Retrospecta Alexander Hathaway, Victoria Patridge, 2002-01-01 Yearbook of Yale School of Architecture featuring studios lectures exhibitions of the academic year Pedagogy and Place Robert A. M. Stern, Jimmy Stamp, 2016-01-01 Marking the centennial of the 1916 establishment of a professional program Pedagogy and Place is the definitive text on the history of the Yale School of Architecture Robert A M Stern current dean of the school and Jimmy Stamp examine its growth and change over the years and they trace the impact of those who taught or studied there as well as the architecturally significant buildings that housed the program on the evolution of architecture education at Yale Owing to the impressive number of notable practitioners who have attended or been affiliated with the school this book also contributes a history beyond Yale of the architecture profession in the twentieth century Featuring extensive archival research and illuminating firsthand accounts from alumni faculty and administrators this well rounded and engaging narrative is richly illustrated with historic photos of the school and its studios images of student work and important architectural achievements on and off campus Between Memory and Invention Robert A.M. Stern, 2022-03-08 A capsule history of American architecture since 1960 Wall Street Journal Architect historian and educator Robert A M Stern presents a personal and candid assessment of contemporary architecture and his fifty years of practice For more than fifty years Robert A M Stern has designed extraordinary buildings around the world Founding partner of Robert A M Stern Architects RAMSA Stern was once described as the brightest young man I have ever met in my entire teaching career by Philip Johnson and recently called New York City s most valuable architect by Bloomberg Encompassing autobiography institutional history and lively behind the scenes anecdotes Between Memory and Invention My Journey in Architecture surveys the world of architecture from the 1960s to the present and Robert A M Stern s critical role in it The book chronicles Stern s formative years architectural education and half century of architectural practice touching on all the influences that shaped him He details his Brooklyn upbringing family excursions to look at key twentieth century buildings and relationships with prominent teachers Paul Rudolph and the legendary Vincent Scully among them Stern also recounts the origins of RAMSA and major projects in its history including the new town of Celebration Florida the restoration of Times Square and 42nd Street 15 Central Park West Benjamin Franklin and Pauli Murray Colleges at Yale and the George W Bush Presidential Center as well as references the many clients fellow architects and professional partners who have peopled his extraordinary career By turns thoughtful critical and irreverent this accessible informative account of a life in architecture is replete with personal insights and humor Stern s voice comes through clearly in the text he details his youthful efforts to redraw house plans in real estate ads his relationship to Philip Johnson which began at Yale and was sustained through countless lunches at the Four Seasons his love of Cole Porter and movies from the 1930s and 1940s his struggle to launch an architecture practice in the 1970s in the midst of a recession and his complex association with Disney and Michael Eisner Unsurprisingly New York City plays a big role in

Between Memory and Invention Stern has a deep commitment to the city and recording its past he is the lead author of the monumental New York book series the definitive history of architecture and urbanism from the late nineteenth century to the present and shaping its future Though now a global practice RAMSA residential towers rise throughout Manhattan to enrich the skyline in the tradition of the luxurious apartment buildings of the 1920s and 1930s Supported by a lively mix of images drawn from Stern s personal archive and other resources this much anticipated memoir is interspersed with personal travel slides images of architectural precedents and the colleagues that have shaped his thinking and photographs of the many projects he discusses With a thoughtful afterword by architectural historian Leopoldo Villardi that delves into Stern s process of putting together this extraordinary autobiographical work Between Memory and Invention is a personal candid assessment of a foremost practitioner historian instructor and advocate of architecture today Books in Print ,2005 Retrospecta Yale University School of Architecture,2000-01-01 Retrospecta 2002/2003 Yale University.
