Retrieving Charisms For The Twenty First Century:

Retrieving Charisms for the Twenty-first Century Doris Donnelly, 1999 Retrieving Charisms For The Twenty First Century New Wine, New Wineskins William C. Mattison III, 2005-06-03 The growing shift in Catholic moral theology from reflecting on rules alone to focusing on the identity and formation of persons as moral agents prompts a further question What impact do recent changes in the identity and formation of Catholic moral theologians themselves have on how that discipline is practiced Young Catholic moral theologians experience a sharply different professional formation and a changed location of ongoing professional life than prior generations of moral theologians How do these differences influence the field of moral theology as a whole New Wine New Wineskins A Next Generation Reflects on Key Issues in Catholic Moral Theology addresses these questions and more by offering a snapshot of how a new generation of Catholic moral theologians understands not only topics in the field but the effects of their own identity and formation on their treatment of those topics The distinctive contribution of this volume is the interweaving of three key concerns all of which arise out of a critical self reflection on the task of moral theology today the character and adequacy of training and ongoing formation in the field of Catholic moral theology the purpose and nature of teaching Catholic moral theology and the fittingness of methodological debates with regard to the needs of the Christian life Each essay makes a contribution to its specific area of interest ranging from economic ethics to Patristic rhetoric to the nature and development of practical reasoning while probing what exactly young Catholic moral theologians are doing and how they can do what they do better Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A. Cahalan, 2010-08-01 Ministry is often examined in terms of who the minister is not what the minister does But the vocation to ministry must be understood as a call to identity as well as to practice one that is rooted in Jesus life and ministry as well as the Spirit s charisms In Introducing the Practice of Ministry Kathleen A Cahalan defines ministerial leadership as carried out through the practices of teaching preaching pastoral care worship social ministry and administration for the sake of nurturing the life of discipleship in the community of believers In her examination of charisms for each of the practices of ministry Cahalan presents readers with a Trinitarian foundation noting that the practices of discipleship and ministry have their origin in the very practices of God Kathleen A Cahalan is associate professor of theology at Saint John s University School of Theology Seminary in Collegeville Minnesota She is author of Formed in the Image of Christ The Sacramental Moral Theology of Bernard Haring Liturgical Press 2004 and Projects That Matter Successful Planning and Evaluation for Religious Organizations Alban Institute 2003 She is the past president of the Association of Practical Theology The Church in the Making Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2006 Vatican II has become a place marker in the ecclesiastical and ideological geography of contemporary Catholicism Yet forty years later few who refer to the council and its teachings whether with approval or criticism demonstrate a solid grasp of those teachings Even fewer are aware of the important debates that have taken place in the past four decades regarding the council s authentic reception and implementation of its documents The Vision of Vatican II Ormond Rush, 2019-06-27 2020 Catholic Press Association first place award theology theological and philosophical studies This book is unique in the literature about Vatican II From the manifold issues debated at the council and formulated in its sixteen documents Ormond Rush proposes that the salient features of the vision of Vatican II can be captured in twenty four principles He concludes by proposing that these principles can function as criteria for assessing the reception of the conciliar vision over the last five decades and into the future There is no other book that attempts such a comprehensive synthesis of the council s vision for renewal and reform of the Catholic Church Paul, Christian Textuality, and the Hermeneutics of Late Antiquity , 2023-12-07 The essays in the present volume celebrate the work of Margaret M Mitchell University of Chicago by engaging extending and challenging her groundbreaking research in three areas 1 the letters of Paul the Apostle both authentic and pseudepigraphic 2 the emergence and rapid development of early Christian literary culture over the first few centuries of the cult s existence and 3 Late Antique interpretive practices and perspectives particularly among patristic readers of the scriptures Saving Church Martyn Atkins, Ken Carter, 2024-01-16 The 21st century Church is in a state of distress In the pulpit and the pews people are disquieted disenchanted and dispirited Some are afraid the church they love won t be there for the next generation while others feel tired and desperate for something more With skepticism on the rise and church attendance down churches have a choice cling to the way things were or stop and ask Could God want to do something new in and through us Saving Church is a hopeful authentic vision for the future of the Church rooted in the convictions that 1 The Church is still God s chosen vehicle for accomplishing His purposes 2 Things aren t going back to the way they were and they shouldn t Combining the expertise and experiences of two giants of missional theology and the Fresh Expressions movement Saving Church will give you a fresh perspective on what church can be and help you reframe retrieve and reclaim the Church s role as a healing saving force in the world Through storytelling biblical anecdotes and honest experience you will walk away excited for the future with A healthy theology of mission that makes you want to be part of what God is up to A vision for God s mission that runs throughout all of Scripture The true meaning of the Great Commission and why it s not just about conversion A fresh take on concepts that can be difficult for a modern audience like evangelism and repentance A deeper connection to the why of Church and God s intent for it Principles to make your church more missional today Church and evangelism shouldn t be about attending an event engaging in uncomfortable tactics because that s what you should do or creating a subculture where we expect people to come to us act like us and believe like us It should be an exciting journey of embodying God s presence and purpose in the world a God of expansion inclusion outreach and reconciliation Saving Church will give you a renewed sense of what s possible permission to do things differently and a restored passion for sharing God s goodness with the world The Holy Spirit, the Church, and Pneumatological Renewal Jos Moons SJ, 2021-11-15 While belief in God the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit is at the very core of the Christian faith the significance of the Spirit in particular is sometimes overlooked in faith practice and theological reflection resulting in what theologians call Geistvergessenheit. In this context Lumen Gentium, one of the most important documents of the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965), is usually praised for its pneumatological renewal. The current volume, however, argues that this renewal is no more than modest. The Holy Spirit is still conceived of predominantly as an adjunct to Christ. To substantiate that claim, Jos Moons has developed a novel method of close reading on the basis of which he compares Lumen Gentium's conception of the Spirit to that of Mystici corporis (1943). He also analyses the redaction historical development of the former and concludes with a plea to envisage the Spirit more boldly as actively guiding the church, especially by means of the sensus fidelium, its charisms, and the discernment of spirits.

Theology of the Diaconate Owen F. Cummings, William T. Ditewig, Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2005. In these three essays, which were presented as keynote lectures at the 2004 conference of the National Association of Diaconate Directors, Professors Cummings, Ditewig, and Gaillardetz construct theologies of the diaconate in conversation with one another and the church. The result is essential reading for deacons, aspirants to the diaconate, deacon directors, as well as the other orders of the clergy and the laity. Book jacket.

How to See the Holy Spirit, Angels, and Demons Gordon James Klingenschmitt, 2013-12-01. Are God, angels, and demons really invisible? Or can the spirits be seen with human eyes through the lens of Church Ethics? The gift of discerning of spirits is indispensable to the study of church ethics. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus, Jesuits, wrote two sets of Rules for Discerning of Spirits in his Spiritual Exercises in the early 1500s. He taught how the church can receive from God the gift to see otherwise invisible angels, demons, and the Holy Spirit. Ignatius's views were influenced by John Cassian, Jacobus de Voragine, Ludolph of Saxony, and Thomas à Kempis. Ignatius's Rules are exegeted in dialogue with contemporary scholars: Karl Rahner, Hugo Rahner, Piet Penning de Vries, Jules Toner, and Timothy Gallagher, and applied to one study of ecclesial ethics in the narrative theology of Samuel Wells. A four-step Ignatian pneumatological ethical method is developed, which any analyst can follow to see the spirits by consolation, desolation, consent, manifestation, and pneumatological ethics. This method revolutionizes how we study ecclesiology, soteriology, missiology, world religions, liturgy, worship, Eucharist, hermeneutics, homiletics, pastoral counseling, church history, and politics. The spirits are not invisible at all. They can be clearly discerned through the lens of ecclesial ethics.

The Eyes of Faith Ormond Rush, 2009. Winner of the 2010 Lyn Lea Rodger Australia Theological Form ATF Press Theological Book Prize. The Eyes of Faith presents a systematic theology of the sense of the faithful, sensus fidelium, and shows the fundamental and necessary interrelationship between sensus fidelium, tradition, Scripture, theology, and the magisterium. Ormond Rush provides fresh perspectives on a number of issues. He proposes that tradition and Scripture are the products of the sensus fidelium and that the inspiration of Scripture is best understood in terms of the Holy Spirit working through the sensus fidelium. In addressing the role of the sensus fidei in the lives of individual believers, the book provides a unique approach to the way Christians make sense of their faith within the diverse contexts of daily life. It shows how the imaginative capacity of the sensus fidei forms a foundational notion for understanding the diversity of spiritualities, inculturations and contextualizations of the Gospel in the history of the church up to the present. This ecclesial activity of interpreting the Christ event through the sensus fidelium enables the church to proclaim the Gospel in new times and cultures throughout history. The Eyes of Faith proposes that for an effective teaching of the faith to contemporary Christians, the distinctive roles of the magisterium and of theology must be conceived primarily in terms of and in relationship to the ecclesial Spirit, given capacity of the sensus fidelium.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ormond Rush is lecturer of theology and former president of St Paul's Theological College in Banyo, Australia, and is president of the Australian Catholic Theological Association. He is the author of Still Interpreting Vatican II: Some Hermeneutical Principles and The Reception of Doctrine: An Appropriation of Hans Robert Jauss' Reception Aesthetics and Literary Hermeneutics.

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK In addition to its internal argumentation, the book's extensive footnotes, Scriptural references and Church documents will make it a tremendously valuable tool for advanced researchers in several theological areas including pneumatology, ecclesiology, Scripture studies and hermeneutics. Highly recommended. C. A. Monteverchio, Choice. Some works of scholarship stand out providing a point of reference and showing the way forward. Ormond Rush's study is in this class and it is not surprising that its first release by CUA Press is a splendid hardback volume. This work makes a significant contribution to Catholic Theology. Rev. John Thornhill, SM The Australasian Catholic Record. Rush provides a theologically perceptive panorama of the sensus fidelium at work in the church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. In addition to offering numerous insights, usually beneficial and sometimes provocative, Rush's study is extraordinarily well researched. This volume is an outstandingly creative and comprehensive theological study of the grace of the Holy Spirit acting through the sensus fidelium in the reception of revelation in the church. John Ford, C. S. C. Theological Studies. Rush has here provided us with a sophisticated study of theological hermeneutics as well as a foundational work in ecclesiology. Lawrence S. Cunningham, Commonweal. This detailed and well argued book explores the phenomenon of reception in both the Bible and in contemporary Roman Catholic tradition. An insightful study for those interested in the newest wave of Roman Catholic dogmatic theology which tends to draw deeply from biblical sources as well as Vatican teaching, this book genuinely advances discussions of the doctrine of reception. Aaron Klink, Religious Studies Review.

Religious Life, Loan Le, 2016-06-22. Following the Second Vatican Council, when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism, some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission, or even difficulty identifying what their charism was. This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church. While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II, there appears to be a dearth of in-depth studies. This book addresses this apparent lacuna. It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians, Jean-Marie Roger Tillard, OP, and

Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live

Lay Ecclesial Ministry Zeni Fox, 2010-10-16 The role of lay ecclesial ministers professionally prepared laity who serve in leadership roles is becoming critically more important in the life of the Catholic church In Lay Ecclesial Ministry theologians and pastoral leaders from diverse disciplines provide a deeper understanding envision future direction and offer inspiration for these new ministers and the community of the church Building on the themes of the first official document addressing lay ecclesial ministry Co workers in the Vineyard of the Lord approved by the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2005 this book delves deeply into key topics Authors reflect on dimensions of the Catholic tradition to enrich our understanding of this new reality of lay ministry in the church to envision future developments and to offer inspiration Contributors draw on a variety of theological perspectives including canon law church history ecclesiology liturgy and scripture to ground understanding of lay ecclesial ministry within the Catholic tradition and to chart direction for further response to this newly emergent ministry The book also offers inspiration and models of service to lay ministers looking to stories of the saints and communities of vowed religious Lay Ecclesial Ministry is an essential resource for the Catholic community in understanding and building upon this new and increasingly important component of church life

Charism in the Church Constant Leke Ngolefac, 2024-03-01 Charism is a hot contemporary issue The growing interest in the charisms is one of the significant religious developments of our time Opinions on charisms vary to a remarkable degree Unfortunately in some cases diverse viewpoints have led to confusion among Christians On the positive side though this developing interest in charisms has contributed to spiritual renewal and stimulated biblical research in this most important area of the Church s life The exponential growth of the Charismatic Pentecostal Movement throughout the world and especially in Africa urged led to choice of this topic on charisms In the Charismatic Pentecostal Movements the issue of charisms is very vital and extremely important It is at the centre of its spirituality and practice This Movement has spread to almost all major Christian confessions denominations and continues to attract many followers This work is unique among the many studies written on the charisms Even though the subject of charisms has received some scholarly attention most have not delved into the role of the charisms in the Church from Pauline perspective as this study does The following observations and reasons demonstrate that it is still meaningful and worthwhile to study charisms in Pauline letters

Reading and Living Scripture: Essays in Honor of William S. Kurz, S. J. Jeremy

Holmes, Kent Lasnoski, 2021-01-29 For decades respected Scripture scholar Fr William S Kurz S J has exemplified the unity of scholarship faith and action In Reading and Living Scripture edited by Jeremy Holmes and Kent Lasnoski an international gathering of scholars pays tribute to his life and work The first essay speaks to the need for the unity Fr Kurz has lived so well The next three essays illuminate the kind of scholarship typical of Fr Kurz s career one tracks the key verb choose across Luke Acts another investigates the dinner at Emmaus through an interpretation of Caravaggio s famous painting a third explores how we should imagine the everyday life of ordinary people in the seven cities that first received the book of Revelation The next two essays together with the final essay of the volume examine the necessary union of exegesis and faith one cannot separate exegesis of the human events of Scripture from the theological meaning of the text because human agency cannot be separated from the action of the divine agency The remaining essays highlight how faith filled scholarship should feed action one interprets the relevance of Genesis 1 3 for a theology of work and another argues that the early chapters of Genesis are still relevant for morality today a third essay highlights the role of the charisms of the Spirit in the Christian life reflecting Fr Kurz s own background in the charismatic movement lastly one essay describes Fr Kurz s long life of action in the pro life movement Written and assembled by friends colleagues students and long time friends of Fr Kurz this festschrift honors his accomplishments and mirrors his virtues Catholicism Opening to the World and Other Confessions

Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Jason Welle, O.F.M., 2019-01-08 This volume explores how Catholicism began and continues to open its doors to the wider world and to other confessions in embracing ecumenism thanks to the vision and legacy of the Second Vatican Council It explores such themes as the twentieth century context preceding the council parallels between Vatican II and previous councils its distinctively pastoral character the legacy of the council in relation to issues such as church world dynamics as well as to ethics social justice economic activity Several chapters discuss the role of women in the church before during and since the council Others discern inculturation in relation to Vatican II The book also contains a wide and original range of ecumenical considerations of the council including by and in relation to Free Church Reformed Orthodox and Anglican perspectives Finally it considers the Council s ongoing promise and remaining challenges with regard to ecumenical issues including a groundbreaking essay on the future of ecumenical dialogue by Cardinal Walter Kasper The Priesthood of All Believers in the Twenty-First Century

Robert A. Muthiah, 2009-05-01 Robert Muthiah believes a deepened theology of the priesthood of all believers is essential for answering the crucial questions of what shape the church should take in the twenty first century and how this theological query relates to the lived experiences of congregations Emerging churches which tend to develop vibrant practices of the priesthood of all believers need to develop more fully their ecclesiological underpinnings while historic churches with a well developed theology of the priesthood of all believers need a renewed vigor to allow this theology to shape their congregational lives With recourse to relevant New Testament texts and theological conversations The Priesthood of All Believers in the Twenty First Century argues for a fresh understanding and embodiment of the priesthood of all believers by setting ecclesiology postmodern culture and congregational practices in dialogue Elements of the discussion include ecumenical and Free church perspectives Trinitarian correspondence postmodern social structures the relevance of Alasdair McIntyre s social practices for congregations and forms of congregational leadership Religious Experience of the Pneuma Clint Tibbs,2012-04-26 This book explores the Christian religious experience of the pneuma given in 1 Corinthians 12 and 14 The experience Paul mentions in these texts as well as the mention of spirits in three different places suggest that Paul was actually writing about communicating with the spirit world
