Catholic Studies Reader offers an introduction to the story of how Native American Catholicism has developed over the centuries beginning with the age of the missions and leading to inculturated indigenous forms of religious expression Though the Native Christian relationship could be marked by tension coercion and even violence the Christian faith took root among Native Americans and for those who accepted it and bequeathed it to future generations it became not an imposition but a way of expressing Native identity From the perspective of historians and theologians the Native American Catholic Studies Reader offers a curated collection of essays divided into three sections education and evangelization tradition and transition and Native American lives Contributors include scholars currently working in the field Mark Clatterbuck Damian Costello Conor J Donnan Ross Enochs Allan Greer Mark G Thiel and Christopher Vecsey as well as selections from a past generation Gerald McKevitt SJ and Carl F Starkloff SJ These contributions explore the interaction of missionaries and tribal leaders the relationship of traditional Native cosmology and religiosity to Christianity and the role of geography and tribal consciousness in accepting and maintaining indigenous and religious identities These readings highlight the state of the emergent field of Native Catholic studies and suggest further avenues for research and publication For scholars teachers and students the Native American Catholic Studies Reader explores how the faith of the American Church's eldest members became a means of expressing and celebrating language family and tribe Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson, 2017-05-25 In Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson proposes pansacramentalism as holding the potential to find the divine in all things and all things in the divine Such a proposition carries significant interreligious implications particularly in the practice of theology Presupposing theological practice as divorced from spirituality lived religious experience Gustafson presents pansacramentalism as a bridge between the two In so doing Gustafson offers a history of spirituality sketching the foundations of a classical approach to sacramentality through Aquinas as well as a contemporary approach to the same through Rahner and Chauvet Through three fascinating case studies this book presents particular instances of sacramentality in lived religious experience Gustafson offers an exciting method of doing theology one which is entirely compatible with the interdisciplinary field of interreligious studies Dictionary Of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-05-15 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected. It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology, pedagogy, sociology, anthropology, education, theology, political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century. Each entry contains a short biography of the writer, an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas, a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading. While all the major post-Civil War philosophers are present, the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well-known writers, including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers. In many cases, the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers. This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought.

Consid r comme l'un des chefs d'oeuvre de la spiritualit universelle, l'an Noir parle a quelque peu occult l'homme au profit du mythe. La biographie que lui consacre Joe Jackson est bien plus que l'histoire d'une figure dont l'existence a co ncid avec les v nements les plus marquants de l'histoire de l'Ouest am ricain. N une poque de violence croissante entre les Sioux, les colons blancs et l'arm e Black Elk tue son premier homme l'ge de douze ans lors de la bataille de Little Bighorn. Une dizaine d'ann es plus tard, fuyant la vie sur la r serve, il se rend en Europe, notamment Paris, avec le Wild West Show de Buffalo Bill. Entra n son retour dans le mouvement messianique de la danse des Esprits, Black Elk choisit la voie du chamanisme sous l'influence d'une puissante vision proph tique re ue dans son enfance. Il se convertira au catholicisme mais n'en demeurera pas moins fid le la spiritualit et la culture de son peuple. Pour la premi re fois, ce livre restitue Black Elk dans toute sa complexit, livrant le portait incroyablement vivant d'un homme en qu te de v rit et de justice. Une lecture essentielle. Joe Jackson donne un sens authentique Black Elk au conflit intime entre son h ritage et son identit, sa lucidit quant aux compromis et aux capitulations n cessaires sa survie et celle des siens. Voici l'histoire d'un homme et d'un peuple dont la terre, le mode de vie et la culture ont t la cible d'un projet d'extermination men par le gouvernement des tats Unis. The New York Times

A Retreat with Catherine of Siena Elizabeth Dreyer, 1999. In this seven-day retreat, Living the Truth in Love, your director is Catherine of Siena, the fourteenth-century Italian laywoman with the strong will and staunch commitment to carry out what she thought God was directing her to do. Catherine declared Doctor of the Church in 1970, clung to the truth, lived by the truth, and sought after the truth throughout her life. With her, we will meet the God whom she called Gentle Truth, struggle with the sin and glory of our own truth, and ponder the fruits of truth, discernment, freedom, and wisdom.

Indian Pilgrims Michelle M. Jacob, 2016-10-04. In 2012, Kateri Tekakwitha became the first North American Indian to be canonized as a saint by the Roman Catholic Church, an event that American Indian Catholics have awaited for generations. Saint Kateri, known as the patroness of the environment, was born in 1656 near present-day Albany, New York, to an Algonquin mother and a Mohawk father. Tekakwitha converted to Christianity at age nineteen and took a vow of perpetual virginity. Her devotees have advocated for her sainthood since her death in 1680 Within historical Catholic writings Tekakwitha is portrayed as a model of pious submissive femininity Indian Pilgrims moves beyond mainstream narratives and shows that Saint Kateri is a powerful feminine figure who inspires decolonizing activism in contemporary Indigenous peoples lives Author Michelle M Jacob examines Saint Kateri s influence on and relation to three important themes caring for the environment building community and reclaiming the Native feminine as sacred and brings a Native feminist perspective to the story of Saint Kateri The book demonstrates the power and potential of Indigenous decolonizing activism as Saint Kateri s devotees claim the space of the Catholic Church to revitalize traditional cultural practices teach and learn Indigenous languages and address critical issues such as protecting Indigenous homelands from environmental degradation The book is based on ethnographic research at multiple sites including Saint Kateri s 2012 canonization festivities in Vatican City and Italy the Akwesasne Mohawk Reservation New York and Canada the Yakama Reservation Washington and the National Tekakwitha Conferences in Texas North Dakota and Louisiana Through narratives from these events Jacob addresses issues of gender justice such as respecting the autonomy of women while encouraging collectivist thinking and strategizing and seeks collective remedies that challenge colonial and capitalist filters A Retreat with Elizabeth Seton Judith Metz, Gloria Hutchinson, 1999 Elizabeth assumed many roles in her life wife mother widow single parent educator mentor finding in each task the necessary grace She provides an example to those faced with the challenge of finding a spiritual center in the midst of many roles A Retreat with John the Evangelist Raymond Edward Brown, 1998 The last book of eminent Scripture scholar Raymond E Brown this work was published the day before his death in August 1998 This book is a seven day retreat with spiritual director John the Evangelist author of the fourth Gospel Through his artful appearance in the role of translator for John Brown wove the evangelist s words into a week of prayer and deepening acquaintance ending with a list of resources to help readers continue this relationship Available now A Retreat with Mother Teresa and Damien of Molokai Joan Guntzelman, 1999 The Redemption of Black Elk: An Ancient Path to Inner Strength Following the Footprints of the Lakota Holy Man Linda L.
